ARTEMUS WARD'S BROTHER.

The following quaint letter from a gentleman who professes to be the brother of the celebrated Artemus Ward says an Eastern exchange, reached us the other day by regular mail, and we give it because it embraces so much of the special kind of humor for which Artemus is so renowned. The whole family seems to be laboring under a very bad "spell," which is a disorder that, in their case, however, seems to operate as disease does upon certain oysters, in produc ing a pearl where we might only expect putridity .

SHEGARGO, March II, 1865. To the Edytur of the Sunday Times New York .:

4 years ago, while in Indianopeles, injyana, I wrote to Mr. Prentiss off the Looseville Journel, regarding the whereabouts of my brother, Artymus Ward, of hoom I have not heard sinst between drinks; the kamil did not predominate in him, and G. Hover took him at the age of sicksty, and after two days sickness. The following is applicable to his case: "Oakum, Oakum! with me."—S. Pere.

After the old man's deth, our mother was left with four bois aforesaid, to whizz, namely, i. e. Erysipolas (named after father.)

Erysipelas (named after father.)
Artymus (the Long Lost.)
Rodney and myself.
Olonzo (named after olonzo of pizzaroncan celebrity.)
My eldest brother, Ery, went into the wool bizziness, while Rodney went out to Orriggone territory and Mbarked in the Fur trade. Ery did poorly at the Wool, and bursted, but Rodney is still in the Fur Coining money.
Artymus, at the tender age of eleven, was suddenly mist from hoam.—In this konnexshin F would remark an old stockin belongin to mother containing fore dollars in Cilver and fifty two cents in Kopper, disappeared about the same time. There was a party of akrawbats, or double somerset proklivitys, in our naburhood a few days previs, and by many it was supposed Arty had been invivated. erset proklivitys, in our naburnood a few days previs, and by many it was supposed Arty had been inviggled.

The rest is lemmon and van illia."

—Jack Spear.

At all evinks I have never heern of him but once, i. e. when I wrote to Mr. Prentiss, who did not answer mi Mr. Prentiss, who did not answer miletter, he beein engaged in translating a French letter sent to him by Soosan Monday, a noted gorriller, of the femail gender. Ward, had becum ritch, he having bin to Salt Lick City, among the Mormon women (he was allus given to the latter, even from a closing stamp. child,) and that, moreover and above, he had got a sho of wax figgers and nevertheless was perfectly decoyed with money; in which event I would remind him

"I still live."-Webb.

And as his absents cost me many teers (I carried and the water and chopt and the wood for two years after his leaving us,) and as I am his only surviving berother in poor cuck-omstances (Ery being ritch and Rodney when last heerd from was in a big contract for furnishing phien toothed koms for the Confederate army, with his hed quarters in Richmund,) therefore I do think Arty might come and see me. He is ever welkome to mi poor but happi hoam. Owe, owe, brother! if this should meet your i, think kindly off one who loves not wisely but too well; but And as his absents cost me many loves not wisely but too well: but owe, owe, deer Artymas! do not try to chake me.

"Think before you act, but when the time for action comes, stop thinking." This is the true doctrine.—
Many men fail in life and go down to the grave with hopes blasted and prospects of happiness unrealized, because they did not adopt and act upon this motto. Nothing so prepares a man for action as thought; but nothing so unfits a man for action in the course of action. Better by far to adopt some course and pursue it energetically, even though it may GENERAL JACKSON'S MOTTO. energetically, even though it may not be the best, than to keep continually thinking without action. "Go ahead" ought to be printed in every young man's hat, and read until it becomes part of his nature, until he can act upon his judgment, and not be turned from his course by every wind of interested advice. In conclusion we would say "Think before you act; but when the time for action comes stop thinking."

Young ladies educated to despise mankind, generally finish their stantial making guaranteed to all. Also Handker-chiefs, Cravats, Gloves, Hosiery, Suspenders, Fancy and Plain Linen Shirts, Under Shirts and Drawers.

THE ENTIRE STOCK OF One Gold and Silver Watch Manufactory, Two Immense Jewelry Establishments, One Silver Plating Ware-house, One Gold Pen and Pencil Maker .-To be disposed of with dispatch.
WITHOUT REGARD TO COST!

THE goods are of fashionable styles and most excellent workmanship, and are sacrificed in this way to relieve the proprietors from embufrassment occasioned by a distracting civil war. It should be prominently stated, also, that they are mostly of AMERICAN MANUFACTURE and therefore greatly superior to the goods imported from abroad and hawked about as the cheapest ever sold. The simple duty on imported goods, and the high premium on gold (all foreign bills are payable in gold,) amount to more than the entire cost or many of the articles offered by us to the public. To facilitate the sale.

ONLY ONE DOLLAR will be charged for any article on our list, and this sum the purchaser need not pay until he knows what he is to get! This plan accords with the method recently become so popular for disposing of large stocks of Jewolry and similar productions

By Particular attention paid to all kinds of Jobburg such as Roofing, Spouting, &c., and all work warranted MAY 11, 1864.

Look to Your Interest.

R. ISAAC EBA has taken the Coach Making Shops, in this borough, formerly known as Arnoid's, opposite the old Lutheran Church. He has engaged first class city workmen in all branches of his business. His stock of material is well seasoned, and of the best quality. He is prepared to manufacture on order, or sell and deliver Carriages and Buggies, of all descriptions. His work will tavorably compare in taste, finish and proportion, with any turned out in the State. A new feature will be his shifting top, leather covered Buggies, lined with broadcloth, and made after the most a proved Connecteut style.

Prompt attention will be given to REPAIRING, and the charges will be reasonable.

He has also taken the shops formerly occupied by H. C. Nipe and J. H. Miller, in SHAEFPERSTOWN.—Experienced hands are working at both places. At these shops attention will be paid mainly to building EXPRESS WAGONS, and repairing. Samples of Buggies and Carriages can be seen at all the shops.
