On Friday, the fine borough property of Jacob Stoever, dec'd, in East Lebanon, will be sold at public sale. See advertisement.

Rev. C. F. Stoever's property in Market Square is also for sale at private sale.

We learn that David Mitchell, Esq., has purchased the fine property of Mr. Joseph Uhler, in West Lebanon, for $3000 in gold.

The offerings of Beef Cattle in the Philadelphia Market last week, were large, and prices were dull, but without material change. The receipts for Hogs were also large and prices fully maintained. The Sheep market was dull and prices rather lower.

POTATO PUDDING.—Bruise with a wooden spoon, through a culender, twelve middle sized boiled potatoes; beat up four eggs, and mix them with a pint of good milk, then stir in the potatoes and sugar, and, seasoning to taste, butter the dish and bake half an hour. This recipe is simple and economical, as it is made of what is wasted in most families, viz: cold potatoes, which may be kept for two or three days till a sufficient quantity is collected. A teaspoonful of Scotch marmalade makes a delicious seasoning.

A brakesman named Joseph Baker, of Reading, was so severely hurt on Wednesday evening last, on a freight train, near Annville, that he died before morning.

The evening passenger train from Reading, on Saturday evening, was thrown off the track a quarter of a mile east from the Lebanon Depot. The train tore ahead about its own length over rails and other obstructions, and then stopped. No one was hurt, but many were terribly frightened. The accident was caused by the hands of another train leaving the switch out of place.

LADIES' FURS.

Purchasers may rely upon getting the best Furs at CHARLES OAKFORD & SONS, Continental Hotel, Philadelphia.

An unfortunate occurrence took place at the Union Water Works in this county, on Thursday last. A soldier named Wm. Wetzel, late of the 93d Reg. P. V., deliberately shot a man named Jacob Peffley, killing him on the spot.—There had been trouble between the two of long standing, of a domestic nature. After the tragedy Wetzel escaped, and up to the present time has not been arrested, in fact, it is doubtful if any serious efforts have been made to effect that object.—Both men have wives and several children. Wetzel's regular occupation is boating, and Peffley, who has also been in the service among the drafted, was lately working in the Water Works. Wetzel charged Peffley with criminal intercourse with his wife, the fruits of which is a child, now over two years old. He wanted Peffley to take the child and provide for it, upon refusing which he shot him.

A MAN WITHOUT MONEY.—A man without money is a body without a soul, a wailing death—a spectre that frightens everybody. His countenance is sorrowful, and his conversation languishing and tedious. If he calls upon an acquaintance he never finds him at home and if he opens his mouth he is interrupted every moment, so that he may not finish his discourse, which it is fearful will end with a call for money. He is avoided like a person infected with disease and is regarded as an incumbrance to the earth. Want wakes him in the morning, and misery accompanies him to his bed at night. The ladies discover that he is an awkward booby; landlords believe he lives upon air; and if he wants anything from a tradesman, he is asked for cash before delivery.

The tobacco establishment of Messrs. Hauer & Capp has been removed to their spacious new building on Cumberland street, opposite the Eagle Hotel.—The building has been erected especially for carrying on an extensive tobacco business. The large room on the first floor is devoted to the sales department, and the second and third stories are occupied by the manufacturers. The facilities of this firm enable it to sell on more advantageous terms than can be done by the city dealers, whose rents are much higher than they are in Lebanon. Particular attention is paid to wholesaleing, and country merchants and dealers will find it greatly to their advantage by giving them a call. We are satisfied that all those dealing with the above firm will obtain better bargains than can be had in the city. It.

By reference to the advertisement in another column, it will be seen that Mr. Houck, the County Superintendent, proposes to open a night school for the coming winter. This is an enterprise that deserves encouragement, and we hope he will be successful not only the present winter, but in making it a permanent institution, for many reasons.

An Insane man at large—Look out for him!—A man presented himself at one of our business establishments the other day, and in return for goods purchased threw down a silver half dollar. It is judged that the man is insane, and it is feared that he will do some damage if not soon prevented from roaming at large.

Jacob A. Shindel formerly of this place, and for several years connected with the Quarter Master's Department at Philadelphia, has been appointed by the President an Assistant Quarter Master U. S. Vol., with the rank of Captain, and assigned to duty at New Orleans, La.

COUGHS AND COLDS. Sudden changes of climate are sources of Pulmonary and Bronchial affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stage of disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or lozenges, let the Cold, Cough or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

It is proposed in Berks county that only the names of men who understand English, be placed in the "wheel" to select juries from. The evidence, the arguments of counsel, and the Charge of the Court, are all delivered in English, and hence the proposition to take only such as understand that language to pass upon the merits of the case.

G. L. Atkins has just returned with a large stock of Boots and Shoes from New York and Philadelphia. Gent's fine Double soled best Calf Boot, $8,75; Ladies' patent tiped Balmorals, $2,50.

The stockholders of the Lebanon Valley Bank, elected the following named gentlemen, on Monday week, to serve as Directors for the ensuing year, viz: John George, John W. Killinger, John Harper, Jefferson Shirk, John Muth, George Ross, George Mark, Henry D. Carmany, Cyrus M. Krall, John D. Beaver, Christian Henry, Samuel Light, Felix Light.

The newly elected Sheriff, D. W. Matthews, Esq., has moved into the county prison and entered upon the discharge of his duties.

Dr. P. B. Mish, of this borough, has been appointed an Assistant Surgeon in the Army. This is a good appointment.

A. R. Boughter, Esq., has been appointed Solicitor of the Lebanon Valley Bank.

Ayers' Cathartic Pills

ARE the most perfect purgative which we are able to produce or which we think has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases.—Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurances of their conviction that, our Preparations contribute juniquely to the relief of our afflicted, suffering fellow men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:—

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nauses, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irratability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body, or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S and take no others. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all the druggists in Lebanon and dealers in medicine everywhere.

QUESTION.—Hollo! there Dick and Nancy, where are you going, that you are in such a hurry?

ANSWER.—Why we are just on our way to Bally's Photograph Gallery, to have our pictures taken. He takes splendid pictures, and his Gallery is nearly all the time crowded, so I said to Nancy we will go early this morning before any body else gets there, or we will have to come away again without getting any.

QUEST.—Yea! I have heard too that Daily's Gallery is nearly all the time crowded, and so why don't you go to some other Gallery?

ANS.—Oh my! we could not think of such a thing.—We admire the true and beautiful picture that Daily takes, so much that we would not go to another Gallery if we could get them for nothing. He has seven years, experience in the business, has a complete set of improved instruments, an excellint sky-light, and therefore takes the best pictures in town, and, so of course every body that wants a good picture goes to him.

QUEST.—What kind of Pictures does he take?

ANS.—He takes Photographs from miniature to life-size, plain or colored. His card pictures have been pronounced more truthful and life like than some that have been taken in our large cities. His Ambrotypes are beautiful, and can't be beat. He also excels in copying pictures from small Daguerreotypes, and enlarging them almost to any size.

QUEST.—Where is this Gallery? I must give him a call too.

ANS.—Just come along with Nancy and I, and we will show you. It is in Stine's New Building, next door to the Lebanon Deposit Bank. He has constantly on hand a good assortment of Gilt and Rosewood Frames, Cases, Albums, &c., which he sells cheap.—For good and cheap Pictures we advise all to go to Daily's Gallery, Lebanon, Pa. GOOD NEWS!

HELLOW, Sal and Kate, where are you going in such a big hurry this morning. Betsy, why we are just on our way to J. A. SPENGLER'S PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY, to get our pictures taken. He takes the best pictures in town. I had my pictures taken at all the other galleries, and he took them the best of all. Well Sal, if you wait a little I will go and dress myself, and will go along, but where is his gallery? Why, in ADAM RISE'S BUILDING, where Wm. Zimmerman's was. He takes Photographs, Ambrotypes, Stereotypes, of all sizes, plain and colored.—He has his gallery fixed up in a new style, and a new set of instruments, and so he can take the best and most fashionable pictures in town. Everybody that wants a good picture taken goes to Spengler's gallery. He has constantly on hand, gilt and Rosewood Frames, Cases, Albums, &c., which he sells cheap. For good pictures we advise everybody to go to SPENGLER'S GALLERY.

Coal Oil Lamps!

I BEG leave to inform my friends and the public generally that I have commenced the manufacture of COAL OIL LAMPS of every description and style of finish, at

No. 38 S. Second St., Philadelphia.

With my present facilities for manufacturing, and a practical experience of thirteen years in the management of the lamp business for some of the largest houses in this country, I flatter myself that my experience and knowledge will enable me to offer to the public, goods not equalled by any in regard to style and workmanship, and at prices competing with the lowest. I shall always endeavor to lead in offering to the public new and useful inventions in our line. I have also taken the wholesale agency for the sale of GEO. W. BROWN & CO'S CELEBRATED METAL TOYS.
