- Communion services were held in St. Paul's church, at Big Creek, on Sunday morning last, Rev. F. T. Hennike, officiating, 67 persons partook of the Sacrament; after which the catechiem class (number 10 children) was examined. This is a good exhibit of the church.

The Lord's Supper will be administered in the M. E. church, at Big Creek, (Solt's church) on Sunday morning next; there will also be services in the afternoon and evening. Rev. A. Zeigenfuss, pastor.

The Wedding last Saturday. Much pleasurable excitement was created in this town and neighborhood, by the announcement in last week's "Advocate" that a wedding would take place in the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church of this borough on Saturday evening. At an early Lour large numbers of our young ladies were seen wending their way towards the said church, and when the hour for the performance of the ceremony arrived the church was completely packed. At precisely 7.30 o'clock the bridal party entered the church. The bride Miss M. A. Fath and the bridegroom Mr. Daniel Wieand, were both very neatly and tastefully dressed, as were also the bridesmaid, Miss Mary Bauer, of Hazleton, and the groomsman, Mr. Oliver Clauss, son of T. D. Clauss, of this borough. Prof. H. A. Kline, of Mauch Chunk, presided at the organ, playing in excellent style "The Wedding March," as the bridal party moved up the aisle to the front of the alter. The marriage ceremony was preformed by Rev. D. K. Kepner, the pastor, in a beautiful and effective manner, after which the happy pair received the congratulations of their numerous friends.

The Weissport Literary Society,

After a succe-sful term of 27 meet ings have adjourned over until called by the President in September next. There have been 25 subjects debated during the term, while the referred questions have embraced history, geography, and in fact, questions of about every conceivable character. The interest in the meetings was kept up with much spirit from first to last, at times holding large audiences until a late hour in the evening, some of whom have expressed themserves as having gained more practical information from attendance than they could have in days of close study. We trust that the society, after its vacation, will reassemble with renewed vigor and with a determination to procure a library for the use of the members and the citizens of Weissport.

The following is the verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of the murde of Wm. Smith, at the Newport Hotel, near Seigfrieds Bridge, an account of which we published last week: "That the said William Smith came to his death on the 25th day of May, A. D. 1874, by rea on of a stab wound inflicted by a sharp instrument or weapon in the hands of Martin Conway, alias Connelly, alias Cunningham, and the jury further find that John Pfeifer and Jacob Pfeifer were accessories before the fact." Signed by the Coroner and all the jurymen. In accordance with this verdict, a Coroner's warrant was issued for the arrest of the Pfeifers, and they were apprehended at or near Parryville, and taken to Easton to jail.

Rev. W. Coffman's Lecture,

In the Presbyterian church, on Monday night, on temperance, was not so well attended as it should have been. The rev. gentleman is perfectly at home on the subject of temperance, and on tals occasion handled the rum drinker and rum-sellers without gloves. At the conclusion of the lecture the platform of principles was read by the Secretary, and about 30 persons handed in their names as members, and eight signed the pledge. Due notice of the next lecture will be given.

Children's Carriages.

-F. P. Semmel, the hardware merchant, of Lehighton, has this week received one of the largest assortments of children's carriages from the State of New York, ever brought to this town, and respectfully asks those of our citizens who need anything in the line to examine the styles and prices—both of which are bound to suit. Some of them are very handsome.

The Summit Hill Murder.

On Monday last, Edward Klotz was arrested, on oath of Philip Leinbach, a brother of the murdered girl, and taken to Mauch Chunk. On the arrival of the prissoner in the latter place, a hearing was demanded by the attorneys for the prisoner, when he was taken before Esq. W. Butler; it was then found to be impossible to procure witness on either side. A commitment was thereupon n.ade out by the Squire and handed to the constable. An arrangement was then made that Judge Dreher should be sent for to give the case a hearing, and upon being telegraph to on the subject, returned an answer that he would be in Mauch Chunk, on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock for that purpose. In the meantime arrangements were made by the parties interested that the prisoner should be kept under charge of the constable until that time.

-The examination of witnesses commenced on Thursday, and is still going on as we go to press Friday afternoon.

Blackwood's Magazine on Dogs.

Speaking of some of Sir Edwin Landseer's life-like paintings, Blackwood s Magazine says: "Oh! rare, most rare Edwin Landseer! what name shall we find for thee? Thou Apelles of aged hounds, thou Zeuxis of vigorous doghood, thou Parrhasius of pupples! How we do always long to pat and pet thy pictures! We have in our office a large chromo after Landseer's 'Twins.' This is one of his finest pictures. Two magnificent Scotch Shepherd dogs are reclining upon the top of a shelving rock. At the base is one of those fine sheep, for which England and Scotland are noted, and lying at her feet are lambs. This chromo is offered with T. De Witt Talmage's great religious and family newspaper, The Christian at Work, published at 102 Chambers-st., N. Y. Agents wanted everywhere. Samples sent free upon application. See sdvertisement,

MERCHANT TAILORING

When in the course of wear and tear of every day life it becomes necessary to dissolve our connection with the suits that have done us so much services in keeping us warm and free from expo-sure, there is one place where we can find consolation and a friend indeed in our distress. Yea, a place where we can safely put our trust—where there is no need of fear that we shall be cheated, unsuited or unsatisfied—where the fabric is strong and the manufacture superb-where the prices are just and and the style all that can be desired. There is a charm about an easy, glove-fitting, elastic suit, that is seen and ob served by all men. "Where did you get that superb suit of c'othes?" "Where did you secure such a splendid fitting garment?" is often asked. There are many tailors, and a number of them are undoubtly fair samples of the genus home and also a credit to the craft; but how generally tailors fail in the fitting of garments to the human form; how often a good piece of goods is spoiled in the fit; how sadly and dejectedly manya man wanders about the streets, feel-ing the shame the tailor has caused him, in allowing a poor job to go out of his shop, and he the wearer of it! Perhaps his lady love has even jilted him in consequence of his forlorn appearance.

"--Dress makes the man;
The want of it the fellow." Not that a man is less a man for wear-ing plain clothes, but when he is "dress-ed up" he should indeed be dressed not having his cloths hang like bags around him, and wrinkled and distored in all sorts of shapes, but that he should be clad in fitting garments. Taste chould be shown both in the colors and make-up of his suit. Many high priced goods are af such outlandish colors and styles that a man's character, it and that a man's character is judged by that a man's enaracter is judged by its foolishly selecting those odd goods. A man is known by the company he keeps, and if he insists upon fraternizing with ill-looking and ill-fitting clothes, he taste, that's positive. To be looked upon as possessing the requisite attain-ments of a tasty gentleman, he must select cloths of suitable colors for his clothing and have them made up in firstclass style by Laury & Peters, (post office building), Lehighton, Pa., who have a splendid stock to select from, and where you will obtain that symmetry of fit so necessary to the adornment of the person. Call and examine the most beautiful assortment of cloths, cassiners and vestings, ever brought into Lehlgh-Peters. March 14, 1874.

Piles! Piles!! Piles!!! Piles. Internal, Este nal, Bleeding or Itching.

—The lotence suffering occasioned by the distressing disease, in its various forms, is known only to those who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted with it. The sicenjess nights, the uncomfortable days, the haggard looks of the sufferer bear witness of the intensity of the pain experienced when troubled with this prevailing disease. The success of Bringer Pile Remedy as a positive cure is unequalled in the annals of medicine; Relief is unequalled in the annals of medicine; Relief is unequalled by the relief of the menus demand for this great remedy is unparabilled. Thousands are using it with the most satisfactory results. Sold by A. J. DURLING, dragalist. Le highton.
