The London Christian Age says of T. De Witt 'Talmage's sermons: "We believe that for originality, power and splendor, his sermons will bear comparison with the greatest pulpit productions of any age or country. But for the knowledge of human life, and the adaption of divine truth to the whole being of man-intellectual, emotional, moral, practical-and for the power of applying the truth, we know not his equal." Mr. Talmage's sermons and articles are furnished only to The Christian at Work, of which he has recently become editor. Sample copies free, Office, 102 Chambers street, N. Y. Mauch Chunk Items.

The Mexican Veterans will celebrate the 27th anniversary of the battle of Cerro Gordo, at Mauch Chunk, to-day. The Scott Legion arrived last night, embracing among their numbers such distinguished veterans as Major Generals Joe. Hooker, Robert Patterson, Cadwalader, and Brigadier Generals Abereromble, Biles and Ballier. They were met at the depot by a large delegation of citizens, Hon. Allen Craig making the reception speech. The members of Co. K, 2nd Regiment P. V., formerly members of the old Stockton Artillerists, participated in that memorable battle, but seven or eight still surviving. This morning the entire party will take a trip over the Switch Back R. R., accompanied by a committee of citizens, leaving the Mansion House at 9 A. M., and returning at 2 P. M., when the Grand Banquet will take place, the party returning to Philadelphia with the 7:30 P. M train.

The pretty Vescelius trio, Miss Lousie, Frank and Eva, as-isted by two excellent planists and a lady violinist, filled Rhoads' Hall on Wednesday night with a large and select audience. We noticed several of the good people of Lehighton there.

The building torn down to give place for the site of the new brick residence of Mrs. M. M. Dimmick was the first and oldest building erected in Mauch Chunk.

Rev. A. M. Wiggins, the new paster of St. Paul's M. E. church, is a very able preacher, and by his gentlemanly and social demeanor is making many friends outside of his own congregation.

Dreisbach and Walter have placed a handsome wire window screen in front of their new office, in the Mansion House building, which contains on a dark brown ground work large gilt lettering as follows "Dreisbach & Walter, Coal."

Miss Alice Dink, the pretty daughter of Mr. George Dink, of this place, and Mr. Lemuel Hulshizer, were married at the residence of the bride's parents on Tuesday morning.

Mr. Jas. A. Dinkey and S H. Rutter of the C. R. R. of N. J. corps of clerks, are occupying the room lately vacated by the Leh. Coal & Nav Co., in the First National Bank building. The interior of this large room has been handsomely decorated by Luckenbach, the painter.

Nearly $400 in fines from the liquor cases were garnered into the Law Library Treasury at last court.

The high winds for the past few days have dried up the mud and now it is a common sight to see the lovers of dashing turnouts continually on the read. Allen Craig Esq., will occupy his new law office in Dolon's building next week. The Minerva Lyceum have leased their present rooms in Armbuster's block for another year. H. J. Woodring will fit up offices in the basement of the American Hotel, and Counsellor Muthearn will occupy one of them.

Since Philip Engesser moved into the Mauch Chunk House, the wood work In the entire building has been painted and the old sign, that has remained untouched from the wind rain and snow of full twenty winters, has been taken down and repainted in bright colors by Joseph Hummel.

The Leh. Coal and Nav. Co. are at present occupying the old stone building, on Susquehanna Street, formerly occupled by the Hazard Wire Rope Co.

Mr. Alfred Whittingham, Register and Recorder, is now residing with his family in town, and Thomas Kemerer, Esq., has had a counter placed along the entire length of the Prothonotary's office, to place the various Dockets on. It is tastely painted and grained in light colors.

Mr. C. B. Rhoads, the hatter, has purchased a sorrel horse from Mr. B. F. Yeager, of this place, which seems to be one indication that the proprietor of Rhoads' Hall is prospering.

Mr. B. F. Yeager, having closed out his liquor store, is going into the buying and selling of borses. He has made several sales already, and has received this week three horse from Catasauqua.

The American Hotel will be the most elegantly furnished of any hotel in town. Mr. H. J. Woodring, the new proprietor. is determined to make it the hotel of the town. Magnificent body Brussels carpets of the brightest hues and pleasing figures, costing $2.25 per yard, cover the floors from the attle to the cellar. The gas fixtures are all new. The dining room is frescoed in warm and glowing colors, and by the first of May it will be opened under the new regime.

The Tableaux and Shadow Pantomimes, exhibited for the benefit of the St. Paul's M. E. church, of this place, were a decided success. They were shown out in a brilliant manner by the aid of red and green fires. On Thursday evening the receipts were $175 and on Saturday $75. This was doing right well when taking into consideration the unpleasant and rainy weather.

Mr. II. Wolfe, an old and respected German citizen of Upper Mauch Chunk, was drowned at Philadelphia on Thurs. day night. It seems that he, with his two sons, were asleep in the cabin of his canal boat, which was lying at the Port Richmond wharves, waiting to be unloaded. During the night the boat sprang a leak, and the boys were a roused from their slumbers by the noise of the water rushing into the cabin. They awoke their father, and hurrying out crawled over the ropes to the wharf, the boat sinking pefore their father could make his escape. Mr. Wolfe was a man of some property and leaves a wife and several grown up children to mourn his loss. His remains were brought to Mauch Chunk for interment. A special term of Court will be held on the first Monday in May. The June term commences on the third Monday of that month and will last two weeks. The jury commissioners are preparing to draw the jurymen, 48 for the 1st week and 36 for the second.

The stone cross that was blown down from one of the pinnacles of the Episcopal church has been replaced during the present week. Your Own.
