Camp Meeting. On Wednesday, 20th inst., at 5 30 A. M., the Board of Control to have charge of the camp meeting to be held in July next, near this place, held a meeting at the M. E. church, Bethlehem. There were present quite a number of ministers and laymen from the Methodist churches of the Valley, among them— Rev. W. B. Wood, Presiding Elder, Rev. A. Wiggins of Mauch Chunk, Rev. W. Coffman and Mr. William Kemerer of Lehighton, Rev. L. B. Brown and Messrs. Bowman and Peters of Parry-

The following committees were ap-pointed to perfect arrangements for and to have charge of the different interests onnected with the camp: A committee of five to see to having the woods in readiness, to provide seat-ing, &c., as follows, Judge Bowman, J. Peters, D. Olewine, William Kemerer and Rev. W. Coffman. To procure tents-Rev. J. T. Swin-dells, Messrs. Miller, Kemerer and Schwartz. On boarding and refreshments-Rev. J. Pasterfield of Catasavqua, Messrs.

J. Pasterheid of Catasauqua, messis. Laramie and Ritter. On order—Dr. Reber, Wm. Kemerer and Rev. W. Coffman. To make arrangements with Railroads for Excursion Tickets—Rev. William B.

Wood. It is expected that the M. E. churches of the Valley will be largely represent-ed at the coming camp; because of the easy access of the meeting to the Schuylkill region by cars, the churches of that section will probaby send a goodly number of pastors, members and their friends. We would call the attention of the people, through the papers, to the fact, and feel confident that if they knew what superior advantages the grove possesses for camping purposes, its nearness to the railroad stations, its fine shade, grassy sward and excellent water, its retirement and surrounding cenery, many of them would be eager to spend a week in religious exercises in so charming a spot. The Board of Control are resolved to make all possible provision for the com-fort and welfare of those attending. The people of Lehighton and surrounding country may expect a rich religious feast in the preaching and various meet-ings to be held during the progress of the camp.

frinity Evang. Lutheran Church. The basement of this place of worship, situate on the corner of Iron and North ampton streets, in this borough, was dedicated to the services of the Triune God on Sunday morning last, a large concourse of people being present on the occasion. The services were opened by Rev. D. K. Kepner. The Anthem 'Great is the Lord," was then beautifully rendered by the choir. Reading ot Scripture and prayer by Rev. D. K. Kepner; after which Prof. Horne, of Kutztown, delivered a beautiful and effective sermon, from the text: 'How lovely are thydwelling.' Anthem, ''Daughters of Zion'' by the choir, followed by the Dedication Services. by Revs. Horn and Kepner, in accordence with the rites of the church. The choir then sang the dedication anthem: "And will the great Eternal God," &c.

The afternoon services were opened by Rev. D. K. Kepner, followed with the Anthem: "Sing O, Heaven, and be joyful, O Earth." by the choir; prayer by Prof Horne, and an eloquent sermon by Rev. Mr. Renninger, it here." text. "It is good for us to be here." Rev. Mr. Renninger, from the Prof. Horne followed in a short address in English; anthem: "Messiah is King," by the choir. Doxology and benediction.

The evening servees were opened by Rev. M. Renninger; anthem: "Come holy spirit, heavenly dove," by the choir. Prof. Horne, then delivered a beautiful sermon from John xvi., chap, and 16th verse—"And yeta little while, and ye shall not see me &c.

The services during the day proved very interesting, and instructive and the different collections netted for the Horrible Murder at Summit Hill.

A most horribie murder was commit ted at Summit Hill, in this county, on Tuesday night last. The victim Kate Leimbach, a beautiful young girl of 17 years, the daughter of a widow, was enticed from her home and killed in some low brush a short distance from town. The body was discovered on Wednesday morning by a laborer on his way to work, who accidently stumbled over it as he was proceeding through the woods. The wounds were all on the head, which presented a frightful appearance, and appeared to have been made with a stone. The Coroner sum mened a jury and proceeded to hold an inquest on the body, but so far no evidence has been elicited fixing the crime upon any person. The people are much excited, and threats of lynching are freely indulged in by the populace

The L. and W. T. A. A regular meeting of the Lehighton and Weissport Temperance Association, was held in the M. E. church, in this borough, on Wednesday evening last, the President, A. W. Raudenbush, In the chair. The minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

It was on motion, Resolved, That the compensation for lecturers be limited to $5.

Resolved. That the Executive com mittee, through its chairman, E. Miner, be authorized to make arrangements with Rev. Wilmer Coffman, pastor of the M E. church, to deliver the next lecture, on Monday evening, June 1st, 1874, in the basement of the First Presbyterian church, of this borough.

Eighteen persons signed the pledge at the close of the meeting.

Adjourned to meet at same place on Wednesday evening next, 27th inst., at 7:30 o'clock. Friends of temperance are invited.

The Lecture,

On Monday evening last in the Evangelical Church, Weissport, by Daniel Kalbfus, Esq., of Mauch Chunk, was undoubtedlyone of the most eloquent and effective ever delivered on the subject of temperance in this locality. The audience was large and appreciative, the lecturer keeping them, as 'twere spellbound until near ten o'clock. He pictured the career of the drunkard in every stage of his downward course, from the taking of the first glass to the disfigured. besotted, blear-eyed and bloated heap of humanity wallowing in the gutter, and gave statisticial figures showing the large amount of misery, wretched ness and want caused by rum drinking; he concluded with a stirring appeal to the young, the middle-aged and the old to abandon the cup which leadeth only to perdition.

Shot his own Son.

John Kilpatrick, a miner of Wilkes Barre, while in a drunken fit Friday night of last week, shot and killed his only son. Kilpatrick came home about 9 o'clock, and when he ascertained that his wife was visisting at a friend's house he got a revolver, took his son's watch, sat upon the door step, and swore that unless his wife returned in fifteen minutes he would blow her heart out. The son, nineteen years of age, who had retired, heard the threat, and got up and asked his father to pnt up the revolver, but received a threat for a reply, and upon repeating the request the father fired and shot him in the left temple. The murderer was arrested a few minutes afterward, and Sunday morning denied all knowledge of the Big Creek Item Warm weather is approaching. Now for straw hats. To late to graft. Farmers busy at work. The picnic senson coming.

Fruit trees look promising. The roads have dried nicely.

The woods are now putting on their autiful green foilage.

Some of our old farmers, who pretend to know all about it, say that we will have an abundant supply of apples this year, providing the frost will not set in

Wheat, 1ye, and oats look well, but need rain. Some corn planted - needs rain also. The spring scason is some-what late in this vicinity, as regards the bloom and leaf of fruit and forrest es, than for several years. A fulle bloom has not been seen for several years on all kinds of fruit trees than this, and if the drouth, blast, insects and birds will stay their ravages the yield of fruit will be very large the coming season-even the peach trees, which are scarce-only here and there a solitary one that has straggled and lived along for years in barrenness are full of blossoma

We noticed in last week's issue of the 'Advocate" (under the head of New Advertisements) several of our farmer names appearing, positively forbidding all persons from tresspassing on their property for fishing or hunting. They are determined to fill it to a dot,—for the new Pennsylvania law makes it a penalty of fifty dollars for any one to fish on the premises where notices are published in the newspapers forbidding it.-How is that for high?

Preparations are being made, both at the factory and quarry of the Poho Poko Slate Co., to put it in operation at once.

A Card of Thanks.

The members of Trinity Evaugelical Lutheran church desire to return thanks to the members of the First Presbyterian church for the use of their organ; to Prof. H. A. Kline, Mrs DuFour and H. A. Kuntz, Mr. Frantz and Mr. C. Horn, for the kind services rendered in the choir on the occasion of the dedication services of the church basement.

church in the neighborhood of $300.

The Packerton M. E. Church. This edifice was dedicated on Sunday afternoon last. The size of the building is 30 x 50 feet, lofty, and will comfortably hold about 250 persons. The cost of the building was $2,225. All of which had been paid with the exception of $825 previous to the service of Sunday morning last, and this amount was raised on that occasion, so that this handsome little church, at its dedication in the afternoon was announced to be out of debt. The furniture is neat and ample; the platform and alter being neatly covered with a tasty Brussels carpet, and furnished with a handsome sofa, table and chairs. The building and its appointments reflect much credit upon the taste and enterprise of those who have pushed this work to so successful a completion.

The morning services was opened by the Presbyterian choir, of Lehighton, comprising the following members: Mrs. Stiles, Miss Gould, Mrs. Rhoads, Mrs. Renshaw and Miss Harleman; Mesars. Renshaw, DuFour, Stiles. Rateliff and McMurtrie: singing, "We shall dwell forever more," &c.; followed by "The Lord, Jehovah reigns ou high," &c., by the congregation. Presiding Elder, Rev. W. B. Wood, then offered a most beau tiful and appropriate prayer followed by the reading of the lesson and a most excellent and impressive sermon from 6th Chap. of 2nd Book of Chronicles and part of 18th verse: "But will God in very deed dwell with men on earth?" Rev. A. W. Waggins, of Mauch Chunk, assisted by Revs. Wood and Townsend, conducted the dedicatory services in the afternoon, and Rev. W. Coffman of Lohignton preaching an ex-

Large Fire.

On Monday evening a week the citizens of the village of Lehigh Tannery, near White Haven, discovered that the immense tannery of Messra, Holcomb & Co., at that place, was on fire. The alarm was at once sounded and in a few minutes a large crowd assembled and were at work endeavoring to subdue the flames, but it was soon discovered that the most that could be done was to save dwellings of the people of the town, which were in great danger of being consumed. By hard work the houses were saved, but the tannery was comtely destroyed. It contained 12,000 hides in various stages of preparation, and the total loss is estimated at $75,-000-Allentown Democrat.
