

ferred to North Carolina, when General Foster placed him in command of his old brigade again, which he retained, with an occasional change of Regiment, until nearly the end of his term of service. His command was transferred to South Carolina, in January, 1863, with the army that was intended to attack Charleston. He commanded a brigade, or division, in the subsequent operations before that city. He was with General Terry in the action on James Island, July 16th; he was next placed in command of the important post of Folly Island; thence transferred to Morris Island, and assisted in the siege operations against Wagner and Sumter. His brigade was one of the two selected by General Terry to make the first assault on Fort Wagner, the 7th of September. From the 8th of January until the 25th of April, 1864, Colonel Davis was in command of the operations on Morris Island against Charleston, the only place in the department where active hostilities were constantly carried on. This was at a time when there were eleven general officers in the department. The fact that Colonel Davis was entrusted with the command of honor, gives evidence of the great confidence his superior reposed in him. From Morris Island he was transferred to the command of the important District of Hilton Head, extending from Saint Helena sound, to and including, Fort Pulaski, at the mouth of the Savannah river, a distance of sixty miles. When a combined attack was made on Charleston, in July, 1864, Colonel Davis commanded the first brigade of Hatcher's division. He led the advance up Johns' Island to within sight of the city. On the morning of the 6th, while examining with a glass, a rebel battery that was playing upon his men, he was struck on the right hand by a shell, which carried away the fingers and tore the hand terribly. Of course he is made a cripple for life. After he had so far recovered from his wound as to be able to do light duty, he was made President of a general court martial, in Philadelphia, where he remained until he was mustered out of service, the first of October, 1864.

Colonel Davis was never promoted, the reason of which the War Department can give. He entered the service with more knowledge of, and experience in, military matters than ninety-nine out of every hundred officers in the volunteer army. He has in his possession the very highest testimonials from his superior officers, and was frequently recommended for promotion. He was honorably mentioned in orders for his conduct at Fair Oaks. After the fall of Wagner and Sumter, the Adjutant General of the army wrote to General Gillmore, and requested him to report the names of the officers of his corps who deserved promotion. In the reply the name of Colonel Davis stands number two, but there it ended. The others, we believe were all promoted. Four out of five of the regimental commanders in Colonel Davis' brigade, and of course his juniors, were made generals. We are sorry at some time to ask the reason.

The War Department would not promote Colonel Davis. The Popular Department in Pennsylvania will probably correct executive errors so far as to elect him Auditor General.

COL. JOHN P. LINTON.

Our candidate for Surveyor General, Col. John P. Linton, is a young man of about thirty-three years, a native of Cambria county, a pure patriot, an honest, upright man, and a splendid representative of the incorruptible mountain Democracy. He is the son of Robert P. Linton, at various times Sheriff of the county, and grandson of Peter Levensgood, Esq., who, many years ago, was Canal Commissioner of the Commonwealth. By profession, Col. Linton was lawyer, and before the war he was fast making his way to eminence at the county bars. In general intelligence he is far above the average, and professionally he is well known among the legal fraternity for his acquirements. He was a student of Jefferson College, and subsequently studied law with and became the law partner of Hon. Cyrus J. Pershing. This latter fact is of itself a guarantee for his intelligence and ability.

When, in 1861, the war was brought upon the country, he was a lieutenant in a holiday volunteer company. Mainly through his efforts the organization was retained, the company recruited to the maximum number, and upon the declaration of other officers he was unanimously proclaimed captain. With his company he faithfully served during the three months' campaign.

At the termination of the three months' campaign, Col. Linton, Campbell and McDermott at once recruited a regiment, (the 54th), and the officers were soon after, in August, 1861, commissioned as follows: Colonel, Jacob M. Campbell; (Republican candidate for Surveyor General.) Lieutenant Colonel, Bernard McDermott; (one of the soldiers of the war with Mexico.) Major, John P. Linton. Subsequently Col. McDermott resigned on account of ill-health, which, on February 1st, 1863, advanced Major Linton to the position of Lieutenant Colonel.

The regiment was immediately assigned to duty along the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad. During the whole of the early period of the war, when the mouth of the Shenandoah Valley was the scene of constant alarms and raids, the 54th Regiment was stretched as a cordon of protection to the lower tier of Pennsylvania counties. We have not time nor space in this article to follow the regiment through its later history; this will afford matter for subsequent articles. It is sufficient to say that after about two years of detached service, the regiment was ordered to take part in the active operations up

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: OF BUCKS COUNTY.
COL. W. W. H. DAVIS,

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: OF CAMBRIA COUNTY.
MAJ. JOHN P. LINTON,

NARY A SOLDIER.—In Philadelphia the Republican convention, a week ago, nominated eighteen candidates for the Legislature, and not a single one of them who had been in uniform.

THE SOLDIERS ON THEIR OWN HOOK.—The soldiers of Iowa met at Des Moines on the 23d and nominated a full State ticket against the Republican negro suffrage candidates. The Democratic Convention met on the following day and ratified the soldiers' nomination.

John Brough, Governor of Ohio, died at Cleveland on Tuesday last, 29th August, in the 54th year of his age. He is succeeded by Lieut. Gov. Anderson for his unexpired term.

The Delegates to the next Democratic gubernatorial convention from Berks and York counties have been instructed for Heister Clymer.

Junius H. Browne, the noted prisoner of war, and correspondent of the New York Tribune, has written a letter on the responsibility of causing the death of our soldiers in the Southern prisons, in which he says that "the reason the lives of twelve or fifteen thousand of our heroic soldiers were not saved was owing to Mr. Edwin M. Stanton's peculiar policy and dogged obstinacy, and that he is unquestionably the digger of the unnamed graves that crowd the vicinity of every Southern prison with historic and never to be forgotten horrors." If this is so, and the authority comes from a "loyal" source, ought not Stanton to be tried with Wirz, the keeper of the Andersonville prison, by a military commission of his own getting up?

The Copperhead organs of this and other States, heartily endorse the action of the State convention of Mississippi, now in session, looking to the protection of the rebel citizens of that State, by a constitutional provision, from all consequences of their treason, so far as the State laws are concerned. This is as we should expect to endorse whatever looks to securing complete immunity to rebels for their crimes, as they have never uttered a word against the crime when loyal men were the sufferers. It would be impossible to find a rebel shot in the South more completely devoted to the interest of treason.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

Does the Telegraph mean Andy Johnson when it talks of "Copperhead organs," "treason," and "forgeries" in the above, as the President is the only one who has publicly endorsed the action of said convention and sent it a letter of congratulation?

It is reported that twenty agents from the Southern States have sailed for Brazil to examine and report on the advantages of that empire as a field for emigration. Fifty thousand Southerners are said to be ready to emigrate thither.

POLITICS TEN YEARS HENCE—ADDRESS OF MR. CROW TO HIS CONSTITUENTS IN 1875.

The following is supposed to be the address of an enlightened colored gentleman, Mr. J. Cesar Crow, who has represented this district in Congress for one term, and is seeking a re-election. It will be seen that Mr. Crow is a politician of the liberal stripe, and is for allowing white men some very important privileges, particularly the right to marry colored ladies, &c.

To my Colored and White Constituents of the 10th Congressional District.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—I have felt greatly flattered by the call you have made on me to become a candidate for re-election to Congress from this district. Do not know, ob de fact that I had done my duty for two years as your representative had been a great source of consolation to me, and as great public endorsement of my course in the legislative halls as a statesman and patriot, had filled de measure of my political glory full to de top.

Without flattering myself, (I hope you all know I would scorn to do dat,) I think I can say with propriety dat I had did as much if not more so to elevate de character ob de black race abroad as any other man ob my limited experience. Already de foreign countries wid whom we had had domestic relations, speaking ob de internal policy ob our government wid a proper respect, and while I is free to admit dat our course towards de sufferin white man ob dis country has not been as liberal and just as I had advocated, I still tink we will sooner or later come to dat stage ob de game which will require us to show great magnanimousness, and forgetfulness ob our forefathers' injuries. It am my great desire to establish de superiority ob de colored race to any in de world, and to dis, it am necessary dat we should exhibit a noble and generous impulse towards our fallen foes. For my part I am for doing de white man justice whenever his necessity requires and de exigency ob de case will admit. I am confident dat by a proper legislation and a yieldin policy on de part ob de administration ob which de venerable and de Honorable Mr. Fred. Douglas as de head, de white man may soon be restored in some measure to de rights and position in society which (dar is no use disputin de fact) he once held.

While it am true dat de white race in America am rapidly passing away, afore de superior blood ob de colored man—as de white foam goes before de dark strong waves—still while there is yet left a vestige ob de white blood it am our duty as a great nation to protect it in every lawful and honorable manner. It will never do for dis great colored nation to hab such a history ob de white man, as de white man hab ob de Indians.

In conclusion my fellow citizens I will say dat I am:

First, In favor ob a repeal ob de law which prohibits a white man from marrying a lady ob color.

Second, In favor ob a law which prohibits a white man from owning more than one acre ob land.

Third, I am in favor ob white suffrage and always will be. De white man am as much entitled to vote as de colored man if he behabe himself in a proper manner.

Dare am many odder minor issues—such as de employment ob de white man on government works—de raising ob three regular new white regiments, &c., which I am in favor ob, but which I hab not time to discuss. I will meet my opponent de Honorable Mr. Dugy at all ob his appointments where my views can be heard at greater length.

Wid many more tanks for your flatterin call, I hab de honor to be your humble obedient servant,
J. CESAR CROW.

BURIED ALIVE.—A man belonging to the 202d Penna. regiment, was captured by the rebels last winter, near Fairfax Court House, Va. As has been the case with other prisoners, when released and returned to our lines, partook too freely of the food placed before him. Sudden death apparently followed, and the soldier was buried. Recently his remains were brought to his home in Cumberland county, and upon opening the coffin it was discovered that he was lying face downward, having turned himself in his "narrow house," and there were other evidences that he had been buried alive. His family is horror-stricken at this discovery.—It is indeed sad to think that a human being should awake in his grave, to meet death.

FEARS FOR VICE PRESIDENT FOSTER.—A letter dated July 15, published in the Montana Post, gives an account of an attack upon one of the overland Stages to California, by a party of robbers, at a place called Pointe Canon, on the 13th of July. There were seven passengers besides the driver, four of whom were killed—the rest escaped into the bush. Vice President Foster, Senator Ashley, and party, were following in the next stage, which had not been heard from at last accounts. It is feared that they have also been attacked by the robbers, of whom there is a large gang, and probably murdered. Vice President Foster was making the overland journey to California.

The public debt of the United States on August 31st was $2,757,689,571 43.

The latest invention of India rubber, in Paris, is "a false bust and neck" for females—a perfect imitation of flesh and blood and (as they say of good counterfeits) "well calculated to deceive." At the circle where the true and false neck are connected, is worn a band of ribbon or a white necktie, which completely conceals the junction.

And conceals a false heart under this sham bosom.

ABOLITION CATECHISM.

What party declared the Star Spangled banner a "flaunting lie," and "hates polluted rag?"
The Abolition party.

What party declared the Constitution of the United States, a "covenant with death and a league with hell?"
The Abolition party.

What party gave aid and comfort to the rebels, by furnishing them with arms and ammunition, in exchange for cotton and tobacco?
The Abolition party.

What party supplied General Lee's army with bacon and blankets for a-bout eighteen months before the close of the war?
Members of the Abolition party.

What party has swindled the people out of millions of money, by appointing dishonest officials to high offices?
The Abolition party.

What party has suspended the writ of habeas corpus and set up new courts of "Military Justice," which were never known before in this country?
The Abolition party.

What party is working for the advancement of the negro and the degradation of the white man?
The Abolition party.

What party is in favor of placing negroes in our Juries, county offices and other places where they will be brought into associating with the white people?
The Abolition party.

What party was it that suppressed papers, free speech and ruled by mob law?
The Abolition party.

What party was it that used the bayonet to carry elections in Tennessee, Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri and other States?
The Abolition party.

Who is the leading saint of the Abolition party?
John Brown, an Abolitionist.

Who tried for nineteen years to destroy the government of the United States?
Wendell Phillips, an Abolitionist.

Who resisted United States officers in the discharge of their duties under the laws of the government?
The Abolitionists of Oberlin.

Who was in favor of letting the South go at the commencement of the war?
Horace Greely, Lloyd Garrison, Henry Ward Beecher, and hosts of others.

Members of the Abolition party.

Who said that if it had not been for the negro soldiers, we never would have whipped the South?
The Abolitionists.

Who are now in favor of giving to the negro the right of suffrage, and placing him on an equality with the white man?
The Abolitionists.

Who are in favor of striking the word "white" out of the Constitution of Pennsylvania?
The Abolitionists.

By what other name is this Abolition party known?
The Republican-union-loyal-league-misogregation-negro-suffrage-shoddy-bond-holder-negro-equality-party.

What is the object of this party?
The object is to get the poor white people down on an equality with the negro.

How can this be prevented?
By voting the party that now has control of affairs out of power, and never giving them a chance to obtain it again.

Recruiting is quite active for the regular army, and regiments which a few months ago numbered two and three hundred men now number from five to six hundred.

One of the divers employed in the construction of the railroad bridge at Havre-de-Grace, Maryland, was smothered to death in his diving clothes.

NEGRO EQUALITY.—In the Abolition convention of Susquehanna county, Galusha A. Grosu made a speech denunciatory of President Johnson's restoration policy, asserted that a worst dangers were yet to be met, and declared that the equality of all colors was the true policy!

A Treasury Department order has been issued informing the clerks that if they do not refrain from getting drunk in business hours, they will be discharged.

One of Dan Rice's elephants got furious in Indianapolis, lately, and broke into a graveyard, and destroyed gravestones, shrubbery, &c. He was finally secured without injuring any one.

Two young competitors for the love of the same girl, at Fort Edward, N. Y., met the other evening, when one proposed to drown their enmity in friendly drink. The invitation was accepted; but there was poison in the cup; and the loved funds one lover dying and the other waiting to be hanged.

During the reception of General Grant at St. Paul, Minnesota, on Saturday last, a balcony in one of the principal streets gave way, injuring twenty persons, two or three of them, it was thought, fatally.

A YOUNG LADY DROWNED.—The Harrisburg papers state that early on Tuesday morning, a young lady named Sarah Schwarm was drowned in the canal, at the foot of Second street, in that city. She was employed in the family of Mr. J. S. Springer, who resides near Hammelstown, and some ten miles from Harrisburg. At a very early hour in the morning, she, in company with some of the members of the family left home, in a wagon, to come to the city, and as they were crossing the canal bridge, on Second street, Sarah attempted to leave one seat in the wagon, and occupy another. While in the act of doing so, she accidentally fell from the wagon, and, it is supposed, was stunned by the fall, as in attempting to rise she rolled off of the side of the bridge, and disappeared in the water, which is very deep, at that point.

A number of men were immediately engaged by Mr. Springer, to search for the body, by diving, and a seine was used, but up to the time of writing this the unfortunate girl had not been found.

LATER—Probable Cause of Suicide.—The Body found.—Since the above was put in type, the body of Sarah Schwarm has been recovered. It was found some fifty yards below the bridge. Further particulars have been learned, from which it seems highly probable that the girl committed suicide. It appears that some time ago she gave birth to an illegitimate child, the father of which refused to marry her. She became despondent in consequence of her betrayal, and occasionally threatened self-destruction, on account of her loss of character. This morning she and Mrs. Springer occupied the market wagon, and when upon the canal bridge Sarah requested that the team might be stopped, as she desired to exchange seats. For this purpose, as was supposed, she jumped out of the wagon, and instead of seeing her re-enter the wagon, Mrs. S. heard a plunge in the canal. Mrs. S. called her but received no reply. Sarah did not reappear, and was not again seen until the lifeless body was taken from the water, late in the afternoon. If her death was one of self-destruction, her premature end is chargeable to her seducer, and although he may not be punished here, he cannot be considered innocent of the murder of Sarah Schwarm.

Coroner's Inquest.—The Coroner held an inquest on the body, at noon to-day, and after hearing the evidence the jury rendered a verdict of Suicide.

THE LATE SUICIDE.—We have heard numerous and conflicting stories relative to the causes which induced the young girl, Sarah Schwarm, to commit suicide yesterday. One attributes the rash act to seduction by a young man who subsequently proved to be a "gay deceiver," and cruelly abandoned the victim. Another statement presents the affair in a different light, and implicates a married man whose intimacy with the deceased is believed to have been of a criminal nature. From all we can learn there is no doubt that the girl was the victim of some unprincipled for her murder. Who the individual is remains to be developed.

MURDER OF A READING MAN AT EASTON, PA.—John M. F. Steen, a citizen of Reading, and a brother-in-law of William Y. Lyon, of Reading, was killed at Easton, Pa., on last Saturday evening, under the following circumstances. Steen arrived in Easton on Friday afternoon, the day previous, and was at a tavern in the western part of that borough, in company with two Easton men named George Hutman and Peter Wellers. Wellers asked Steen to take a drink with him, which Steen refused. Some angry words then took place between the parties, on the porch of the tavern, when Hutman interfered, and told Wellers to knock Steen down. Steen, in reply told Hutman that the quarrel was no business of his, whereupon Hutman struck Steen a very powerful blow on the temple knocking him against the side of the house. Wellers then rushed in and gave Steen several kicks. Steen died in a few seconds after being struck by Hutman. A post mortem examination showed that Steen's neck had been dislocated. In the confusion that ensued Hutman and Wellers made their escape. The Sheriff of Northampton county has offered a reward of $100 for their apprehension.

A Detroit officer who was taking a female prisoner from Saginaw in the cars left her for a few minutes to go into another car, when the conductor came along, and the woman refusing to pay her fare he put her off the train. The officer was not a little chop-fallen on learning how he lost his prisoner.

STEALING PRINTING OFFICES.—'Brick Pomeroy,' of the La Cross Democrat, has the following item concerning a couple of his abolition contemporaries. He says: "The press and type on which the Free Press and Commonwealth, a Republican paper, is printed, was stolen from a printing office at Columbia, Tennessee, by its present user, the editor of the Commonwealth. There is a prospect of the 'loyal' confiscation coming to grief over it. A Republican printing office in this city has lately received a lot of second-hand type worn down South when the owner was away. We admire a fighting rebel more than a thieving patriot, and are not afraid to say so. If these Southern printing office stealers could have stolen a few brains at the same time they would have been better off than now. A pity this cruel war is over."

THE NEW BAKERY.—The undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens of Lebanon, that he has commenced the Lebanon Bakery, at the corner of Second and Third streets, in this city. He has a first-class oven, and a variety of other household and kitchen furniture too numerous to mention. He has also a large stock of flour, sugar, and other groceries, and is prepared to furnish the public with all kinds of fresh and of the best quality, constantly on hand, and furnished at the lowest prices. Lebanon, Aug 23, 1865.
