LEHIGHTON, PA.: SATURDAY MORNING SEPT. 19, 1874.

Ex-Gov. Curtin who openly proclaims his preference for the democratic party, will, it is reported, take an active personal part in the approaching political contest.

The Maine election Monday resulted in the election of Dingley, Republican, by 11.000 to 12,000 majority, and a full Republican delegation to Congress. Last year the Republican majority was 13,358.

A number of condemned fron-clads were sold by the Government, at New Orleans, on Saturday, and brought the following prices : Etlah, $9500; Wyequab, $8700; Winnebago, 7350; Iris, $7400; Pejuma, $10,075; Kalamath, $7400; Katahdin, $7750, and Chickasaw, $3850. The sale produced $66,725, and, it is expected, will be disapproved by the Navy Department.

In a test case at Harrisburg on Thursday, of last week, Judge Pierson gave his decision in regard to transgressing the Sunday law, that the transgressor can be fined for each and every sale of merchandize during the day. This is believed to be the first dicision upon the point in Pennsylvania. Under the English law only ope fine during the entire Sunday could be imposed. He also decided that a house having a hotel licenss can sell ice cream or anything in the catable line to citizens or transient customers. The prosecutions were brought by the Sunday League.

The Milford (Pike) Herald puts it thusly: "We understand that Hon. Charles Albright, of Mauch Chunk, will probably be the Republican nominee for Congress in this district. Mr. Albright, who is now serving as Congressman-at-large, has already made a good record in the national legislature, and if he receives a re-nomination for that position, will be a strong opponent. It therefore becomes the Democracy of the district to go into the contest with a united and harmonious spirit. We hope that such spirit may prevail, whichever of the numerous aspirants may prove successful at the Democratic Congressional Conference."

The "Christian at Work" thus sensibly comments upon the Louisiana revolt-"The wicked folly of Congress in neglecting to settle the Louisiana question at its last session, with all the facts brought before it, is manifested, as might be expected, in a riot which in its proportions assumes the nature of a rebellion. Whatever may be said of the crime of a resort to arms, we do not forget that the most culpable are not, indeed, the immediate participants in such an affair, but those whose acts or whose neglect of duty precipitate revolution. Had Congress done its duty; had it settled the Louisiana difficuitles when the facts were brought before its committee having the matter in charge, we might not now have the disgraceful record of armed rebellion and bloodshed. As it is, neglect and incompetence have wrought out their logical result; but how long can the country endure such a condition of things, and for such a cause-and how [Written for THE CARBON ADVOCATE.] Echoes from Summer Respris.

CAPE MAY .- This is a swell of a rerort in every respect. Not long since an old busband refused to allow his young wife to go in and bathe, because he heard there were so many "white cap'd swells" about. The sailors of this place are famous, for who has not heard of "Cape May salts," (?) Salling is indulged in here to a great extent. Suppose this is on account of the saline matter in the mighty deep. A mauleft here sometime ago to swim across to Portugal; he has not been heard from since his departure.

ATLANTIC CITY .- The ocean here is pretty fair, but it is not as sait as the one they have at Cape May. A bushel of sand costs but very little here. I sat down on the beach at this "city by the sea" and wept a few bring tears, for the shore reminded me of an old friend long since departed, he was a Scotchman -and his name was Sandy.

LONG BRANCH .- "Big Stick" would be the proper name for this place. I speak by the card (where's the poor house?) Many people here are on "The Bluff," Eye glasses are useless here for you can sea shore without them.

"THE FISHING BANKS" OF CAPE MAY are splendid; I have often reposed my weary form upon them, first selecting a sandy spot under the trees, where I read my copy of "The Advocate" and was at rest. ROCKAWAY .-- Of all sea side resorts this is the most popular with the babies. Who has not heard of "The rock beside the sea"-or longed to be a child again. So as to be "rocked in the cradie of the deep." That beautiful song "The White Squall" is supposed to have been written here.

NEWPORT.-This is a very old port. They have an ocean here, but it is doubless bogus. Uncle Sam has a fort here, it is named after Mr. Express. I would give the name in full but suffice it to say it commences with an A and has sundry bits of profaulty after it. Commodore Perry was born here, he was not related to the Periwinkle family, though our navy never boasted a braver "shell back" than he.

SMITH'S ISLAND.—This is a resort of the elite, here the votaries of fashion most do congregate. The air of this place has a most remarkable effect upon the eyes, Mr. Kiggins visited this Island and though his eyes were blue when he departed, they were black when he returned. If I had a dull boy I should certainly send him to this Island, for he would be sure to come beck with a good bead on him.

BALLSTON SPAR .- Never having visited this place, I asked a friend about it, he said "he had never seen Ballston Spar, but he could tell me all about Billy Edwards or Sam Collyer." I have nothing further to say about Bailston Spar.

Revolt in Lauisiana.

In New Orleans, Monday, the white people revolded against the Kellogg Government, and there were some fighting, many being killed and wounded. At 11 A. M. a large mass meeting assembled to take into consideration the recent seizures of arms by the Kellogg Government. Canal street was crowded for several squares, and there was a general suspension of business, many stores being closed. Two companies of United States troops were on duty in New Orleans, and a regiment on the way there from Holly Spring Mississippi. The meeting adopted resolutions requesting the immediate abdication of Governor Kellogg, and sent a committee to communicate them to him. The Governor declined to see them, because bodies of armed men had gathered in bodies of armed men had gathered in various parts of the city, and he regard-ed this as a menace. He further stated, however, that if the people assembled peaceably, without menace, he would entertain any petition from them which was addressed to him. After some further parley with the Governor's offi-cials the committee withdrew, and reported the result to the meeting. The people were than advised to go home and "White Leaguers," who were under arms, to execute the plans that would be arranged for them. The meeting then dispersed. In the afternoon a proclamation appeared reciting wrongs under which the people of Louisiann have so long suffered, and sighed by D. B. Penn, Licutemant-Governor, who was chosen on the Mc-Enery ticket. It called out the militia between 18 and 45 "for the purpose of driving the usurpers from power," and an annexed order appointed General Frederick N. Ogden Provisional General of the militia. Another proclama-tion was also issued to quiet the appre-hensions of the colored people. Armed men assembled in Caual street in the afternoon, and five hundred police, under Ganeral Longstreet, about the same time appeared on the ground, Long-street ordering the citizens to disperse. There was sharp firing, and the police at one place broke; and the citizens captured one gun from them. The citizens captured the City Hall and police telegraph office, and began building barricades. At dusk the citizens held all the portion of the city above street, the police being massed in and around Jackson Square. A number of sharp skirmishes have occurred, caus-ing a loss of eight citizens and thirty police killed and wounded. General Badger, of the police, is wounded. There are reports that Governor Kelogg has called on the President for aid.

logg has called on the Freshtent for allo.

Last night the city was quiet, and the impression prevailed that no further attempts would be made by the police to disperse their opponents. The citizens appear to have the advantage. LATER.—Quietness has been restored at New Orleans. During Monday night the Citizens' party so strongly entrepched their position and strengthened their forces, that Governor Kellogg determined to call upon the President for aid, and in the meanwhile to surpose their forces. Kellogg Logs. render their forces. Kellogg, Loug-street and their officials took refug in the United Siatus Custom House, and Tuesday morning the entire force of Metropolitan police, with their auxilia-ries, arms, station houses, &c., surren-dered to Gov. Penp, who at that time had 10,000 men under arms to support him. Penn at once assumed the reios of government, and announced the intention of installing all the officials chosen with him on the McEnery ticket in 1872. Keilogg having appealed for aid to Washington, the President de-termined to support him, and Issued his proclamation, commanding the New Orleans citizens to disperse in five days. Orders in accordance with it was sent to Gen. Emery, commanding at New Orleans. There was no violence there Tuesday, and the excitement announced as subsiding. Governor Penn has made an appeal to the President for the recognition of his authority. Mr. Marr, in front of St. Charles hotel, made a speech to a crowd, deprecating violer.ce speech to a crowd, deprecating violer.ce and exhorting to peace, and a proclamation of similar import was issued by the Mayor of the city. All the telegrams received at Washington indicate that quietness prevails in New Orleans. General Empty reports that he has not troops enough to mantain himself if a conflict should occurr, and that he mere presence of troops has lost its moral effect. There were great rejoicing Tuesday in New Orleans at the result of the contest, and the United States troops in the Custom House appeared in the windows and heartify cheeced a passing procession of the citizens. A meeting in sympathy with them was also held in Mobile.

Profound quietness still prevails at New Orleans, and the intelligence from Louisiana shows that the McEnery officials are being installed into office with-out opposition in different parts of the The condition of Louisians affairs was the subject of discussion in the Cabinet at Washington Wednesday, the Gabinet at Washington Wednesday, but no final method of dealing with the case was decided upon. Gen. Emory, commanding the United States troops in Louisjana, was instructed "under no circumstances to reocgnize the insurgent Government of Louisiana," and that within five days from the date of the President's proclamation "such action will be taken as the emergency rewill be taken as the emergency requires." The proclamation vas issued quires." The proclamation was issued on Tuesday, and the five days will expire on Sunday.

Washington, Sept. 17.—The President to-day ordered three vessels-of-war to be sent to New Orleans, They have not yet been selected, but may be in the course of to-day. They will be such as can cross the bar with safety, and will be gunboats of heavy callbre. The President sent for Admiral Reynolds this morning, with whom he had a long conference this morning. conference this morning.
