A Decision on Manners.—The Paris correspondent of the London Star says that the Jockey Club, before whose decrees the fashionable world bend, have decided that the English custom of shaking hands is henceforth to be considered the correct thing; and, furthermore, in order to protect ladies from the annoyance of having to return the bows of any man who may choose to take off his hat to the public, the English fashion is to be adouted of ladies bowing first.

Washington, August 15th, 1861.

Sir:—Yours of the 9th inst is received. The question as to who shall pay the duty required on receipts on any sums of money exceeding $20, is dependent on the circumstances attending the case.

Ordinarily at law no person is bound to give a receipt for money paid. The receipt is an instrument of evidence useful only to the person to whom it is given.—

If he needs a receipt it is necessary for him to furnish the Stamp or to stamp the receipt, if required, before it is signed. The person who receives the money is not obliged to give a receipt unless the other party furnishes the proper stamp.

If a person gives a receipt without requiring that the party to whom it is given shall furnish the stamp, the maker of the receipt must himself stamp the paper before he delivers it. If he fails to stamp it before he delivers it, he is liable to the penalty provided by law before he delivers it. If he fails to stamp it before he delivers it, he is liable to the penalty provided by law for the om ission, but the other party may stamp it immediately upon its being received.
