Nor the "tongue men"
Let anything pass by.
In wind or storm—
Or any kind of weather.
I'm sure the "hook men"
Will always pull together.
So success to one,
And all the same,
And a topmost round
Upon "the ladder" of fame.
I doubt it children have ever been kidnapped from Lehighon, but I understand they have "hook-men" there. (Where's the officer.)

Is the city for "acrobats."
Here water and soap, hold full sway,
And the pavements are washed every day.
Watermelons are plentiful—but over indulgence is apt to W you up. (Double you up.)

Now, Mr. Jones says he will give ten dollars if any one will show him the scoundrel that put the "Nitro Glycerine" label, upon his dinner kettle.
Now both the little mosquito,
Improve each sleeping hour,
Sneaking blood throughout the night,
From all within his power.

On motion the following uniform was adopted: Sky-blue shirt, dark blue fatigue cap and red belt with white letters. Resolved, That each member be required to equip himself immediately at his own expense, and a committee of three was appointed to procure the uniforms.

A committee was appointed to secure proposals for building truck and furnishing ladders, hooks &c. Committee, P. T. Brady, M. A. Weiss and Tilgh. R. Rex.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to wait upon the Borough Council at their next meeting, to ask for assistance.

C. T. Horn, Secretary.
Regular meeting, Monday evening, Sept. 7th, in Reber's Hall, at 8 o'clock sharp.

Fall and Winter Fashions.
T. D. Claus, the merchant tailor, on Bank street, this borough, is now opening one of the largest and best selected stocks of cloths, cassimeres and vestings suitable for the fall and winter trade, ever brought to town, together with the latest fashion plates. He respectfully asks those desiring an easy and fashionable fit, made up from the best material and by the best of workman to give him a call. Also, a large stock of hats, caps, boots, shoes, gaiters, and gent's furnishing goods, always on hand, at low prices.

Making Items.
The picnic held by the Sunday school, at Center Square, last Saturday, was largely attended—old and young, great and small, physicians, farmers, merchants, all participated. The audience was addressed by the Revs. Bartholomew and Strauss, in the grove, at Hoppe's mill, the beauty of which was enhanced by tasty decorations, evergreens and flowers—for the occasion. Not only was the stage beautifully arched and ornamented, but a wreath extended all around the audience room in suspended arches. This reflects credit on those connected with the Sunday Schools. Good music was rendered by school, under the leadership of Prof. E. S. Hoppe, with organ accompanied by Mr. Noah Nothstein, said organ being purchased by the school. The collection for same amounted to some twenty odd dollars.

Mr. Aaron Miller is putting up a neat dwelling house.

An organized gipsy band has been harboring in our midst for the past week. "You want your fortune told of me?" Mr. George Kemerer is repairing his well by putting in a new wall and pump. And now for cider and "snitzing parties."

Lehighon Institute.
Aug. 29th, 1874.—The institute met and was called to order by the president, Mr. Barnett. The opening exercises, which consisted of reading a portion of scripture and prayer, were conducted by Mr. Allen. The minutes of previous meeting read and approved. The roll called. Messrs. Barnett and Allen and Miss Emma Weaver and Hattie M. Heilman responding to their names.

On motion, the constitution and by laws of the former Institute were read and rejected. On motion of Miss Nead, a committee of two (Messrs. Barnett and Allen) were appointed to draft a new constitution and report at the next regular meeting. The different methods of teaching the multiplication table successfully were then discussed by the teachers in a very interesting manner. Miss Yarnal, said she occasionally conducted an exercise in tables in the manner of a "spelling match."

On motion it was decided that algebra and mental philosophy should be regular exercises of the institute. Text books: Brooks' Algebra, Haven's Mental Philosophy.

Some of the little difficulties which all teachers encounter were then presented, and plans devised to overcome them.

County Superintendent Hoffer coming in, was elected an honorary member, and requested to participate in the exercises.

The subject of spelling was next taken up by the teachers. Mr. Grossman being present, he was invited to take part in the discussion.

Programme for next regular meeting: General exercises, subject of Reading; Algebra, Mental Philosophy.

Adjourned to meet Saturday Sept 12, 1874 HATTIE M. HEILMAN, Sec'y.

EAST MAUCH CHUNK.—Few people who reside in East Mauch Chunk at the present time, are aware that where they now dwell in peace and comfort, was, at one time, the abode of the red man, and where the cow and pig now promenade, there the deer and panther fought in deadly combat, and instead of the merry shout and laughter of little children, came the fierce growl of the prowling wolf or savage panther. The first two houses in East Mauch Chunk, if my memory serves me right, were erected by Mr. Wm. DeFrehn and Mrs. McGeady. This was prior to the declaration of Independence, and of course cannot be relied upon with certainty. To these two individuals, we owe our thanks and gratitude for so noble a town. The question is asked has East Mauch Chunk improved any since the erection of these two houses, and in what manner? We certainly will admit that it has increased in the number of houses, and likewise in the population, but have we become a civilized community? The people answer unanimously, no, and to substantiate that answer, we have ten beer saloons, an Indian tribe, three churches, a base ball club, thirty-six protectors of street corners, besides a certain class who give chickens a tendency to roost high. The ground, it is said on which East Mauch Chunk is built, could have, at any time, been bought for $5 an acre. This is rather a low figure, considering how rapidly the town has grown to wealth and knowledge. If I only had been rich at that time, I certainly would have made the purchase, and to-day I might have been an Astor or a Roth-child. East Mauch Chunk can also boast of a Rose that never bloomed, a Moon that never shone, a Sheridan that never went to war, a Sour that never was sweet, a Sick-fried that never tasted medicine, a Bauer, but not the left bower, an Egyptian Mummy that never was embalmed, and combined with all these curiosities, we have three dozen pretty girls.—Morning Herald, Sept. 1st.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday afternoon about 4 o'clock, an orphan boy named Smith, aged 15 years, lost his life at Harleigh, in the following manner: Deceased who was employed in pushing coal to the rollers, was passing from what is called the "dog-holes" to the place where he was usually employed, when he was caught in some manner by the small fly wheel, attached to the main shaft, which was revolving at a rapid rate, and instantly whirled around the shaft. When found, the body was firmly wrapped around the shaft, having passed between it and the bed plate, the space between being only six or seven inches. It took two hours of hard labor to extract the unfortunate lad. He, as before stated, was an orphan, the adopted son of Mr. John Reilly, of Harleigh.—Hazleton News.

A MEDICINE CHEST IN A MINUTE.—Mishler's Herb Bitters is not a beverage, but a strictly medicinal preparation, more thoroughly adapted to the wants of the general public than any other in the market. Unlike all other so-called Remedies, it is prepared under the direct personal supervision of an eminent Physician, S. B. Eberman, M. D., the senior proprietor, is a regular graduate of the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia, and a practicing physician of large experience and extensive practice. In such hands the public may rest assured that Mishler's Herb Bitters is compounded in strict accordance with correct Pharmaceutical principles, and that none but the choicest ingredients enter into its composition.

Its immense sale alone is conclusive proof that it possesses merit of a high order. Merchants, bankers, clergymen, lawyers, clerks and others engaged in sedentary occupations, experience its wonderful effects in relieving the depression caused by nervous mental labor, while the mechanic, farmer and laborer, find their bodily vigor restored like magic by its use.

At this season of the year when DIARRHOEA, COLIC, CHOLERA and kindred disorders, caused by eating unripe fruits, imprudent indulgence in cold drinks, etc., are prevalent, a certain, speedy and effectual remedy will be found in Mishler's Herb Bitters.

The depressing feeling of Languor or Debility, incident to the "heated brain," least one removed, the superior restored, and new life and vigor imparted to the prostrated system, by its use.

IN DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT and AFFECTIONS OF THE KIDNEYS it invariably works like a charm. It is not a drastic purge nor a heavy stimulant, violent in its operation, and is perfectly harmless, thoroughly adapted to its nature. It supplies tone to the stomach, reinvigorates the digestive organs, stimulates the secretions, and promoting a regular action of the bowels, enables every organ of the body to perform its allotted work regularly and without interruption.

It is the unerring certainty of desired results attendant on its use, coupled with the fact that its profession, that has rendered Mishler's Herb Bitters so popular, and as familiar as a household word. THOUSANDS OF MOTHERS all over the land have found it to be the safest and best remedy for use in their families, not only giving it with perfect safety to even the youngest child, but when used with caution find it the safest means of securing their own health and freedom from the weary aches and pains incident to their sex. Perfectly harmless, it is just the remedy needed by them to enable Nature to perform her functions naturally, regularly and without consciousness. No lady should be without it, as it would possess the clear, blooming complexion and cheerful spirits inseparable from sound health. It is sold by all druggists and General Dealers, it is neatly put up in square glass bottles, each in a paper wrapper. It is not sold on Draught, being strictly a medical preparation, and as such is endorsed by many of the most eminent physicians of the country. Aug. 2, 1874—Am.

Piles! Piles!! Piles!!!
Piles, Internal, External, Bleeding or Itching.
—The intense suffering occasioned by the distressing disease, in its various forms, is known only to those who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted with it. The sleepless nights, the uncomfortable days, the haggard looks of the sufferer bear witness of the intensity of the pain experienced when troubled with this prevailing disease. The success of Hertz's Pile Remedy as a positive cure is unequalled in the annals of medicine. Relief is immediate when used as directed. The handsome amount for this great remedy is so small. Thousands are using it with the most satisfactory results. Sold by A. J. DURLING, Druggist, Lehighon, Pa. Aug. 9 1874
