LEHIGHTON, PA.:

The Secretary of the Treasury has directed the Assistant Treasurer at New York to sell $500,000 of gold on each Thursday during the month of December. The aggregate amount to be sold is $2,500,000.

It is asserted that Secretary Bristow, in his forthcoming report, will recomment that a day be definitely set by law of Congress when the resumption of specie payments shall take place, and he is in favor of the 1st of January, 1876, as the day.

Work will be resumed on Monday in the New Rail Mill of the Rensselaer Iron Works at Troy, N. Y., under the old scale of employers' prices, which workingmen refused to accept at the time of the late strike. There are more applicants for work than can be furnished with employment.

The Concord (N. H.) Saving Bank suspended Tuesday, after paying out $600,000 to depositors, who have been making a run on the bank for some weeks. The trustees have petitioned the Superior Court to appraise the value of the remaining securities in the bank to determine the loss of unsatisfied depositors.

An act of Congress of 1866 fixed the Second Tuesday after the meeting and organization of the Legislature as the day for voting for U.S. Senator. Our Legislature meets on the 5th, which would make the 19th the day for electing a Senator. In case no election be had, they are to vote at least once each day during the session until a Senator shall be elected.

Heavy monthly reductions of the public debt are evidently things of the past, the Government, like individuals, being compelled to postpone the discharge of its indebtedness until the return of good times, the statement issued Tuesday, shows a decrease during the past month of $124,427,68; the coin balance is $83,-043, 376.24; currency, $16,699,311.48; coin certificates, $23,045,400; certificates of deposit, $47,120,000.

Proceedings have been instituted against Rev. Dr. Talmage, of Brooklyn, N. Y., by G. A. B. C. Mitchell, on a charge of slander. Mitchell was for a number of years a prominent member of Dr. Talamage's church, and was expelled on testimony of the pastor, who charged him with conduct unbecoming a Christian. Damages are laid at $5,0

In the United States Court, New York, Tuesday, before Judge Blatchford, Messrs. Henry Clews & Co., having failed to answer in bankrupt proceedings, were adjudicated bankrupts on the petition of Arthur Cooper, trustee of their London firm, and fifteen creditors in this country, who stated that they represent a quarter in number and a third in amount of the creditors.

no interest. Of Chambersburg certifleates there is outstanding $82,032 96, and of Agricultural College Land Scrip Fund of Pennsylvania there is $500,000.

There seems to be much distress prevailing among the laboring classes in the coal and iron tegions. Nearly all the iron furnaces and foundries are either idle or working only on partial time, and this, together with the general depression of trade, having reduced the consumption of coal, there is very little doing at the collieries, in this usually busy season. Thousands are in idleness without any means of obtaining work, and the distress is very great. The Mayor of Scranton writes to a contemporary that all the means of relief in that city are exhausted, and he fears, as winter advances, that the suffering will become extreme.

A Washington dispatch to the New York Sun, dated December 2nd, says: "There is almonst a unanimous feeling of dislike and hostility toward Grant among the Republican Congressmen who are daily arriving here, and if he should find hituself without any party this winter he need not be surprised. The causes of rebellion are numerous, but are chiefly based upon his no toriously friendly rei'ations with Boss Shepherd and Mullett. The manner in which he seconds these two individuals in their various schemes is galling in the extreme to those who are cure versant with the Shepherd and Mullett Rings. There is trouble ahead for the ma.? on horseback."

The Philadelphia Ledger says, "It is distressing to hear of the numerous failures reported in commercial walk's, but there is no one need be troubled by the occasional fallures chronicled by the newspapers, as they are usual at this season of theyear, and were expected to be numerous this fall in consequence of last year's panic. When business is conducted on such a sound banks as at present, for it is mainly for eash or on very short credit, it is unjust to predict Enancial trouble. There is no danger probable. The volume of business may be small, but it is safe. Only the lgnorant expected any present increase of prosperity in causequence of the elections, and therefore there is every reason to feel satisfied with the steady though slow advance of trade.

Gov. Allen sent his annual message to the Obio Legislature on Tuesday last. It is a model of brevity. He renews his recommodations that the expenditures of the State Government should be reduced down to the very last dollar corqpatible with the maintenance of the public credit and the efficient working of the several departments. In the midst of the existing financial distress. he says, when so many men are out of employment, and wages overywhere reduced, there are special reasons for retrenchment. Last year the tax levy was reduced $474,000. The taxable valuations in Ohio, as shown by the grand duplicate of 1874, are; Real and personal property, $1,580,879,324, which is a net increase over the valuations of 1873 of $13,104,685, an exhibit which the Governor thinks is a remarkable indication of the rapid developement of the material resources of the State, when the general stagnation of business during the past year is considered. In calling attention to the propriety of considering whether the compensation of county officers is not disproportionate to the salaries of other public officers, and of persons in private life, Gov. Allen expresses sentiments that will doubtless meet with general approval. He says: "Public servants should be reasonably compensated: but salaries and fees should not be so high as to make the getting of office a protession, and to enable candidates and applicants to buy their way to public places." All of which is sound, and worthy of the statesman from whom it proceeds.

William F. Havemeyer, Mayor of

New York, died suddenly Monday of apoplexy. He was the son of William Havemeyer, a German, who came to this country, in 1798. He was born in New York Feburary 12, 1804. He was cducated at Columbia College, where he graduated in 1824, and five years thereafter he commenced business as a sugar refiner. He retired with a competency in 1842, and in 1844 was chosen a Presidental elector on the Democratic ticket, In 1845 he was elected Mayor of New York. The term of office was then one year and Mayor Havemeyer declined a renomination. In 1848, however, he was again elected, but again refused a renomination. In 1846 Mr. Havemeyer was at the head of the Commissioners on Emigration, appointed under a law designed to prevent the swindling of immigrants on their ar-The debt of the Commonwealth on rival at New York. Mr. Havemeyer the 30th of November, the end of the acted with the Democratic party until fiscal year 1874, was $24,568,635,87. the Tweed gang usurped the name of Of this amount $4,423,500 bears 6 per that organization, when he revolted cent interest in gold and $19,326,000 6 against their rule and became chalrper cent interest in currency. Of this man of the famous Committee of Sevenlatter sum the interest has been stopped ty, whose labors finally resulted in the on $125,433 93 and $100,669 38 bears overthrow of Tweed and his confederates. Mr. Havemeyer was nominated Mayor of the city by the Reform associations and the Republican party against Abraham R. Lawrence, the Tammany Hall candidate, and Jas. O'Brien, of the Apollo Hall Democracy. Havemeyer was elected over Lawrence, by a plurality of 6000 votes. During his late adminsitration of the office Mayor Havemeyer seems to have intensified the hatred felt for him by the lower class of politicians, and has, at the same time, lost the support of those who are honesfly striving to secure good government. His honorable character has never been impeached, and yet he neminated and forced the appointment of some of the worst men in New York to such offices as that of Police Commissioner, An effort was made during the present year to secure his removal from office by Governor Dix, but that official, af er a full investigation, contented himself with an expression of disapproval of the Mayor's conduct.
