Woman Knows One Point More than the Devil.

If you want to know how the natural bridge was built across the Mynach river in Wales, this is the true story:

Once upon a time an old woman had a cow that fed on the Crom Torder mountain, and came home pfrot and morning to be milked. One evening she did not come, and the old lady, much troubled, went to fetch her. Wisco she came to where the Mynach flows between two high rocks, she saw the cow on the other side.

Then she set up a foud lamentation, for she saw the cow could not come to her, and she could not go to the cow for the river could not be crossed, and It was a day's journey to go round.

In this strait the devil appeared. 'So! sol you've lost your cow, old lady, have you? Never mind, I'll build a bridge, and you shall go fetch her."

Thankee kindly, Sir; I'll be much obliged to you if you will, and she curtised low and with great bumility. 'To be sure I will;' and he cast a look at her out of the corner of his eye. 'But the cow is worth something-I must have toll; keep that dog quiet, can't you?" -for the old woman had a car dog that kept on growling and grambling.

'Harkee, old indy-if I build you the bridge, I'll have the first that crosses it. Is it a bargain?"

She was sorely troubled. If she went over for the cow, she knew that she had sold herself to the devil; and if the cow came to her, she lost her cow.

'Bridge or no bridge?' said the devil 'Build the bridge, sir, if you please.' 'Ay, ay,' said the devil, 'it's very easy to say build the bridge, but do you agree to the tope'

'Yes; sure, sir,' replied the woman. With that the devil put both his fore fingers to his mouth, and gave a shrill whistle; and there was the bridge sure enough, and the davil sitting on the middle of it, smiling away like clockwork, rocking himself to and fro, and switching his tail with great catisfaction.

The old women shools like an aspen leaf, but she took a crust of bread from her pocket, and showing it to the dog, threw it over the bridge and passed the devil where he sat in the middle.

'Whip that dog!' said the devil; for he was cut to the quick at being outwitted by the old woman; but he dld not want the dog, and he did not try to stop him, and the bridge was crossed and the spell broken. He was mortified and angry, but being a gentleman, he srose and doffed his cap to the old indy-for and under his cap to the old inty-for the keen respect the keen- and having done so he hang his tail, much humbled, and walked away.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted here from without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unpar-nileled success of VINEGAR BIT-TERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a file-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to Dr. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy func-tions of the digestive organs.
