In the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows at Atlantia, on Saturday, a uniform was adopted for the Patriarchal Order throughout the country. Several appeal cases, among them that of the Morning Star Lodge, of New York, were de, termined. The report of the Committee on Revised Ritual was affirmed. A resolution was adopted approving the movement to secure funds to finish a national monument, and recommending day night last by the arrival of a baby the order to extent pecuniary assistance to the same, General James L. Ridgely, Grand Secretary, was appointed to prepare s complete history of Odd Fellowship in the United States. The Grand Sire appointed John R. Tompkius, of Alabama, to be Grand Marshall; Rev. J. W. Venable of Kentucky, Grand Chaptain; W. H. Fouthe of Detaware, hundreds of little boys and girls tripped Grand Guardian, and J. W. Hudson of it merrily. Wisconsin, Grand Messenger. After the installation of officers, the Grand Lodge adjourned to meet in Indianopo is next year.

In an interesting article on public extravagance the Patisburg Post points out that when such men as Shunk and Big-1 or were Governors of Pennsylvania the Governor's salary was $3,090. Now it is $10,00. Then the Governor's messenger received $400, now $1,200. There were than no pages in either, house. Now there are about seventyfive. Then the public grounds were cared for by an old man for $300 a year. Now the State pays $8,000 for that duty. To inaugurate a Governor costs #300 or $400. Now it costs $4,000. The State then contributed nothing toward the burial of a Governor but the recent burial of an ex-Governor costs the Treasurer from $4,000 to $5,000. The Post might have added that then men not satisfactory. Another was given at the Court House, drawing water from the creek, which proved a succe-s, a heavy stream being thown 20 feet over the Court House steeple. The Marion and Phoenix Hose Co's participated, and the Hibernian and Weissport Bands furnished music. A pic nic was held at East Mauch Chunk, and the company returned home at 7.30 o'clock, highly pleased with their visit.

Mr. John F. Bleckley, the green-grocer, was agreeably surprised on boy. Mr. S. F. Collins of this place was made happy in the same manner several days ago by a bright eyed girl. Miss Georgie Booth, the daughter of the proprietor of the Mansion House, gave a party to her juvinile friends on Monday night. Music and dancing was enjoyed in the large dialog room and
