Another New Stock.

T. D. Clauss, the tailor, desires us to state that he has just returned from New York, and that he is now opening a very large involce of cloths, cassimeres and vestings, suitable for fall and winter trade, which he is prepared to make up in the best and most fashionable styles at "knock down" prices. He guarantees a "perfect fit" every time, and the goods in all cases as represented. Also, an immense stock of rubbers, boots, shoe-, hats, caps and gents' furnishing goods. Remember the place, L. D. Cinuss, just above the Public Square, Bank street, Lehighton.

Who Knows Him!

John Collins, an old soldier at the Soldier's Home, Dayton, Ohio, especially desires to learn the address of Dr. R. B. McKay, who, in 1862, was a surgeon in charge of the hospital at Hampton, Va., and afterwards at Norfolk, Va. He writes to the postmaster at Easton, inquiring concerning Dr. McKay, whom he has reason to think is in Pennsylvania somewhere. Our contemporaries will be doing a kindly act to an old crippled soldier by giving his request for information as wide publicity as possible.

How the Money Goes!

After November 30th, it will be easy to see how the money goes, for then the drawing will take place of the Publie Library of Kentucky, and at that furnishing goods, hats, caps, &c., &c., of the latest style and best material, which they are now offering to the people of this section at prices unparalelled in the history of the trade of Lehighton. They respectfully ask an inspection of goods and workmanship by the people before they make their purchases elsewhere.

Just Organized.

A Brass band in Mackereltown-the members chosen are all professors of music, the following are the members: Prof. Peter Kelley, Leader, John Esrang, Chas. Snell, Daniel Blose, Aquillas Christman, Ephroniel Snell, Richard Miller, Alfred Friend, Stephen Fritzinger, Tilghman Snell, George Snetl, Philip Sheets; Henry Rhodarmel, Noah Remmel. Solomon Christman was duly elected to carry the torch. The band has leased the hall of Philip Sheets, at which place they will hold their meetings on the evening of Monday and Saturday of each week. Suocess to the boys.

Lehighton Institute.

The Institute met and was called fo order by the president, Mr. Barnett. The devotional exercises were conduc-ted by Mr. Allem The roll called, members all responding to their names. Minutes of previous meeting read and exercised approved. Mr. Rowland, being present, elected an honorary member and parti-cipated in some of the discussions. Music by the Institute: "Come to the Mountains," "What shouts from the Mountains," &c. Writing was next Mountains, 'cc. writing was next taken up, and a very interesting dis-cussion had, nearly all the teachers participating. Many of the difficulties which are encountered in teaching this branch were presented. It was thought an excellent plan to have beginners practice for a long time on holding the pen correctly. After pupils begin the pen correctly. After pupils begin to write in copies have them trace, with a dry pen, the letter or letters they are to make for several minutes before commencing to write, is in this manner they become familiar with the shape of the different letters. A recitation in Mental Philosophy was had on the subject of the Analysis and Classification of the Mental Facultle Programme for next meeting: General Exercises; Select Reading; Object Lessons, by Miss. Weaver; Mental Philosophy. Adjourned to meet Nov, 7. '74.

Burglary.

During the night of Saturday last, some midnight prowlers entered the cellar of the residence of Alfred Trainer, on Franklin street, this borough, and helped themselves to the following articles: ples and ; ans, jelly, wine, cake, &c., which they carried off. At the rear end of the lot, on Sunday morning. Mr. T. found an empty bottle and a portion of the pie pans, showing that the perpetrators of the robbery had, at least, partaken of a portion of the luxuries before leaving the premises. We would advise our people to be on the look out for these midnight prowlers and endeavor to capture and bring them to speedy justice.
