Choice Poetry.

THE GIRLS AND THE WIVES. Somebody has written the following about the girls, and set it to music on the organ of the day. God bless the girls, Whose golden curls, Blend with our evening dreams; They haunt our lives, Like spirit wives, Or as if they were the streams.

God bless the girls, Whose golden curls, Blend with our evening dreams; They haunt our lives, Like spirit wives, Or as if they were the streams. They soothe our pain, They fill our brain, With dreams of summer hours; God bless the girls, God bless their curls, God bless our human flowers.

THE LATE PEACE CONFERENCE. When the news flashed across the wires a short time ago that the Peace Commissioners were on their way from Richmond to Washington, the hearts of a suffering and distressed people were made to beat high with joyous anticipation of an early return of peace.

PEACE.

We commend the following extract from an editorial in the Newark, New Jersey, Daily Journal, to the careful perusal of our readers. What, in point of fact, do we mean when we speak of Peace? Peace, as a termination to the civil war now raging? 1. Do we mean a renunciation of the relationship, intercourse and unity between, sovereign States, North and South, such as existed before the Lincoln era?

We mean when we speak of Peace? Peace, as a termination to the civil war now raging? 1. Do we mean a renunciation of the relationship, intercourse and unity between, sovereign States, North and South, such as existed before the Lincoln era? 2. Do we mean a cessation of hostilities, a disbanding of armies, a reduction of taxes and a restoration of the Law to its supremacy coupled with recognition of the revolutionary rights claimed by the Southern people, and for which they have contended so resolutely?

The following facts are condensed from a letter dated at City Point, Dec. 29, 1864, written by one of the victims, now before Petersburg, and published in the New York States Zettering. In May, 1864, P. P. Allen appeared in Hamburg, and opened his office with Meyer & Co., for the declared purpose of engaging laborers to go to the United States, offering an inducement to those who should decide to emigrate, a free passage to America, $10 a month, for one year, and a bonus of $100, the emigrants to be employed at ordinary labor.
