-The many friends of Rev. F. B. Hodge, of the First Presbuterian church of Wilkesbarre, will regret to hear that the state of his health is such as to render it necessary for him to cease for a time his regular ministerial labors. He had so far recovered from his last win-ter's attack as to fulfil all his duties for several months. But a recent prostra-tion has caused his physicians to say he must rest for a time. They recommend a trip to Europe, and a stay for a time at noted springs in Germany. He goes to the "Hot Springs of Carlsbad in Bohemia." He will be accompanied by the Rev. H. H. Welles, of Kingston. I of all pastors have such devoted charges as Mr. Hodge. As soon as his people learned of what his physicians recommended, they resolved that he should have four months' leave of absence; his salary should be continued, and a voluntary purse of fitteen hun-dred dollars should beip defra y his expenses abroad .- Presbyterian.
