—W. A. Graver has received a new lot of goods.

—Over 6000 tourists have "done" the Switch-Back so far this season.

—The Lehigh Emery Wheel manufactory have now got about all their machinery in working order, and are prepared for orders for wheels of all sizes.

—They are busy as bees at Olewine & Miners Fort Allen Foundry, in Weissport.

—W. A. Graver sells calico at 8 cents. Go and be convinced.

—The Easton jail holds 50 prisoners at present—five in excess of the number of its cells.

—The old Presbyterian Church at Slattington is being torn down to make room for a better and larger structure.

—Subscribers to the Advocate are no longer liable for postage on this paper if they live within the county.

—Side band calicos at Wm. A. Graver's.

—The fall meeting of the Lee Park Trotting Association of Wilkesbarre will be held from August 19th to the 21st.

—From and after the 1st of August the employees in the Allentown Rolling Mill are to have another reduction on their wages, this time from 75 to 10 per cent.

—Horses and carriages of the best at H. F. Kleppinger's livery; also, on hand a lot of curb stones and planks suitable for sidewalks.

—On Friday last the No. 2 shaft of the Thomas Iron Company's Furnaces, at Alburts, was re-laid, and is now again producing first-class iron. It had stood idle since last fall, owing to the panic.

—H. E. Fatzinger, late J. Fatzinger & Son, keeps constantly on hand a large stock of fine groceries, fruits and vegetables, which he is selling very low for cash. Fresh fruits and vegetables almost daily.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jones are both recovering from the effects of the stabbing. As soon as the attending physician's consent can be gained the husband will be taken to the county jail and held for trial.

—Laury & Peters have just received a large and elegant stock of new goods, comprising cloths, cassimeres and vestings, which they are prepared to make up in the latest fashion at the lowest prices.

—Jessie Young, a brakeman on the L. V. R. R., had his foot hurt, one day last week, by being caught between the bumpers.

—Boots and shoes can be had at W. A. Graver's.

—If you want a nice fitting shirt, leave your measure at Laury & Peters, Post office.

—We learn that the Allentown Rolling Mill Company have been shipping about one hundred and seventy-five tons of rails per day, for several days past. This indication of a revival of the iron trade is a very pleasant thing to contemplate.

—Yeakel & Albright of Weissport have just received a large cargo of shav-ed shingles at a low figure. Their new planer is now in operation and they are doing work to order on short notice.

—Mr. Alex. Weiss, formerly of Weissport, with his children, starts for California next week. He proposes to go into the orange culture. His wife has been removed from the Philadelphia to the Harrisburg Insane Asylum.

—"Fabis cock-tails" are the latest novelty at the Mansion House in Mauch Chunk. If you go there ask the gentleman bar-tender to fix you one up. It is a strictly temperance drink of most delicious flavor.

—Certainly, you can always find nice horses and tasty carriages at the popular livery of David Ebbert, Bank street, Lehigh, at reasonable prices.

—Two good girls for housework are wanted, by M. W. Raudenbush, at Packerton. Amount of wages for good girls who suit the place will be no object. Apply soon.

—Mr. Geo. B. Fickard has disposed of his interest in the Slattington News to Mr. Benj. Patterson, of Salem, N. J.

—We have lately received one or two complaints from subscribers that they do not get the ADVOCATE for several days after it is published. We are trying to find out where the blame rests—our papers are all well packed, plainly directed and promptly mailed on Friday afternoon—and if we find just where the fault rests, that individual will discover that he has got his head into the biggest kind of a hornet's nest.

—An Episcopal Sunday school was organized at Weatherly on Sunday last.

—Do our Borough Council intend to have South and North streets properly graded and pavements laid before the fall season sets in? If they do it is about time the work was begun; unless this matter is attended to, we fail to see how the children are to reach the new school building in bad weather. The sidewalks throughout the borough, with very few exceptions, are a disgrace to our people.

—For family flour, of the very best quality go to J. K. Rickert, East Weissport. Lumber and coal in large or small quantities at lowest market rates. A few lots in Rickertown still unsold—buy at once.

—A large volume would not contain the testimony which has accumulated in favor of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry as a safe, efficient, and reliable remedy in curing coughs, colds and pulmonary diseases. Many of the cures are truly wonderful.

—Sometime between Saturday night and Monday morning, some miscreants broke into the Packerton School House, where the tools used by the men building the new house were deposited for safe keeping, and stole about $15 worth of the tools; comprising, saws, chisels, braces, &c. The entry was effected with a grubbing hoe through the rear window. The thieves have not yet been arrested.

—Christopher Metzger purchased a lot from Mr. J. K. Rickert, in Rickertstown, a day or so ago, and purposes putting up a house at once. Only a few more lots left.

—Robt. A. Packer, of Mauch Chunk, has purchased one of the "Thousand Islands" in the St. Lawrence River. He, with a company of other well-known railroad capitalists, is there now, on a few day's camp. The party took with them $5,000 worth of edibles.

You are invited to call and inspect these goods; there is no charge for inspection even if you do not purchase.

A Horrible Death.

On Sunday morning Mrs. Elijah Frouheiser, who resided with her husband near Treichlersville, Washington township, met with a horrible accident which resulted in her death within an hour after the occurrence. Mrs. F. was alone in the kitchen preparing breakfast for her husband and family, the former of whom was bringing the horses home from pasture. Mrs. Frouheiser was subject to falling fits, and while thus alone was seized with a spell and fell on the stove which was red hot. Her clothing took fire and commenced to blaze briskly. Before help could arrive she was fearfully scorched, some portions of her body being burned to a crisp. Her husband entered the house while she was still covered with the flames, and did all in his power to hastily ouster them. But all too late. She was perfectly helpless, and suffered fearfully, when death put an end to her pains. The funeral took place Tuesday morning, and the remains were interred in the Frieden's church cemetery. A large concourse of relatives and friends attended the funeral.—News.

Powder Explosion.

At about 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, H. A. Weldy, & Co.'s powder magazine, said to contain about 2000 barrels of powder, situated at Minter's Station, about three miles north of Tamaqua, exploded, killing three men and seriously injuring a boy. The names of the killed are Mamma, Garbor and Krause. Mamma and Krause were in the magazine at the time of the explosion, and were blown to atoms. Nothing has been found of them yet, except part of a foot and piece of breast. Garbor was employed as carpenter, and was in the carpenter shop, planing off a board, when a stone, thrown by the explosion, came through the roof and struck him on the head. He died in about ten minutes. The boy Coyle, son of the Superintendent of the mill, was playing outside the carpenter shop, and was struck with a stone on the head. No hopes are entertained of his recovery. The cause of the explosion is unknown.

The Great Chicago Circus.

Will exhibit in this borough on Thursday afternoon and evening next, the 6th inst. Read what is said of this great show by the Philadelphia papers, and then get your fifty cents ready:

The immense combination of circus, menagerie, museum, aviary, balloon ascension, &c., spread its canvas on Fairmount Park Hill in this city yesterday, and it is the biggest "spread" ever made in this city. We are somewhat familiar with the sensational language used in the advertisements of circus companies, menageries, &c., and have not been disappointed when we saw a superior display upon the bill boards than we did within the canvas. In the present instance we are happily disappointed the other way. Baird Howell & Co's Show is "all it is cracked up to be." The managers perform and exhibit all they advertise. Their show is simply immense, and is well worth riding many miles to see. They have the largest collection of wild animals, birds, &c., ever exhibited in this city; and their circus performance has never been equaled in our city. This fact became apparent when the grand parade took place in the city in the morning—and the consequence was, their canvas, large as it is, was utterly inadequate to accommodate the thousands who flocked to see the show, both in the afternoon and evening. There were more people gathered on Fairmount Hill last evening than was ever before collected on the same space in the city. So great was the demand for tickets, and so great the crowd inside the tent, that the performance had to be stopped; and nearly five hundred people had to leave—their money being refunded. The ticket boxes were closed and thousands had to be turned away. There has never been anything like it at any similar show.—Philadelphia Sunday Mercury.

A Little Girl Outraged.

We are in receipt, Says the Hazleton Daily News of the 29th ult., of intelligence of a most diabolical crime committed Tuesday, by a fiend in human shape, on the mountain between Milnesville and Butler Valley, the particulars which, as near as we could learn them, are as follows: Mrs. Ziegler, a resident of Milnesville, and who is now lying alarmingly ill, has a little daughter 9 years old, whom she wished, during her illness, to have remain with her sister, who lives in the Valley, and to that end Tuesday placed her under the protection of a young man who boarded with her, and they together started for the house of the child's aunt. When they reached the top of the mountain the wretch assaulted the child, and accomplished his heinous purpose, after which he departed for parts unknown. The child is reported to be in a critical condition.

The monster who committed this revolting crime is a man 35 or 40 years of age, and supposed to have been at one time a physician in Germany. He is still at large but officers are in pursuit.

Wilkesbarre, July 27.—The temperance movement in this county having been dropped by the crusaders, the men have taken up the cause. To-day delegates from all parts of the county met here in convention, adopted a platform of principles, a plan for the campaign, and nominated the Rev. Y. C. Smith of Carbondale for Congress, and a full legislative and county ticket. Five delegates were appointed to attend the State temperance convention at Harrisburg, on the 13th August to nominate a State ticket.

Archbishop McCloskey sailed from New York for Europe on Saturday, to be absent two months, during which time he will visit the Pope.

Annual Report of the Superintendent of the Common Schools of Carbon County.

In submitting this annual report of the condition of the public schools of Carbon county, it is gratifying to be able to say that the larger portion of them have made commendable progress during the past year; but there is still room for further improvement in the best of them. There are many things that claim the attention of teachers and school officers, prominent among these are the diversity of text books in some districts; directors should adopt a uniform series in their respective districts, and insist upon their use. There are still a number of school houses unfit for school use, these should be replaced by better ones. Furniture in some houses is so illly adapted to the use it is intended for that it should be removed and better and suitable substituted for it. Blackboard surface is too limited in many of the schools, and so poor that it is almost useless; there is no necessity for this when good surface can be made at almost the same cost of common plastering. School grounds in some cases are too small, and, with but few exceptions, are entirely unimproved; while houses and furniture are improved corresponding improvements should be made on the outside surroundings.

Directors should visit schools more frequently than they have been in the habit of doing heretofore. See school laws and decisions, page 49, Sec. 54. Parents should visit schools as often as they have the opportunity for doing so, it would give encouragement to teachers and children, and obviate much of the fault-finding about partiality and dereliction of duty on the part of teachers. Teachers would enlarge their sphere of usefulness and make their labors more pleasant and successful by frequent visits to the homes of their pupils. This would afford teachers an opportunity of learning the home habits and training of their pupils, and enlist the co-operation of parents in securing better attendance.

Two new school houses were built during the past year. One in Franklin Township; this is a good frame house furnished with good and convenient seats, desks and blackboard surface; the other in the borough of Lehigh, and deserves more than a passing notice. It is situated on a commanding position at the north-west corner of the public square, and is a beautiful structure, two stories high, with a Mansard roof, which is equivalent to another story, this is surmounted by a neatly finished cupola with a fine bell, a vane and the letters showing the cardinal points of the compass. There are eight school rooms, each of which is 26 x 36 feet, and 15 feet high between floors and ceilings, with plenty of good blackboard surface—there being about 150 sq. ft. to each room. The entrances to the different rooms are entirely separate so that during ingress and egress the scholars from the different rooms never come in contact with each other; they are furnished with the most improved patent seats and desks. On the third floor is a large hall intended to be used for public entertainments. The rooms are all ventilated on the most improved plans, and heated by hot air from four furnaces in the basement. The plot of ground upon which it stands is 190 x 189 ft., surrounded by a neat substantial fence, painted and sanded. The walks are all paved. This is the most completely planned and finished school building in the county and cost $35,000. It is a noble monument dedicated to the cause of common school education, and reflects much honor and credit upon the directors who in the face of strong opposition projected and consummated so great a work.

Great care should be exercised in the selection of school directors; much of the success of the schools depends on the manner in which directors discharge their duties. There are many outside influences operating upon and retarding the progress of the schools, such as fault-finding parents, speaking disrespectfully about teachers in presence of pupils, and encouraging children in acts of disobedience. A teachers influence is often destroyed in this way, and he fails because he is not properly sustained and encouraged by directors, a word of encouragement or a sympathizing look from a friend at the right time often produces wonderful results.

The schools at Summit Hill could be much improved by grading them more strictly.

Penn Forest is an unfortunate district; it embraces a large area sparsely populated, so that they are obliged to keep up six schools for the accommodation of about one hundred and fifty children; and this necessitates a fifteen mill tax in order to keep the schools open four months with low priced teachers.

The Annual County Institute was held at Mauch Chunk, in the latter part of November. It was well attended by teachers and other friends of education.

District Institutes were held only in a few districts. These important aids in promoting the cause of education and in elevating the teachers' profession should not be neglected by teachers and school officers.

The examinations of teachers and school visitations were conducted on the same plan as stated in former reports.

My thanks are due to directors, teachers and other friends of education for aid and kindness extended to me in the discharge of my duties.

R. F. HOFFORD, C. S.

It is now estimated that it costs the people of the United States $5,000,000 yearly to keep their teeth in repair.
