Cast a Line for Yourself.

A young man stood listlessly watching some anglers on a bridge. He was poor and dejected. At length, approaching a basket well filled with wholesome looking fish, he sighed "If now 1 had these I would be happy, I could sell them at a fair price and buy me food and lodging." "I will give you just as good fish," said the owner who chanced to overbear his words, "if you will do me a small favor." "And what is that?" eagerly asked the boy. "Only tend this line till I come back, I wish to go on a short errand." The proposal was gladly accepted. The old fisherman gladly accepted. The old fisherman was gone so long that the young man began to be impatient. Meanwhile, however, the bungry fish snapped at the baited hook, and the young man lost his depression in the excitement of pulling them in, and whon the owner of the line returned, he had caught a large number. Counting out from them as many as were in the basked, and presented them to the young man, the old fisherman said: "I fulfil my promise from the fish yeu have caught, to teach you that whenever you see others earning what you need, to waste no time in fruitless wishes, but to cast a line for yourself."

Am Egg Story.

The Celina (Ohio) Standard, of last week, has an article signed by eleven gentlemen of that place, certifying to the fact that John Ransbottom, a resident of Washington township, a man of medium size, sucked at the store of Christian Steinmanser, in the town of Maccedon, Mercer County, Ohio, one hundred and thirty-two eggs, after eating an unreasonable quantity of crackers and drinking a considerable quantity of water and some spirits, on Tuesday evening, March 21, 1865. will be charged for any article on our list, and this sum the purchaser need not pay until he knows what he is to get! This plan accords with the method recently become so popular for disposing of large stocks of Jewelry and similar productions

THE PLAN IS SIMPLE!

The name of each article offered far sale—as "Gold Hunting Watch." "Gold Oral-Band Bracelet." "Pearl I reastpin and Ear Drops," "Gold Enamelled Ring," "Silver Plated Cake Backt," &c., is written on a card and enclosed in a sealed envelope; these envelopes are then placed in a drawer and well mixed; then as an erder is received, with twenty-live cents for return postage and other charges, one of the cards or certificates is taken at random and sent by first mail to customer, who will see at once what he can get for one dollar. If he is pleased with his fortune he can forward the money according to detections on the certificate and secure ton prize. If the particle is warded should be unsuited to the purchaser-" Me for example, a set of Pearl Ear-Drops and Breastpin to a, young man who could not wear them, and had no che to give them to—we will sond any other article on the catalogue of equal price which may be preferred.
