The Borough Direction.

Sin: Within the last few weeks I have noticed the subject of "Wno shall be our next Borough officers" has been brought before the people of this place in the Apvocave and in the Allenfown Herald under "Lehighton Items," the source of the latter is no well known that it would be fully for me to waste claring the that effect). Your correspondent of last week in advocating party fickets, takes a "lew which can never be suson ned by sound judgment as being a wise, fan to adopt in our borough at this time, for these persons; the votes, as polled as our last election, shows a majority for the Democrats, which proves that the numbration of a berough ticket consisting of all Democratwould be equivalent to their election, and from the fact (depter able as it is) pleasure, that our friend John Muth, is that both parties are led and ruled by a few or "ring," would give it om the choice of our officers instead of allowing all voters, as it has been heretofore, at having a voice in the nomination of a neutral lieket. The question then is would this "ring" select men according from the wear and tear of the boy's to their merits to fill the offices or those breeches, caused by riding down hill on from among their number who could their jumpers, that his necespre must control the largest number of votes? I fear it would be the latter; this, then, would give us omeers chosen by a few and not by the muss-chosen for party reason, and not because they are such

The voters of Lehighton should stand firm and united in this matter, and not allow the choice of our officers to be taken from them and placed in the hands of a few. If there is any place under the sun that moods reform, retrenchment, etc., it is the borough of Lehighton. Men of brains and common sense, take your hands out of your pouls to, shake off the lethargy that has held you spell bound and tongue tied so long, wake up and look into the arfairs of your borough, see what a large amount of the tixes you have paid some of our ex-officers settled, and the one, and who is enjoying the faults de-
