BEATTY & PLOTTS.

The Beatty & Plotts celebrated Golden Tongue

PARLOR ORGAN

is acknowledged by professors of music and celebrated organists to be the leading Parlor Organ now in use. Testimonials and cards of honor are constantly being received in favor of them. We append a few and wish you to read them:—

ANTHONY, N. J., Jan. 25, 1873.

Messrs. Beatty & Plotts, Gents—Your Organ, sold me, gives entire satisfaction. It beauty of tone and style of workmanship are seldom if ever surpassed. Wish you success in your business, I am, with respect,

Prof. M. H. BEATTY.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Feb. 11, 1874.

I have one of Beatty & Plotts' Golden Tongue Organs. It is an excellent instrument, fine tone and full power. I like it better than any I have heard.

M. H. HARPEL, M. D.

LAURY'S STAT'N, Pa., Jan. 27, 1874.

I have had Beatty & Plotts' Organ since August 14th, 1872; it gives the highest satisfaction, and has proved all that it was recommended by the prop'rs.

JOS HENRY.

SLATINGTON, Pa., Feb. 6, 1874.

Beatty & Plotts' Parlor Organ I like better than the Standard, and it gives better satisfaction, as I find in my travels.

Prof. FR. V. MAYER.

ST. CLAIR, Pa., Dec. 6th, 1873.

Messrs. Beatty & Plotts, Gents—I have received the Organ, as sent by your firm to me, and I have had it examined, and it gives ample satisfaction.

Hon. JOHN SISEY.

MAHANAY CITY, Pa., Oct. 16, 1872.

The Beatty & Plotts celebrated Golden Tongue Parlor Organ is by far the best Parlor Organ in use. I have carefully examined it, and find its tone, workmanship and durability to be the best I ever saw, and I can with pleasure recommend it to any in want of a first-class parlor organ. Prof. O. H. UNGER.

Messrs. Beatty & Plotts, of Washington, N. J., are gentlemen of enterprise, and whose presence would be a credit to any community.—[Hackettstown, N. J., Herald, 1872.]

WASHINGTON, N. J., Sept. 5, 1873.

To Robert Morgan, Pottsville—I am happy to state that the instrument gives entire satisfaction, not only to myself but also to the teachers of the Seminary who are better judges.

Rev. A. M. JELLY.

We say, after careful and costly experiment, it is with pleasure we introduce the "Golden Tongue," knowing it possesses many advantages over all others manufactured. The tone excels in fullness, purity, and the thousands of testimonials which are being constantly received, are evidence that our efforts have been eminently successful. NEARER HOME.

BY MRS. EFFIE B. CASTLEN.

The solemn thought steals sweetly o'er my soul,

Like ocean waves that o'er the lone rock roll!

That thought I tread the cruel flints unshod,

The way is short, I thank thee, oh, my God!

What though "my life is like the autumn leaf"

The withering stem, the trembling flower,

Whose breath,

And fading life—whose sore and blighted form

Is but life's emblem? I am nearer home.

What though my life is like a desert rock,

Which firmly stands to meet the ocean's shock;

What though upon its rugged bosom bloom

No sweet, wild flowers! It needeth not perfume.

Hope, like the sea-moss, firmly, wildly clings

To my lone, trusting heart, and ever brings

In loving arms, all to the fold who roam,

And guides my homeless feet still nearer home.

Anecdote of Jefferson.

A party, Mr. Jefferson, the President, among them, went out riding. A small shower had fallen during the afternoon, and when they got back to Moor's Creek, the water was running up to the saddle girths of the horse. An ordinary western looking man was sitting on the bank with a saddle in his hands.

He waited till all the party had entered the stream but Mr. Jefferson, and then asked him for a ride across. To rein up to a stone, suffer him to mount, en croupe, and carry him to the opposite bank was a matter of course. In a few minutes the party in the rear, who had witnessed the affair overtook our saddled pedestrian stretching his way along the foot of Carter's mountain.

"I say!" quoth a junior, "what made you let that young man pass and ask that gentleman to carry you over the Creek?"

"Well," said Kentucky, in broad patois, "if you want to know, I'll tell you; I reckon a man carries yes or no in his face—the young chap's face said no—the old 'un's said yes."

"It isn't every man that would have asked the President of the United States for a ride behind him," said another, expecting to blank the bold visage of Kentucky. If such was his object, however, he was very much mistaken.

"You don't say that was Tom Jefferson, do you?" was the reply; and he immediately added, "he is a fine fellow any way."

"That was the President!" was the response.
