

The Blessed Day.
What shall little children bring
On Christmas Day, on Christmas Day?
What shall little children bring
On Christmas Day in the morning?
This little children bring
On Christmas Day, on Christmas Day,
Love and joy for Christ their King,
On Christmas Day in the morning!
What shall little children sing
On Christmas Day, on Christmas Day?
What shall little children sing
On Christmas Day in the morning?
This grand old carol shall they sing
On Christmas Day, on Christmas Day;
With all their hearts, their offering bring
On Christmas Day in the morning.
For Christ was born in Bethlehem
On Christmas Day, on Christmas Day;
For Christ was born in Bethlehem
On Christmas Day in the morning.
"And all the bells on earth shall ring
On Christmas Day, on Christmas Day;
And all the bells on earth shall ring
On Christmas Day in the morning."
"And all the angels in heaven shall sing
On Christmas Day, on Christmas Day;
And all the angels in heaven shall sing
On Christmas Day in the morning."
"And all the souls on earth shall sing
On Christmas Day, on Christmas Day;
And all the souls on earth shall sing
On Christmas Day in the morning."
"Then let us all rejoice again
On Christmas Day, on Christmas Day,
Then let us all rejoice again
On Christmas Day in the morning."
—M. M. D., in St. Nicholas for January.

—Readers of this paper should carefully watch the advertisements inserted in it when in want of goods, and patronize the advertiser. They are liberal, fair, and have the politeness to invite you; they believe you are intelligent enough to read before you buy, and they deserve patronage for their enterprise in letting the world know what they have on hand. The advertiser patronizes and helps to support your local family newspaper. For this he deserves your friendship, as no good local newspaper could be sustained by subscription alone.

Another New Stock.
T. D. Clauss, the tailor, desires us to state that he has just returned from New York, and that he is now opening a very large invoice of cloths, cassimeres and vestings, suitable for fall and winter trade, which he is prepared to make up in the best and most fashionable styles at "knock down" prices. He guarantees a "perfect fit" every time, and the goods in all cases as represented. Also, an immense stock of rubbers, boots, shoes, hats, caps and gent's furnishing goods. Remember the place, T. D. Clauss, just above the Public Square, Bank street, Lehigh.

Cheering Prospects.
Messrs. Cole & Helman, of the Allentown Steam Boiler Works, last week entered into several heavy contracts for work. One of them calls for 12 boilers and 12 stacks for a rolling mill in Philadelphia, another for a set of boilers for the Danville Co-operative Steel and Iron Co., and a third for 14 boilers, each 70 feet in length, for the Bethlehem Iron Co. This will necessitate the putting of an increased force of hands, and because of this will be welcomed as good news all around, indicative as it is of the brightening up of business, a fact we are glad to note. Some of our working people are very dependent over their present prospects. There is a little bright spot rising in the distance that augurs good.—Allentown Democrat.
