Landlord and Tenant Bill.-Landlords and tenants are mutually in terested in a bill now before the Legislature. Under existing laws, three months notice to a tenant is required to be given before the end of his year, before he can he ejected from the premises. But it has happened, not unfrequently that both landlord and tenant have lost the date of entry. In one case of this kind in Philadelphia, the tenant actually lived in a house for twenty years, and cannot be put out because the present owner does not know when to give him proper notice

On Monday twenty-five men had been secured to fill the quota of Lebanon borough, leaving still 25 more to be ob tained to fill it. It is most unaccountable to us, that the more men we put in as part of the reut and had failed to do the the higher our quota becomes. First cur same. Mr. Ruddiman reported favorably an act re-

MERCANTILE APPRAISER .- Mr. Jacob Kauffman, of Jonestown, has been appointed Mercantil Appraiser by the Commissioners of Lebanon county. A very good appointment. Gr Mr. George Uhler sold about 10 scres of land, in Cornwall township, a'j ining the Borough, to Mr. Peter Horst. for $2,000. Also a lot of ground with brick house thereon, and a vacant lot ad jolaing, in North Lebanon township, to Mr. Charles W.Rubnie, for$1500. DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.—On Saturday last, at a shooting match in Myerstown, Mr. David Manderbach, from near Womelsdorf, was accidentally Manderbach, from near Womelsdort, was accidentally shot through the body by a gun in the hands of Mr. Henry Shultz of Newmanstown. Mr. Shultz shot at a board without seeing Mr. Mandes bach, who was beyond t, and the ball unfortunately struck him in the lower part of the body, making a frightful wound. He lin" gered in great agony until Sunday night, when he ex. pired Mr Shultz has been in great distrets, but we have not heard of any blame being attached to him. It seems to have been one of those accidents that will sometimes occur with fire arms under the greatest care
