POLITICAL NOTES

--Whatover becomes of the Hard Money party (and it isn't soins to die, the party of inflation will find occasion to order its crape and codin : and the day, we trust, is not distant --| Hartford

Times (Dem.)
-It is announced that Senator Morton will make 10 or 12 speeches in Chic, beginning about the 1st of August. There will be a good deal of ourloatty to see if, like his organ, he has chang-ed from the seft to the hard side of the financial

—We receive daily reports of accessions to our ranks from every quarter of the State. Private letters and interviews with leading men con-vunce us that the prospect was never better for a Democratic victory in Ohio.—[Cincinnati En-

-Ex-Speaker Blaine is said to have received a elight robull recently in his aspirations for Senator Mornille seef. His cambiant for Stage Senator in Oxford was defected in the nominal-ing convention, receiving 27 votes, while Senator Morrill's man received 54.

—We notice that the leading Republican journals of the State are quite of the opinion that now men should be nominated all around for State officials. The idea is a good one. In the present attitude of public opinion we believe in fresh hands at the brakes.—[Elmira Advertiser There's no longer say use in talking war talk, North or South. The people have discovered that there is something cles and something better so do, and they are giving their attention to the better work. It is humiliating to the prophets of evil, but there is no hope for them.—[Bouton Advertises (Rop.

—All things considered, we have the promise of a pretty lively Fall campaign, both State and local. Talk has commenced quite as early and local. Talk has commenced quite as ear.; and will be kept up quite as earnesty as usual. Re-publicans are sanguine, but Democrats have the prestige of success on their side. In this State, prestige of success on their site. In this case, however, prestige don't seem to count a great deal.—[Albany Express (Rep.)

—The rumor comes from lows that Senator Harian has amounced with great emphasis that he is not a candidate for the United States Senatorship. The nomination of Mr. Kirkwood for Governor may possibly have had something to do with this determination. Mr. Kirkwood is not a Harlan man, and the eminent ex-Senator evidently thinks is a waste of time to lose his breath jumping after grapes, which may after all, be too sour to be pleasant.

—Now that they have been relieved from the deadly burden of the prohibitory liquor law the Republicans of Massachusetta are hoping they can carry the State this year, thus win ning back the power which the Democrats so unexpectedly took from them. The Boston Ad-tertiser reviews the field carefully, says the Republicans have an opportunity to make a new and strong departure on all local questions, and adds." "The best sentiment of the State is with them. Upon a broad, liberal, national platform, and with a new tieret composed of the best men who will consent to serve, they can restore the Republican majorities, and they ought to do n."

-Mr. Nordhoff has stirred up bad feeling among the White House afternants. His letter about the hitchen organ, written to the Hon. J. M. Ecmunds, called forth from that gentle man a disclaimer of any proprietorship in the instrument aforesa io, and his manner of denial was not very compilmantary to the real pro-prietors. The grinders now rise to say a 1ew words, and they speak of the great politicals who originated the famous Bloody Shirt Convention at Chattanooga in this siurning way We have never constitute the Secretary and Postmaster upon any political subject. We never had the elightest idea of doing it. We always supposed that his chief business was to superintenfi the mailing of old documents, the substance of which had long before been given to the public by telegraph." Has it come to this, that the only newspaper the White House ever recognizes calls the beautiful speeches of our "leading statesmen" "old documents ?" It is very mournful. —The Republicans of New York are evidently determined to go before the people next Fall with unexceptional candidates. The entire party press is agreed upon that point. Anima ted by this spirit The Syracuse Journal gives excellent proof of its carnestness by ang-esting Mr. Prederick W. Seward as the nomine for secretary of State. It says of him: Freder ick Seward's nomination to that office would in Itself a vertiable tower of strength to Republican cause. He combines in himself the Republican cause. He combines in himself the most desirable characteristics of a candidate before the people and an admissirator of the office. Mr. Seward is a worthy son of the distinguished stafesman who was for a generation the favorite of the people of New York. He has an extended acquamtance with public affairs, first as a journelist at the capital of the State, and afterward as chief saststant of his father in the office of Secretary of State at Washington. In the Assembly, during the past session, he took a prominent position and was distinguished by the correctness of his action, by his urgent adcy of the interest of the people, and by his ires and honest legislation.

PARAGRAPHIC.

—A millionaire of Granville, Wis., has recently made a will, in which he leaves $50,000 to any incorporated town or village in Wisconsin that will not tolerate a brass band.

—"Folks can't be too keer ful nowadays what they let their children cat," said ah old lady as her eye fell upon the heading of a newspaper article—"Little Emmaline's Diary."
—Near Creston, Iowa, on Wednesday, a mus deter, being pursued and surrounded by horse-men, coeffy draw a rator from his pecket, and remarking. "I suppose you think you've got me now," out his throat from ear to ear.

randdaughter of Say, the French political sist, has married the second son of the Duc de Brogue. She is reported to have a private property of 14,000,000 frances, to be as beau-tiful as Voque, intellectual, and not quite nine-teen. Lucky dog.

-A woman of Indiananolis has shown that she could be as marderously brutal as simost any man. She pursued her rival in love into a closet, shot her fatally, and then, patting her revolver glosfully, exclaimed, "Oh, quiver! That's right, die nard! I enjoy this, 1 do!" —The St. Louis Times is of the opinion that it is nt Mrs. Tilton alone who is set comparative ly at rest by the result of the Beecher trial but that there are other fair members of the Ply-mouth congregation who for an months past have been on the ragged edge of exposure.

— A young Galema (III.) wife left this note pinned up in the house, addressed to her hubband: "Precious: Have gone up to mother's to got something good to est; be sure to take the medicine out of the right-hand tumble; and the the fire so down. Bring home my new hounet for Sunday, or I'll quit your bed and board forever. List the sciolits powders do you any good! Don's get any dirt on the floor, and ave this big yin. Your Own (suns.

—The oldest convict in the Ohio penitentiary is dead. He had been an immate of that mislitution for thirty years, under a life santecce, which was literfully carried out. He went there have been on the ragged edge of exposure.

which was literfilly carried out. He went there comparitively joung. Rearly all his acult life resching through two governations, was special in rigorous confinement. His offence was nurin rigorous confinement. His offence was murder in the paroxysm of passion, and for it he made this prodicious aforament of suffaring.

—Mass Susain R. Anthony, one of she persons to whom Mrs. Thion is said to have confessed, is collising the Locarements "Innes during the illness of her brother, who is its proprietor. One of her chitorial articles reviews Mr. Becoherspublic life approvingly, and adds: "To orr is summer, and it a man falls once, we should not surike him white prestrate, but allow him to make another effort or gan the foothoid he has tost. The Americans are a fair, liberal-immed people, who, believing becoker guilty, will yet always remember him as the greatest of pulpit traiors, and a time friend to the oppressed of court rags."
