

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 1865.

PREPARE TO MEET YOUR DRAFTS.

The pending Draft has scarcely commenced and already we have intimations that another is coming.

Both branches of the Legislature adjourned on Wednesday to Tuesday of this week.

The New Jersey Legislature has refused to ratify the Constitutional amendments abolishing slavery.

Columbia, the capital of South Carolina, was burned by order of General Sherman, on the 24th ult.

Hon. William Cannon, Governor of the State of Delaware, died at Dover on the 1st inst.

General Sheridan's advance south along the Shenandoah valley began on Monday last.

The town elections in New York State, have gone strongly Democratic.

The latest reports we have from Sherman is that he is fast on account of the impassability of the roads.

HONESTY.—To be honest requires no talent whatsoever; it is quite a humdrum, straight-forward acquirement, which any person may attain.

Six Hundred Millions More.—The new Loan Bill passed the Senate on Wednesday precisely as it came from the House.

There is no cessation in General Grant's preparations for a gigantic expedition from Hatcher's run, on the left of his line.

Correspondence of the Advertiser. NEWBURN, N. C., Feb. 20, 1865. Mr. Editor.—After a long voyage on old Atlantic's bosom, I at length arrived at Newbern, North Carolina.

I remained in Baltimore for several weeks after my departure from home, and left the latter place on the 18th of January for Savannah.

Our voyage lasted twenty-one days and it was a most interesting trip to me, which will amply make up for the many narrow escapes we made.

other men's faces; but let us judge not, that we be not judged. The prayers of the world could not be answered, if the Almighty has His own purposes.

With malice towards none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, let us strive to finish this work.
