It is now asserted that notwithstanding his former positive declination, ex-Governor Wm, Bigler, of Clearfield, has signified his willingness to accept the nomination for Governor, if the Erie Convention should name him.

THE full count of money in the eash vault of the Treasury at Washington is completed and agrees exactly with Gen. Spinner's account of what it contained. All the coin that was in any degree worn was actually counted. The new coin was counted by weighing it, and everything proved to a cent. The contents of the vault were $10,000. 000, of which nearly $1,500,000 was coln.

A council of the Cabinet officers called by Secretary Fish to consider our relations with Venezuela, was held Tuesday in Washington. All the members were present except Secretary Belknap, who had gone West. The trouble trises from the refual of the Venezuelan Government to pay the deferred instalments of the awards made under the convention of 1866, unless it shall have the privilege of designating the particular parties to whom the money shall be paid. Our Government will not consent to this, and unless the money be paid as the stipulation requires, our Minister to Venezuela will probably be with-

A REPORT just compiled by Third Assistant Postmaster-General Barber shows that 107,618,000 postal cards were sold during the fiscal year which ended June 30 last, against 91,079,000 issued for the year which ended June 30, 1874. The increase, which is equivalent to about 18 1-6 per cent, seems to indicate that the postal cards are growing in popular favor. The value of the issue of ordinary postage stamps during the year was $18,271,479 an increase of $996,237 over the previous year. The issue of newspaper and periodical postage stamps ammounted to $815,902 47; of ordinary stamped envelopes and wrappers to $4,124,477 34, an increase of $242,284, 58; of potsal cards, $1,076,160. The total issues for sale to the public was $24,288,018,81, an increase of $2,219,794 05 over the tast fiscal year. The sale of official postage stamps for the fiscal year amounted to $834,970 25, a decrease of $580,874 95 since June 30, 1874; official stamped envelopes, $354,522 18, an increase of $1,065 52 over the year 1874.

DISGRACEFULI

WE have on several occasions called the attention of our borough authorities to the miserably delapidated condition of our side-walks, but with little or no effect. They appear to care , not whether our own citizens or visitors break their limbs over rotten pavements or not, and probably will take no action in the matter until the people are burdened with an additional tax to pay damages sustained by falling over the the rotten planks now doing service as side-walks. During the week we know of two persons - one a lady visitor, the other a gentleman resident-who have received severe falls on Bankway, and still the traps exist, notwithstanding the fact that one or more members of Council pass up and down the street several times a day.

There is an ordinance providing for the keeping of the side-walks in good condition. Why is it not enforced? Is it that members of Council are afraid to do their duty, or that they are careless of the interests of the borough? There can be no doubt but that the wietched condition of our side-walks are an injury to the business men of our borough, in keeping strangers from our town, for fear of breaking their limbs on our rotten side walks. People who have business or pleasure in view, do not want to pitch and stumble over illy constructed and rotten sidewalks. In preference to visiting such asismsnaged, old-fogy towns, they will spend a dollar or two more in going to places where the comfort and convenience of pedestrians is looked after by wide-awake and intelligent officials. We only wonder that our eltizens, and especially our business men, do not demand that the Council enforce the law in regard to good pavements.

Obituary .- J. W. MacCrea, Esq., Mauch Chunk, died at the family mansion on East Broadway, on Mon-day, July 13th, 1875, in the 40th year of his age. Death resulted from tetan-ua, commonly known as "lock-jaw," and was caused by a rusty nall going through his shoe and entering the big toe of the left foot, on Friday, July 2d. All that could be done to avert the sad event, had been tried by our physicians, but their efforts proved unavailing, and Death claimed him as its own on Mon-day last, and put an end to the terrible sufferings which he endured. Mr. Mac-Crea was well-known in this locality and to be requalified with him, was to more that, like and appreciate him for his whole-souled and generous quali-ties—qualities that were part and par-cel of the late Josiah MacCrea one and the late Josian Mactrea one and the separable. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs James MacGrea, a couple now nearly 90 years of age, who were among the early settlers of Mauch Chunk, and one of a family of fise brothers and two sisters, five of whom are still living, four brothers, and one sister now the wife of Hon. James Houston, of this place, three brothers now residing in Wabash, Indiana, and a brother of Dr. MacCrea of the firm of Hughes & MacCrea, druggists, of Hughes & MacCrea, druggists, Manch Chunk, Deceased was been in Mauch Chunk, in December, 1835, in one of the original Lehigh Co.'s tenement houses, nearly opposite the public school building. He passed his early years in this neighborhood, and went with his father's family to Wabash, Indiana, but returned with him when he removed again to Mahch Chunk, while his other brothers remained in while his other brothers remained in the West. Mr. MacCrea served in Co. A., 34th Reg't (Col. Chas, Albright, commander) as orderly sargeant, for three months, when the 90 days troops were called out during the invasion of Pennsylvania by the Confederate forces under Gen. Robert E. Lee, in the sum-mer of 1862. He served the full term of enlistment and was honorably dischargenlistment and was honorably discharged at its close. For a number of years he taught school in Upper Mauch Chunk, and it was during this time that he took unto himself a wife, Miss Caroline Weiss, a sister of Prof. Lewis Weiss, organist of St. Mark's Church, and a daughter of Timothy Weiss, Esq., deceased. Afterwards he resigned the schoolmastership, and accepted the parschoolmastership, and accepted the po-sition of conductor on the Beaver Meadow Branch of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, which he occupied for several years, making many friend-by his uniforta courtesy and kindness. About three years ago he refired from the services of the Lehigh Valley Co., and purchased the flour and feed business of Mr. Stewart M. Line, which he carried on up to the time of his death. He was a member of St. Mark's P. E. Church and sung in its choir. He was also a prominent member of the Ma Knight Templars, Odd Fellows Druids, Grand Army of the Republic, Red Men, Knights of Honor, Conduc-tors' Mutual Association, Young Men's Christian Association, and the Young Men's Literary Association. He leaves a wife and many relatives and friends to mourn his sadden death. The funeral took place Wednesday af-ternoon, at 3 o'clock, from the residence, and the cortage mixed down Broadway to St. Mark's P. E. Church, the services being conducted by the Rev. M. A. Tolman, assisted by the Rev. Hurley Baidy. The remains were followed to the cemetery by a large concourse, all uniting 11 paying

This year the band is composed of four performers—cornet, violin, picculo and harp -all from Xib-lo's Garden New York City.

—The season at the Switzerland may now safely be said to be in full sway, nearly every day witnessing several hundred arrivals at this popular resort. Tuesday there were 150 arrivals at the Mansion House, and spine days there are from 200 to 250 people stopping at that first-class hotel. Our other hotels have a very fair share of the traveling patronage, but the Mansion takes the lead. Last summer the Mansion averaged 500 people at dinner daily, and the indications are that it will come up nearly to that standard for 1875—at least we hope it may.

-Friday evening of last week, the Hibernian Cornet Band gave an open air concert in Frank Inkman's Centennial Garden, under the sladow of the large American flag which Frank has placed there. Oblituary.

Gen. Fronk Bisir died in Missouri at about minight on Thursday of last week. He was a little more than fitty-four years old, was a graduate of Princeton College, and had spent most of his manifood in St. Leols. Nearly thirty cars ago he became conspicuous as an oppo-ment of slavery, and an advocate first of Van hent of slavery, and an anyocate rist of van Buren's election in 155, and afterward of the Bepublican party. He was repostedly a member of the House of Representatives, but resigned in 1861 to cuter the military service. His expect in the war legen with his appointment as a bureafter seneral, which was soon followed by hts promotion to the rank of major general, the influence of his family being potent. He com-much d a division in the army of the Tennessee, and corved with ciedly at Vickeburg and Chattanooga and during the march to the sea he was in commans of the Seventeenth Army Corps. When Andrew Johnson broke from the Republican party. Blair went with him, and favored a more conciliatory policy toward the South. In 1866 he was appointed Collector of Customs of St. Louis and Commissioner of the Pecific Battreed; and in 1808, being now to full connection with the Democratic carry, he was nominated as its conditate for Vice-President. The rentiments of his well-known Brodhead The rentiments of his well-known Broadcast letter contributed considerably to the detect of the party in that e ection. In that letter Blair argord to be ected should " secure the will of the people by transpiner in the dust the usurpations of Congress known as the reconstruction sets." But sithough the Democratic party was defeated in the country a large, if was since was defeated in the country at large, if was suc-coasin' in Mirsouri, and one of the truits of that coseff in Missouri, and one to the trace that success was that it stars election in 1850 to the Sonate. He was a member of the senate during two seasons, but was not appearly distinguished. He was a man of considerable energy, intents, impractionally courage, and rather seitable hat his discretion was not equal to his involted, and his career as a whole was neither brilliant nor successful.
