LERIGHTON, PA. SATURDAY MORNING MARCH & 1875

The members of the 43d Congress "stepped down and out" at 12 o'clock M. on Thursday last.

C. Ben. Johnson wrote Dan's history some time ago. It is not necessary for us to repeat it. He, no doubt, had the pleasure of perusing it at the time.

Again we ask the County Commissioners why they paid and the Auditors why they allowed the payment of the public money for advertising done in a paper not printed within the county timits? The official who ordered the publication should have been made to pay the bill out of his private purse.

The Secretary of the Treasury, Monday, March 1, issued a call for the redemption of $5,000,000 of 5-20 bonds of 1862, to be paid on the 1st day of June, at the United States Treasury, at which date interest will cease. All |Summit Hill, Pa., on the amount called is in coupon bonds: $50-No. 8851 to No. 10000, both inclusive; $100-No. 22101 to No. 27500, both inclusive; $500-No. 11101 to No. 13600, both inclusive; $1000-No. 23701 to No. 39000, both inclusive.

We visited Summit Hill a few days ago. Upon inquiring where the office of the Intelligencer was, we were informed that the publishers had no office in that town; that the paper (inside) was printed in Tamaqua, and the outside somewhere else. This is one of the papers chosen by our county officials to publish legal advertising in. Can the ex-(?)-Know-Nothing-Labor-Reformer-Republican publisher inform the people of Carbon county why this is thusly?

Daniel, Stand up!

The attention of the very ass-tute individual who publishes the sheet dubbed Summit Hill Intelligencer, is directed to the following section of the new postal law:

SEC. T. THAT NEWSPAPERS, ONE COPY TO EACH SUBSCRIBER RESIDING WITHIN THE COUNTY WHERE THE SAME AREPRING TED, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, AND PUBLISH. ED, SHALL GO FREE THEOUGH THE MAILST BUT THE SAME SHALL NOT BE DELIVERED AT LETTER CARRIER OFFICES OR DISTRIB-UTED BY CARRIERS UNLESS POSTAGE IS PAID THEREON AS BY LAW PROVIDED.

Do the Post Masters of Carbon Co collect postage on the Intelligencer ? If not, why not?

By the monthly report of the public debt for February we learn that the debt was decreased during the month $6,680,183,12. The total principal of the debt now outstanding is $2,242,-689,431.38, on which there is due and unpaid or Interest $26,426,738,93; giving a total of principal and interest of $2,269,116,170.31. There was at the coin, $75,026,082.26; of currency, $10,- iess," and that an active demand will 319,097.88, exclusive of $45,855,000 of speedly follow their introduction. special deposits for redemption of certificates, making the total of each in the Treasury $131,800,181.14, reducing the total debt, less cash in the Treasury, March 1, 1875, to 82,137,315,-926.17. Debt less amount in Treasury 1st of February, 1875, $3,143,996,-172,28-showing a decrease during the 251 99. Bonds issued to Pacific Railroad Companies, Interest payable in iawful money, principal outstanding, $64,628,512; Interest accrued and not yet paid, $646,285; interest paid by United States, $26,264,102.60; interest repaid by transportation of mails, etc., $5,724,219.29; balance of interest paid by United States, $20,539,885.05.

Come Right Down, Dan! We published the proclamation in the INTELLIGENCER, and were paid for it at a much lower rate than the Mauch Chunk papers, our circulation not being as large, and the reason we got the contract, was, the tax-payers in this neighborhood desired us to publish it, and they made their wishes known to the Commissioners.—Daniel, in the intelligencer.

Danlel, how many days did you run after the Sheriff in order to get his consent to your publishing the election proclamation, or can't you tell? Does the large amount of spirits running through your lips so affect your memory that you have no recollection of your sayings and doings. We know that a gentleman connected with the Commissioners' office expressed the opinion at the time that they, the Commissioners, would not allow the bill. We never collected patronage from the Commissioners; there were promises made to us, but we, many years ago i-es of Politicians, and have adopted as our motto in such cases, "Blessed are those who expect nothing for they shall not us disappointed." Now, Dan, come right down, and neknowing that the Commissioners had no right to pay you that $1.1 for that litNew Advertisements.

He Is Not Jealous.

Wherein a newly married couple do not appear to be happy; the lady strives to make her husband jealous, and prevails upon her uncle to assist her; she carries out her plans, but how she succeeds in the end is shown with a fullness and a striking life-like personification. This will be entirely in German, for the benefit of those of our German friends who prefer listening to their native language. Next in order will be the language. Next in order will be the great American Farce, entitled The

Persecuted Dutchman

John Schmidt, of the firm of Schmidt, Von Dunder Kelt & Co., dealers in boots and shoes, tread findings and uder tings, makes his appearance after hav-ing been on a collecting tour through the country; stopping at a hotel on his way home, he meets with some laughable adventures, but although he is persecuted on all sides during his stay at the hotel he, with the persistence peculiar to his race, never says die, and finally comes out right side up, but in a very delaphdated condition consequent upon his rough handling. It is rich.

Scenes in a Fireman's Life Shows the dangers and hardships the Fireman undergoes in the faithful per-tormance of his duty in different stages.

The whole will be presented with new and elegant Scenery, procured from New York for the occasion, and the Managers beg leave to state that they have left nothing undone to render this the best Entertainment ever produced in Lehighton.
