Enibition.

The M. E. Sunday School Exhibition given in the Methodist church on New Year evening was in every respect a complete success. The dialogues and single pieces were good, and all having parts did well. Several choice pieces of music added not a little pleas ure to the occasion.

All present seemed greatly delighted whilst not a few laughed more heartly than they had done for a long time.

The friends of the school had good reason to congratulate themselves over the enterminment.

On Friday last (New Year's Day) large number of the young people of this place went upon the Lehigh and Hellman's Dam for the purpose of enjoylog the exhilirating and healthful exercise of skatleg. The day was fine and the party as they passed our office were all in the nighest spirits. Among them was our young friend F. Howard Schall, joyous and heathful as the rest. They first went upon the Lehigh and afterwards repaired to Fleilman's Dam, where they had been skating for some time. Mr. Schall receiving severa! falls; the last time falling and striking the side of his head and face with great force, which caused him immediacely to be taken from the ice. On his way home he stopped at a friend's house, a short time, and then prozeeded to his own home on Bank street. On entering tive house his mother asked him if he wanted his supper; he answered no, that he did not feel well, and proceeded to a lounge or sofa, and lay down. Shortly after he was taken with vomiting, Dr. N. B. Reber was then sent for, and administered some medicines, after which he appeared quieter for a short time, when vomiting again ensued, and the Dr. was recalled, but upon arriving found that he was dead. Cause: Concussion of the Brain. Deceased was a member of the I. O. of R. M. and of Lehigh Hook & Ladder Co, of this borough, and was highly esteemed by the members of both organizations for his many good qualities of head and heart. His funeral took place on Monday afternoon, at two o'clock. He was followed to his last resting place by the members of the above organizations and a very large concourse of friends. The funeral procession moved down Bank street, to the M. E. church, where a very eloquent sermor, was delivered by the pastor, Rev. W. Coffman, after which they proceeded to the Lehighton cemetary, where the body was laid with all the honors of the I. O of R. M., Mr. Jacob Brong performing the ceremony.

At a regular stated council of Poho Poca Tribe No. 171, I.O. of R. M. held on the sleep of the 6th Sun, Cold Moon, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

The Iron Business. The iron trade continues very dull, and as a result it is said some eight or ten furnaces in this region will blow out in the near future, the accoumulation of pig at most of the Works being so immense that there is no alternative but to cease operations. Within the past two weeks some No. 2 iron has been soid as low as $20 per ton. No. I having recently sunk $2 on the ton. Ore is selling as low as $2.75 per ton, this including delivery at furnaces some cases requiring shipment of from 25 to 35 miles. At the mines ore of 25 to $5 miles. At the mines ordinary quality is not saleble at over 13 per ton -Allentown Demograt.

A rare treat will be afforded the people of this place next Thursday evening, in the Methodist church, in the lecture of Rev. Dr. Murphy. It will be especially interesting to all students of the Bible, and we would urge all Sunday School workers to be present. The Norristown Herald says: "Last evening Rev. Dr. Murphey delivered his lecture, entitled "Jerusalem and Its Surroundings," at the DeKalb street Methodist church. His descriptions of this celebrated city of the Holy Land were exceedingly interesting, and conveyed much information. His knowledge of the people, customs and localities of the Bible countries was gained by extensive travel, and these are vividly portrayed in his narratives. Dr. Murphey is an easy speaker, and his description- are given in plain and cultured language."

FALLOW TEXCHERS .- We have just

entered the new year of 1875, and have turned our backs, on 1874; we fee! that no earnest teacher close a year without feeling sad. Af-ter all our endeavors there is so little result. It is of no use to say that the teacher should leave results to God and do his duty. In a sense this is true, but there is a sense in which all teachers should care for results, we might as well tell a farmer no, to concern him-self about his harvest. Doubtless it is right to cast your care on God in a mat ter of barvest, and in a matter of success in Sunday School teaghing. It is right to trust God so much as to find deliverance from worry. But some teachers trust God altogether too far, But some they trust him to do their work. farmer who cares nothing about his harvest, at the end of the year is not worth much, no more is a Sunday School teacher who is careless of results. There-fore, we say, a teacher who is in ear-nest must always feel that the result of any year's work are less than he had a right to hope for; we as teachers cannot estimate results. The farmer can put his wheat on the scale and have harvest set down in pounds, from which he can get his value in dollars and cents. but the teacher can not so easily tell just what the value of his work be, the influence of a Sunday School teacher on a child's life are too subtle to be estimated in the gross, and the work of the Spirit of God generally refuses to be gauged by such rough measurement-for even, if you could measure the amount of knowledge would be no adequate measure of the true spiritual success of the teacher. While the result of the Sunday School work is not easily weighed or counted. Yet there is a result in the case of good work, and this result is generally ap-preciable in some way. We have not much confidence in those invisible suits that some people talk about. suits that are invisible are not generally of much account. Now and then a faithful teacher does a long work of preparation, the result of which is suddenly brought to light after patient waiting. But patience and persistent labor will show some fruit-some morat improvement, at least; and let us ever remember that every elevation of the moral and effectual nature is a drawing of the soul nearer to Christ. none of us, perhaps, dead fail-ures; we are none of us entirely successful; there is enough failure every teacher's life to cause reflection. It is far easier for you to say you have no gift for the work, and to throw it down like that other man of one talent, than to examine carefully into the reasons for want of success, we cannot bet-ter improve the time for memory "and tears" then by looking into our failure and success, and trying to improve in the future the mistakes of the past, everything else being equal, you will be more successful this year in exact proportion as you come to be personally acquainted with, and sympathized with acquaintance, friendliness, and mutual regard will you succeed. He that goeths forth and weepeth, bearing precours seeds, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

sheaves with him. East Mauch Chunk Letter.

MR. EDITOR, -The holiday festivities in East Mauch Chunk consisted in "Christman Trees" and turkey feasts, supplemented by social dances. Dancing, in this place, when under such christian supervision as mite societies is not considered baneful.

The schools, after a short vacation, opened on Monday with a full corps of teachers except Mrs. Allem (formerly Mrs. Trexler) who has not yet returned from her wedding tour.

Mr. Stetler, our enterprising butcher, ied, on last Thursday, Miss Houze to the hymeneal alter. The happy groom did not take, as is customary, a wedding tour, but remained at home and entertained his friends in a liberal manner.

It is estimated that there are thirty marriagable young ladies in E. Mauch Chunk. The most of them are good looking, and besides that the unjurity have attained to that degree of intelliigence, which renders them highly entertaining in the social circle, and they are well qualified in the art of GASTRO-NOMY. The best critics say that Miss. Tilly Cooke is the bells of the place. The critics are right. One would naturally infer from the above facts, that weddings would be more frequent in our town. But it is a significent fact to know that many of the thirty, to which we have referred, are seriously debating the question whether it is buttle of his WORM SYRUP, so plea-better in the mind to suffer the slings and and yet so sure. may 9 and arrows of a single unblessdness, or to enjoy the boon of conjugal fellcity, in which they would have a help-mate in resisting the whips and scorns of time. To those who are drifting as swiftly as the wheels of time can carry them, toward an 'old maid's' life we recommend, with full confidence, that they tarry not in the land where coningal hopes are perpetually blighted, but gather up their tiusels, pack them in the largest "Saratoga," and take the next boat for that goodly heritage, found beyond their native land in the Isle of Man.

There is a considerable stir among saloon keepers, whose business has been somewhat prostrated by an unexpected arrest for keeping turkey gobbler gam-bling houses. Some of the boys are counting their witness fees while in attendance at the next term of court. The proprietors of these unlawful houses count themselves as ruiped. No doubt their failure will be a calamity to the
