

The Carbon Advocate.

H. V. MORTIMER, . . . . . EDITOR.

LEHIGHTON, PA.

SATURDAY MORNING MAY 16, 1874.

Whereindefatigable to Hon Chas Albright for copies of Hayden's Surveys, 1872, the Compendium of the Ninth Census of the United States, and other public documents.

The Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of Eastern New York met at the Music Hall, Kingston, at 10 A. M., on the 13th Inst, Grand Worthy Patriarch S. L. Parsons presiding. All the grand officers were present. The report of the Grand Worthy Patriarch endorsed the political action, and the following resolution was introduced—

Resolved, That the Grand Division in Eastern New York unite with our brethren in Western New York in saying that no consistent temperance man can desire the re-nomination of General Dix. That he has deliberately balked and hindered temperance work. That he has arrayed himself on the side of the rum-sellers, and that no party which places him in nomination can hope to receive the support of temperance men, no matter what may be their religion, nationality, race, color or politics.

Andy Johnson is very anxious to go to the Senate, and he has proposed a novel expedient for influencing the Legislature in its choice; and we are free to say that it is one which is much more honest than those that have been largely employed during late years to promote the interests of politicians having Senatorial aspirations. His plan is that every voter at the State election shall indicate his choice for Senator by writing the name of the favored candidate on his ballot. Mr. Johnson made a speech in the public square in Nashville the other evening, when he talked to his fellow citizens with his accustomed frankness. He told them that he was a Democrat, had never left the party nor any cardinal principle of the party, and that he never expected to leave the party; and that if he was out of it there would be but little of it left. He also remarked to his hearers that he had served the people in all the positions it was possible for a man to serve them in—an observation which has a flavor of old times.

Gentleness.

What a vast amount of sorrow and trouble the world would be spared if everyone would seek to restrain anger and cultivate a good temper. Many a life is embittered by harshness of spirit; many a home but for it would be filled with sunshine and happiness, and many a now sorrowful heart would overflow with joy.

There are those who embitter both their own and other lives by failing to curb a naturally hasty spirit.

How everyone admires gentleness and sweetness of disposition. Scarce anything wins like it. It is a possession that surpasses in worth the costliest rubies. Money will not purchase it. It is oftentimes seen in those who have but little of this world. All admire, yet how few have it!

Divine wisdom in sacred writ extols it; "He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city."

Unlike some things of value, no one who will diligently set himself to seek need despair of finding it. The most hasty may become the gentlest.

That one who oftentimes mourns that he has been overcome may fully master himself.

If it were sought as gold and silver are it would more surely and more profitably than they reward the quest.

Repeated failure in the effort to obtain riches discourages not the ardent soul; so neither should it the one that would gain this priceless treasure.

The most beautiful illustration of the world has ever had of gentleness and of its beauty is furnished in that most perfect of all lives—that of Christ who lived to teach us how to live. We too, may become like Him.

Wilmington, May 14.—Lewis Robinson came from New Haven to this city yesterday morning. At noon he attempted to commit a rape on a little girl, on Market-st., between Sixth and Seventh. He was arrested a few minutes afterward and committed to New Castle jail. This morning he was arraigned for trial, and this afternoon convicted and sentenced to about five o'clock. The time between the commission of the crime and conviction being just twenty-nine hours. He will be whipped with thirty lashes on Saturday, printed one hour, and imprisoned for ten years.

Belleville, May 13.—The election of officers of the Grand Commandery of Pennsylvania: Grand Commander, J. H. Disenberry, Grand Bend, Deputy Grand Commander, Charles H. Kingston, Philadelphia, Grand Generalissimo, Andrew J. Kaufman, Columbia; Grand Captain General, Wm. H. Engle, Harrisburg; Grand Prelate, Robert H. Patterson, Phila.; Grand Senior Warden, Samuel B. Dick, Meadville; Grand Jr. Warden, J. P. S. Gobin, Lebanon; Grand Treasurer, W. J. Mack, Philadelphia; Grand Recorder, Charles E. Meyer, Pimadecia.

Philadelphia Letter.

PHILADELPHIA, May 9, 1874.

NEW ARCHDIOCESE.

A convention of Roman Catholic Archbishops was recently held at Cincinnati, and it is reported that Philadelphia is to be made an archdiocese. Of course, nothing definite as to the result of the deliberations can be obtained, until the proceedings of the convention have been approved at Rome. In case an archdiocese is approved for this city, it is very probable that the venerable Bishop Wood will be exalted to the responsible position.

THE SAINTE CASE.

Captain Brady is still going on with his suit against the American Steamship Co. for salvage in saving the Pennsylvania from foundering at sea. Many persons are of the opinion that he cannot recover his suit, because salvage can be lawfully claimed only when a vessel has been abandoned, and this was not the case with the Pennsylvania. The unfortunate steamship L'Amirique was a legitimate subject for salvage, and there can be no dispute whatever in that instance.

SINGULAR SUICIDE.

A young girl has committed suicide in a very strange and original manner. She saw her betrothed walking in the street with another fair damsel, and the fires of jealousy at once broke out into a flame, making her feel very unhappy, and impelling her to self-destruction. The poor deluded creature ate the coated ends of lucifer matches, and died in horrible agony. If she could not succeed in making a match during life, she seemed resolved to meet her death by a match. Let young ladies beware of her sad fate, and not be so foolish as to commit suicide because a lover proves false to them. It should be a source of congratulation, rather than of regret, that the deceitful one has shown his true character. There are many fish in the boundless ocean, and no tender heart need be broken in our days.

HYDROPHOBIA.

A most melancholy death has recently taken place from this frightful disease. A month ago, several little children were playing in the street, when three of them were bitten by a dog. Immediate attention was given to the sufferers, and the most approved appliances of modern surgery were used. No serious results were anticipated, until one of the children manifested symptoms of hydrophobia a few days ago, and at last, death ended his sufferings. This must be a source of intense anxiety for the parents of the other children who were bitten.

What use are so many dogs, and particularly in a large city? They run promiscuously through our streets, seem to have no owners, and are often almost starved to death. It would be better to destroy every dog than have a single human life sacrificed by them.

MUNICIPAL SECURITY.

Strangers can now walk through our streets, at any hour of the night, without being molested. The police are always at their posts of duty, and the robbers and murderers who formerly attacked persons in the streets, are now obliged to emigrate to places more congenial to their calling. Philadelphia is one of the safest cities for the stranger to visit.

AN ACCEPTABLE VERDICT.

In the case of the suit brought by the heirs of the man Snyder (who was found dead in Monocacy Creek, near Bethlehem,) against the New York Mutual Life Insurance Company, and to which we referred in a previous letter, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the heirs for thirty-one thousand eight hundred dollars, being the full amount claimed. The verdict called forth applause from the large assembly present. Whilst it is very desirable that Insurance Companies should be protected from fraud, the disposition shown by them recently to dispute payment in so many instances, must damage them in the end.

THE CENTENNIAL.

The failure of Congress to pass the Centennial bill on Thursday, produced deep disappointment with many of our citizens, and sharp indignation with many more. Some are still unwilling to despair, hoping that the opponents of the measure, who have been making unenviable records for themselves, and manufacturing humiliating pages for the country's history, may yet see the error of their way. The general state of feeling seems to be, that while Philadelphia and Pennsylvania are willing to bear the brunt of the work, they are neither singly nor jointly, willing to shoulder unaided the entire responsibility of a celebration, the chief credit and glory of which go to the nation as a nation. Confidence is felt, by not a few, that the city and state will see to it that the project will not fail, but will simply be modified to meet the new condition of things. "If necessary," says one of our leading Dailies, "the exhibition will be entirely Philadelphia and Pennsylvania in its management, and in the payment of the expenses." So, you see, the Old Keystone is getting her back up, and shows a disposition to "declare independence" of her neighbors, even on the occasion when the "Declaration of Independence" by all the States is to be signified.

MUNICIPAL REQUEST.

The late John Bohlen, of this city, has bequeathed $100,000 to charitable purposes. This is a most excellent example for other wealthy gentlemen to "do likewise." The late Joseph Harrison, Jr., whose estate was appraised at six millions of dollars, left not a cent to any institution whatever. How dwelt the love of mankind in the heart of a person who cannot give a little of his great wealth to benefit his fellow creatures?

RELIEF FOR LOUISIANA.

The subscriptions from this city have nearly reached $20,000, and there is no doubt that this amount in full will be sent to the sufferers.

SALE OF A RAILROAD.

On last Thursday, the Sunbury and Lewistown Railroad was sold in this city at public auction. This road runs from opposite the borough of Selingsgrove, in Snyder county, to Lewistown, Mifflin county, a distance of forty-two miles. The purchasers were Samuel M. Zolock, Josiah Hart, Daniel Rock, Joseph D.

Thornton, and W. Budd Deacon, and the price paid was $551,000.

THE NEW CHURCH MOVEMENT.

A second meeting of persons in favor of founding a Reformed Episcopal Church in Philadelphia has been held, and nine vestrymen were chosen. The new organization is to be called the Second Reformed Church of Philadelphia. The movement seems to be growing in favor, and some of our most prominent Episcopalians are taking an interest in it.

THE TEMPERANCE CRUSADE.

"All quiet on the Potomac," and our female crusaders are now smoking the pipe of peace, having wisely resolved to visit the drinking saloons no more. Some persons have been arrested for selling liquors to minors, and if convicted, the full extent of punishment will be meted out to them. Our Mayor is determined to suppress this accursed traffic, and he has instructed his police to arrest every man who sells rum to minors. It is to be hoped that this will have the desired effect of breaking up the entire system, and thus saving the lives of our young men. In the House of Correction, ninety per cent. of the inmates are sent thither through the influence of liquor, and many of them are young girls. We are greatly in need of a lasting reform.

Yours truly,

Modoc.

The gold premium stiffened from 11 1/2 to 11 3/4 and closed at 11 3/4. The shipment of $500,000 in gold coin on Wednesday last has excited the hopes of the speculators, who imagine they see in this the commencement of the usual summer drain to Europe.

AGENTS WANTED IN EVERY TOWN.

A roof may be covered with a very cheap shingle, and by application of this slate be made to last from 20 to 25 years. Old roofs can be patched and coated, looking much better and lasting longer than new shingles without the Slate, for

One-third the Cost of Re-shingling.

The expense of shingling new Shingles is only about the cost of simply laying them. The Slate is FIRE PROOF against sparks or flying embers. For tin and iron it has no equal, as it expands by heat and contracts by cold, and never cracks or scales. Roofs covered with Tar Sheathing Felt can be made water-tight at a small expense.

The Slate Paint is Extremely Cheap! two gallons will cover 100 square feet of shingle roof, or over four hundred of Tin or Iron. Price ready for use is 80 cents per gallon, with a liberal discount to the trade.

No Tar is used in this Composition.

On decayed shingles it fills up the holes and pores, hardens them and gives a new substantial roof that will last for years. Curled or warped shingles, it brings to their place and keeps them there. It fills up all holes in Tin or felt roofs, and stops the leaks, one coat being equal to five of ordinary paint.

The color of the Slate when first applied is dark purple, changing in about a month to a light uniform slate color and is

$1000 REWARD for an incurable case of Catarrh. After having suffered, deluged, gargled, hawked, spit and gagged to your entire satisfaction in your useless endeavors to get relief from catarrh, use Briggs' Alleviator according to directions. The fifty mace of mucus will be immediately expelled, and the inflamed surface soothed, the eyes sparkle with delight, the head feels natural again; hope revives, for a cure is sure to follow the use of this agreeable, scientific and reliable remedy.

Coughs! MUCH has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered, but nothing has been so eminently successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

Corns! THE excruciating pain produced by corns, the unceasing twinging from bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from ingrowing nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and justify merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment, immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of festering corns, inflamed and ulcerated bunions, the most intense, the largest and severest blisters, the most extensive callosities on the sides or heels of the foot, unequalled in the cure of chilblain or frost-bite. The Alleviator for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unequalled by anything ever known. Ask for Briggs' Remedies. Take no other.

Piles! IT'S ALL VERY WELL, but don't trouble to think of it, if you are suffering from Piles. For this reason, the unfortunate sufferer gets very little sympathy. The agony of Piles is not or cannot be more severe than the torture endured by millions who are troubled with internal bleeding, external and itching piles. Glad tidings for sufferers, Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, safe and sure.
