SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 12, 1874.

Local and Personal.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Those of our subscribers receiving their paper with a cross upon the corner near their name, will save fifty cents advance in price by remitting the dollar subscription at once. Our terms are $1 in advance, or $1.50 if not so paid.

—The wife of Mr. William Morrison, of Hockensaugau, gave birth to a child last week which weighed sixteen pounds.

—Messrs. Peter Gross and Wm. Gish, trustees, last week declared a dividend of twenty per cent upon the liabilities of the exploded Dime Saving Bank of Slatington, payable now, at the former Banking House.

—The water in the Lehigh river is exceedingly low. At some points, it is said the stream bed can be walked across on stones, without getting wet feet.

—Cheaper than the cheapest! Prints at 6cts per yard and upwards; muslin, bleached and unbleached, at 6cts and upwards, and every thing else cheap in proportion to the above prices at E. H. Snyder's.

—Phillip Rader and Max Schweibinz have opened a furniture ware house in East Mauch Chunk, and are selling all kinds of furniture very low. They also make a specialty of repairing furniture at moderate prices. Call and inspect goods and prices.

—The Lehigh Valley R. R. bridge, which crosses the Lehigh River at Penn Haven was destroyed by fire on Tuesday night. The Central R. R. Co., of New Jersey, very kindly offered the L. V. Company the use of their road, which offer was accepted by them, and business went along with but a slight interruption.

—Our estimable young citizen, Mr. F. P. Lentz was elected Superintendent of the M. E. Sabbath School, on Sunday last.

—Rev. Thos. Bowman, P. E., of Allentown, will deliver a lecture, on the subject of "The Hand of God in the History of Our Country," in the Evangelical church, Weissport, on Monday evening, Sept. 21st, for the benefit of the Sunday School. Admission 25 cts. The lecture will be delivered in English.

—The Crane Iron Co. of Catawissa have notified their furnace employees of another reduction in wages on and after to-day, keeps to receive $2 per day, helpers $1.85, and fillers $1.75.

—The prospects for the iron trade are unusually dark at this time, prices and demands are decreasing. Every indication points to a very dull winter for our iron producing regions.

—The Pennsylvania State Fair will be held at Easton, commencing on Monday, September 29th, and continuing four days.

—The drought of the past three weeks has seriously injured vegetation of all kinds. We learn that in many places the pastures have been so scorched and dried up that farmers have been obliged to fodder their cattle and other stock. It has had the effect also to give the price of butter and hay an upward tendency.

—On Wednesday of last week a pet dog, belonging to Alex. Rambo, steward at the Wyoming House, Scranton, was seen running about the hotel framing at the mouth with every symptom of madness. Mr. Rambo called it to him when it bit him in the leg and ran off again. He, however, soon caught it and killed it. It is known to have bit several other dogs and cats, and had shown a disposition to bite everything near it for several days. Mr. Rambo called Dr. Leet who examined his bite and cut out a large piece of the calf of the leg around the bite, thus probably remove all the virus.

—For family flour, of the very best quality go to J. K. Rieckert, East Weissport. Lumber and coal in large or small quantities at lowest market rates. A few lots in Rieckertown still unsold—buy at once.

—At the meeting of Hook and Ladder Co., on Monday evening last, a constitution and by laws was adopted, and ordered to be printed. P. T. Brady was elected Financial Secretary; W. P. Long, E. Eisenhower and Tlgh. R. Rex were appointed Equipment Committee; and M. A. Weiss, Geo. Diehl and J. H. Styers, Investigating Committee. A committee of three was appointed to make arrangements for holding a ball for the benefit of the company.

—Policeman Horn was after the church step and corner loafers on Sunday night; he thinks they moved their feet quicker on that night than they had done for some time before, when he opened his "ball's eye" upon them. He will bring a few of them before the J. P., if he found "hanging" around next Sunday night.

—School slates very cheap at the Advocate office, only 15 cts. a quire. Very nice!

Accident.
The supervisor of Slatington was fixing a crossing Wednesday on Upper Main-st., but night coming on, did not get it finished and left a wheelbarrow on the end of the finished part to keep people from tumbling into the gutter; Mr. A. Peter from Ironton not being aware of this, and the night being dark drove over the wheelbarrow, throwing him severely and breaking his buggy considerably. We understand Mr. Peter will hold the Borough responsible for the damage.

Encouraging.
The friends of Rev. Jesse Erb, a Theological student of the Lutheran Seminary, of Philadelphia, and a young man of much promise, who has spent his vacation in the midst of the Lutheran Trinity congregation and served them as supply for the pastor, Rev. D. K. Kepner, quietly collected amongst themselves sufficient to purchase and present to him a variety of useful and necessary articles; on Saturday evening they assembled in the parlor of Thomas Kemmer, Esq., and upon his arrival, he was ushered therein, when one of their number formally tendered the same, in the name of the congregation, as a token of friendship and respect. Whereupon he returned his heartfelt thanks in a fluent and elevating Christian speech and exhortation, ending with an appropriate prayer, and, after a short time spent in genial conversation, the members retired, feeling in their hearts that it was better to give than to receive. This is an example that is well worthy of imitation by older and richer congregations, who overlook the trials and struggles of those who prepare themselves for the Christian ministry, and forget to encourage them.

Fall and Winter Fashions.
T. D. Clauss, the merchant tailor, on Bank street, this borough, is now opening one of the largest and best selected stocks of cloths, cassimeres and vestings suitable for the fall and winter trade, ever brought to town, together with the latest fashion plates. He respectfully asks those desiring an easy and fashionable fit, made up from the best material and by the best of workman to give him a call. Also, a large stock of hats, caps, boots, shoes, gaiters, and gent's furnishing goods, always on hand, at low prices.

Murder in Hazleton.
The Hazleton Daily News, of Saturday, gives the following particulars of the murder of the Chief of Police, in that borough, on Friday night:
The community was startled this morning by the intelligence that S. H. Clauser, our Chief of Police, was shot and killed last night, by a man named Frederick Lapp.

From the evidence given before the Coroner's Jury this morning, it appeared that Lapp had been to the picnic at Rosenstock's yesterday and indulged in too much benzine for his own good, and consequently returned to town last night, intoxicated and determined on mischief.

He visited a number of our saloons with several friends, who had been spending the day with him, and finally pulled up in front of Mr. Bach's residence, on East Broad street, near the brewery, where he became belicose and drew his pistol, at the same time brandishing a black jack or bliley. Officer Clauser hearing the noise, made by Lapp, hurried down street, and meeting him advised him to go home, remonstrating with him upon the nonsense of which he was guilty. Lapp in answer to Clauser said "step back or I will shoot," at the same time presenting the pistol. Clauser approached him and endeavored to quiet the man, but he, upon the approach of the Officer, fired the fatal shot. Clauser upon receiving the ball called to Officer Henry; "Arrest that man, he has shot me." That was his last expression on earth.

The following is the notes taken at the hearing before the Coroner's Jury this morning:
The prisoner having been placed before Esquire Coburn, the first witness examined was Joseph Henry, one of the Borough Police Force. He said in substance:

The Chief and myself were standing at the corner of Broad and Pine streets. We heard a shot and he said to me let's go down. We ran down to the railroad hearing another as we went. When in front of Mr. Bach's residence, we met the prisoner, and Mr. Clauser asked him what he was making so much noise for? The prisoner, Fred. Lapp, immediately drew a pistol and said: Stand back or I'll shoot, and immediately fired. The shot took effect in Clauser's body and he called to me to arrest him.

After firing the fatal shot, Lapp ran away, I followed him, and when brought to bay he snapped his pistol at me two or three times, but I arrested him; when taken he said: "I'll give up, I can't do no more, its empty now;" witness here produced the pistol, a Smith & Weston, No. 2, five shooter, which was identified as being the pistol used, and acknowledged by the prisoner as being his, with four chambers empty, one still remaining loaded.

Joseph Richards sworn. Was in bed; heard shot fire; was called down; heard there was a man killed; went down on the sidewalk and found Clauser weltering in his gore; could say who shot him.

Dr. Delkers, Dr. Longshore and Dr. Ramsey, were all sworn, and each concurred in the opinion that death ensued from hemorrhage, superinduced by a gun shot wound the shot having been fired by some party to them unknown, and the jury adjourned. The Squire remanding the prisoner until this evening when he will be taken to Wilks-Barre, there to stand his trial for the murder of one of the best officers which Hazleton ever possessed.

—A speaker was much annoyed in the House of Commons by a member who kept constantly crying, "Hear, hear!" The witty orator described a fellow who wanted to pay the rogue, but had only sense enough to play the fool, and exclaimed, with great emphasis, "Where shall we find a more foolish knave or a more knavish fool than he?" "Hear, hear!" shouted the troublesome member. Turning around, he thanked him for the prompt information, and sat down amid a roar of laugh ter.

Special Notices.
A MEDICINE CHEST IN A MINUTE.—Mishler's Herb Bitters is not a beverage, but a strictly medicinal preparation, more thoroughly adapted to the wants of the general public than any other in the market. Unlike all other so-called Remedies, it is prepared under the direct personal supervision of an eminent Physician, S. B. Bartman, M. D., the senior proprietor, is a regular graduate of the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia, and a practicing physician of large experience and extensive practice. In such hands the public may rest assured that Mishler's Herb Bitters is compounded in strict accordance with correct Pharmaceutical principles, and that none but the choicest ingredients enter into its composition.
Its immense sale alone is conclusive proof that it possesses the merit of a high order. Merchants, clerks, clerical men, lawyers, clerks and others engaged in sedentary occupations, experience its wonderful effects in relieving the depression caused by severe mental labor, while the mechanic, farmer and laborer, find their bodily vigor restored like magic by its use.
At the season of the year when Diarrhea, Cholera, Colic and kindred disorders are most prevalent, by eating unripe fruits, imprudent indulgence in cold drinks, &c., are prevalent, a certain, speedy and effectual remedy will be found in Mishler's Herb Bitters.
The depressing feeling of Languor or Debility, incident to the "heated term," is at once removed, the energies restored, and new life and vigor imparted to the prostrated system, by its use.
In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and Affections of the Kidneys it invariably works like a charm. It is not a drastic purge nor merely stimulant, but it is a powerful and safe remedy, and is adapted to all seasons of the year, and to all ages of the body to perform its allotted work, regularly and without interruption.
It is the unerring certainty of desired results attendant on its use, coupled with the fact that it is prepared by a Physician of eminence in his profession, that has rendered Mishler's Herb Bitters so popular, and as familiar as a household word. Thousands of Mothers all over the land have found it to be the safest and best remedy for use in their families; they not only give it with perfect safety to even the youngest child, but when used with caution find it the safest means of assuring their own health and freedom from the weary aches and pains incident to their sex. Perfectly harmless, it is just the remedy needed by them to enable Nature to perform her functions naturally, regularly and without interference. No last should be without it if she would possess the clear, blooming complexion and cheerful spirit inseparable from sound health. It is sold by all Druggists and General Dealers; it is neatly put up in square glass bottles, enclosed in a paper wrapper. It is not sold on Draught, being a medicinal preparation, and as such is endorsed by many of the most eminent physicians of the country.
Prof. W. M. DILLINE,
Gentlemen desiring a handsome fitting Shirt should leave their measure at the post office building.
