Our Mauch Chunk Letter.

MAUCH CHUNK, MAY 19.—Some assert that there is nothing new under the sun" from which assertion however I humbly bez to dif-fer, since there is scarcely a day that does'at bring "something new."

The latest sensation among the knowing ones in our midst is the reported escapade or affaire du ceeur of Thomas Frants a pedagogue istely employed in Lehigh township. From what the writer could learn it appears.

1. There is such an individual as Thomas

7. That the said Frants, a briefless pottifug ger, last fail first made his appearance in Le high township in the role of teacher. 2. That, not content with the laurela to be ac quired in the profession, he set out on a "ne departure" in the course of which

4. He attracted the attention and, by a profuse application of "soft solder" gained the af fections of the beautiful Mawre Dodendorf, and

5. That after a very peasant season of woo-ing, evolog, nest-hiding, etc., he proposed 6. Was accepted, and 7. On the 15th of last month was joined in "the holy bonds" to the idol of his heart, and shortly thereafter accompanied his late acquisition to her father's home in Mouroe county. The above comorise the various stages in the progress of chapter I. What follows forme Hardly had this 'nice young man" departed with his "happy bride," than a very respecta-ble-looking lady made her appearance in the neighborhood of Bockpert, making d'ligent inquiries concerning the aforesaid Frantz whose wife she claimed to be. Apprised of the actual state of affairs, and informed that be had left some baggage behind, he "made for" the trunks at the place indicated, and on securing them not only found additional evidence of or beloved's unfidelity in the shape of sundry love letters addressed to his 'dear Mamie, but also unmistakable proof that he, whom she had taken to her bosom as an innocent young man, had already been diversed from a former write. Undeceived and satisfied as to the true character of her spouse, the poor lady returned whence she came—to Audoursed. Chapter III will probably be enacted before the Court of Over and Terminer of Carbon county, and em-in a call at the Eastern Pentientiary! So long as silly stris will continue to counte nance strangers, and foolish parents to encou-

NOTES. -A Mauch Chunk philosopher ascribes the backwardness of the season to the appexation of Arctic Alaska.

—There is said to be in our midst a specime. There is said to be in our must a specimen of humanity of such priestly mien, that he is frequently saluted as such by strangers.

—Wises said liquors are down at Hughes and McCrea's. Not that they intend to resinquish the traffic, but because the whole stock was splited on the collar floor-certainly as low a they could get.

—The $(30) sods fountain has arrived and may now be seen in operation at Hughes and McCrea's. The fire large oil painting of Onoka Falls, painted for them by Bentzen, and now adorning their store, is attracting large crowds to their place of business seasonable enjoyments. -Rev. strunts and Dr. Mater left on Tuesday last, and on Thursday sailed from New York, per steamer Westphalia, for Hamburg, Rev. Mr. Hennicke will fill the pulpit of the former, while Dr. Ebbert will give his undivided atten tion to the extraction of "roots."

On Monday last this town was nearly de serted—all of our live men having gone to Alientown to attend the parade—and sin beer.

modations. -A committee of Nesquehoning miners, on a raise at East Mauch Chunk on Monday Inst. met with poor encouragement.

—East Mauch Chunk begins to look nobby

White wash-brushes, brooms and rakes in the hands of males and females have done wonders -Buriness is said to be duller now then a my time since the strike, painters being about the only class of mechanics doing much. Among the latter Chas Hummet is said to be doing first rate business.

—Scrubbing-brushes, paint, and lime bave done wonders in the Court Room. Let's hope that Judge Dreher's effactories will not be offended on his return.

—On a recent visit to the Middle Coal Dis trict Poor House, your reporter found every-thing in apple-pie order. Too much praise can-not be bestowed upon the able Stewart of that exceptent institution, Mr. Petery, and the Board of Directors Measurs. McGinty, Greenawalt and

H. Q. Bullor.

-The Doctor's "porp" is said to have contracted bad habits during its late visit to Berwick. This is what must be expected whan young'uns are silowed to run at large. The doctor deserves no sympathy!

Not So.

The report that the new school building is settling or sinking, and the quoting of Dr. N. B Reber's name as authority for the report, we are authorized to state is entirely without foundation. We are unable to account for the spreading of this report, other than the extreme love some people have for lying.
