The Carbon Advocate.

H. V. MORTHIMER, ... EDITOR

LEHIGHTON, PA.
SATURDAY MORNING SEPT. 11, 1875.

—Treasurer New will soon begin the preparation of his first annual report. It is said he will confine himself to the business and condition of his office, and not go into the financial question except as it may affect the duties of the Treasurer.

—The New Jersey election resulted in carrying all the constitutional amendments by majorities ranging from 10,000 to 30,000. The "five county" mortgage tax amendment was carried, although there were large majorities against it in the five counties affected, as the remainder of the State voted heavily for it.

—The number of immigrants who arrived at New York during August was 8558, against 15,427 during the corresponding year of 1874. Of last month's immigrants 2116 were from England, 1661 from Ireland, 326 from Scotland, 1923 from Germany, 860 from Russia, 412 from Sweden and Norway, 353 from France, 228 from Austria, 133 from Italy, and 221 from Switzerland.

—Full returns of the California election shows that the Legislature stands as follows: Senate, 19 Democrats, 5 Independent Democrats, 7 Republicans 9 Independents; Assembly, 60 Democrats, 1 Independent Democrat, 11 Republicans, 7 Independents, and one seat a tie between the Democratic and Independent candidate in Yuba. The Democrats have 1 majority in the Senate and 20 majority in the House over all others combined.

—At the Democratic Conference, held at Stroudsburg on the 12th ult., the State Senator to be elected in 1875 and 1876 was unanimously conceded to Monroe county. The annual convention of the Democracy of that county was held on Monday evening of last week, at which the names of Messrs. Charlton Burnett, John Coolbaugh and Robert R. Depuy were presented for nomination. Mr. Depuy withdrew his name, and Mr. Burnett was nominated on the first ballot, by a vote of 26 to 13, which was afterwards made unanimous.

—It is stated from San Francisco that arrangements are progressing "quietly and prosperously" for a settlement of the affairs of the Bank of California. The President of the National Gold Bank and Trust Company stated Tuesday that arrangements had been made for the redemption of all its gold notes, amounting to $800,000, at the United States Treasury. The bank has already liquidated more than half of its deposits. It is constantly receiving remittances from country correspondents, and is paying its drafts and receiving deposits from city customers and paying checks against the same. By this means, which is approved by almost all its creditors, it is gradually resuming and retaining its business.

Specie Payments.

A special dispatch to the Philadelphia Sunday Tribune, dated Washington, September, 4th, gives the following views of the policy of President Grant and the Secretary of the Treasury, in regard to the resumption of specie payments, in accordance with the provisions of the recent Act of Congress: "While Kelley is distressing himself about 'the poor people,' and the Democrats are trying to see how they can make political capital of the present situation of financial and merchantile affairs, the President and his able Secretary of the Treasury are quietly preparing the way for specie resumption. It is the desire of the President that the way to resumption shall be so far advanced during his administration that whatever the political or financial views of his successor may be, he will, provided, of course, the law remains as it is, be constrained to carry it to a successful termination. Though no plan has been definitely agreed upon, the following is understood to be the one most favorably endorsed and as least likely to disturb the money market, while it will allow an accumulation of gold that will bring the day of resumption nearer to hand. First, the Syndicate to be allowed to purchase the four and a half per cent. loan on the same terms as the five per cent at par in coin, with a half of one per cent. for commission, the syndicate paying all expenses. The syndicate to pay for the bonds either in gold or coupons of gold-bearing bonds. Second, the national banks of the United States to exchange their gold dividends received on bonds for the new bonds releasing the same amount of six per cent. bonds held for the security of their circulation. Third, the sale of four and a half per cent. bonds at their par value, a privilege authorized by law. If the Treasury does not renew its contract for placing the Law bonds, all call for six per cents, will cease and the value of every bond in the market will appreciate accordingly. In two years the estimate is that the entire loan would be disposed of, while the interest to be paid on the new bonds, and the requirement of the sinking fund during those two years would not exceed a hundred millions, leaving on the first of January, 1878, a gold fund of $200,000,000 at the disposal of the Secretary—an amount sufficiently large to assume the permanency of the gold value of every legal tender in circulation. The scope of the plan is to secure to the Treasury in the two years next, beginning with January 1, 1876, nearly the exact amount of gold the government will disburse during the period in paying the interest on the public debt, which is a hundred millions annually. It will be a gradual accumulation, and this is what the framers of the specie resumption act had in view when the bill was determined upon as a party measure, adopted in the Republican Senate caucus, and passed by a party vote after a few hours' explanation. It passed through the House under the previous question, and was signed by the President within forty eight hours after its final passage. To the objection that it increases the bonded debt, its advocates says it will not for more than three or four years. It will give to the legal tenders their face value in gold, and, when that is accomplished, it will be the duty of the Secretary who is in office to immediately call in six per cent, bonds to the amount of four and a half per cent. bonds issued, and place them to the credit of the sinking fund. The details of this plan may be changed, but the basis is exactly in conformity with the intention of the Secretary of the Treasury. In regard to silver, the opinion is now held in official circles that it is a mistake to do away with fractional currency."

Democratic State Convention.

The Democratic State Convention met in Erie on Wednesday last. The Districts were all fully represented, and a large number of citizens were in attendance watching the interests of their friends. After the usual preliminary business had been transacted, William V. McGrath nominated for temporary chairman, James Ellis, of Schuylkill, and Milton Speer, of Huntingdon, named John D. Stiles, of Lehigh. The result of the ballot was: Ellis, 132; Stiles, 112. There was great applause over Ellis' election, which on Mr. Spreer's motion was looked upon by some as an anti-Bigler triumph. Messrs. Stiles, McGrath and Spreer conducted Mr. Ellis to the chair, when he was warmly received. He said that there was one part of the platform upon which all could unite without discussion, and that was a plank in favor of honest government. The convention could put up, and he thought would put up, a man who would be a platform to the party itself. The rules of the House of Representatives were adopted. The Committee on Contested Seats, Resolutions, and Organization were appointed. All resolutions relating to the platform to be referred to them without debate.

An effort was made to select a State Central Committee at the same time as the other committees. The Philadelphia delegation objected, and the matter was finally withdrawn.

It is learned that Mr. Ellis' election was without political significance. The honor was given to him as a balm to his defeat by Mr. Wallace at the Pittsburgh Convention.

On motion a recess was taken to 4 o'clock p. m. The Committees on Organization, Resolutions and Contested Seats to prepare their reports during the recess.

Hendrick B. Wright, of Luzerne was unanimously elected permanent chairman. An ineffectual attempt was made to proceed to nominations, and finally an adjournment was carried till 11 a. m. Thursday.

ERIE, Pa., Sept. 9.—The convention reassembled at 11:10 and the journal of yesterday was read.

After thanks tendered to the citizens of Erie for their hospitality, the Chair decided the next business in order. A gentleman from Cumberland had just nominated Bigler, when Speer moved to adjourn for one hour and called for the yeas and nays. The object was to allow the Committee on Platform time to conclude their report. The motion was lost by yeas 161, nays 137.

Mr. Bromley, of Crawford, moved to adjourn until 2 o'clock, on the ground that it was useless to attempt to force a nomination for Governor until the Committee were ready to report.

Mr. Snider, one of the anti-Ohio men on the Platform Committee, called upon Mr. Hughes, its chairman, to present its report. This was greatly applauded. Mr. Hughes, the chairman, declared that if the convention would adjourn until 3 p. m. it would save time and enable the Committee to prepare a report upon which all could harmonize. The convention should not be characterized by any faction and should work for success. The adjournment was carried by an overwhelming majority.

On reassembling at 3 o'clk. p.m., the Committee on Resolutions reported the following

PLATFORM.

Resolved, That we hereby declare our unfaltering devotion to the fundamental principles of democratic government, as enunciated by Thomas Jefferson in his first inaugural Address, to wit:

Equal and exact justice to all men, of whatsoever state or persuasion, religious or political; the support of the state Governments in all their rights as the most competent administration for our domestic concerns, and the surest bulwarks against anti-republican tendencies; the supremacy of the civil over military authority; economy in the public expense, that labor may be lightly burdened; the honest payment of our just debts, and the sacred preservation of the public faith; freedom of religion, freedom of the press, freedom of the person under the protection of the great writ of habeas corpus, and trial by juries impartially selected.

Second. That the wide spread depression and suffering which affect every business and employment that is capable of being touched by legislation, show beyond a doubt the ignorance, inefficiency and wickedness of the leaders of the party that has ruled the State and Nation for a period of years, and calls for their immediate and permanent removal from the places which they have so long dishonored and disgraced.

Third. That the unwise multiplication of the public offices and the inordinate increase of salaries and emoluments of office, are among the many evils which radical rule has forced upon the country, and favoring an economical administration of the Federal and State Governments, so that the people may be as speedily as possible relieved from the burden of taxation with which they are now seriously oppressed. We call upon our Federal and State representatives to strive by all proper means to reduce them into to the very lowest practicable minimum and amount.

Fourth. That the conduct of the present State Treasurer in the management of the Commonwealth's finances in his neglecting to appropriate the moneys in the sinking fund in payment of the public debt as rapidly as required by law; non-accounting for the interest received by him on the people's money deposited with the several banks and banking institutions throughout the state, and his insolent refusal to submit the archives of the Treasury Department to the legally constituted committee of the House of Representatives appointed to investigate the same, is cause for grave suspicion, and is deserving of the severest condemnation at the hands of an outraged and already overtaxed people.

Fifth. That the condition of our State Treasury demands the most searching and thorough investigation, and we call upon the committee appointed by the House of Representatives to investigate the state of the same and to closely pursue the duty which has been confided to it.

Sixth. That the nominees of the Convention are hereby pledged to apply all moneys in the sinking fund as required by law in the reduction of the public debt, and thereby save the interest on the same to the amount so reduced and that money in the Commonwealth from corporations and individuals shall be promptly collected and paid into the Treasury, and not in any manner, directly or indirectly, to employ public moneys for their own profit or purposes.

Seventh. That the contraction of the money currency and circulating medium heretofore made by the Republican party, and the further contraction proposed by it with a view to the forced resumption of the specie payments, has already wrought disaster to the business of the country, and threatens general bankruptcy, we demand that this policy be abandoned, and that the volume of money be made and kept equal to the wants of trade, leaving the restoration of legal tenders to par in gold to be brought about by promoting the industries of the people, and not by destroying them.

Eighth. That the policy already initiated by the Republican party of abolishing legal tenders, and giving the National banks the power to furnish all the currency will increase the power of an already dangerous monopoly and the enormous burdens now oppressing the people without compensating advantage, and that all the national bank circulation be promptly and permanently retired and full legal tenders be issued in their place.

Ninth. That the entire interests demand that the Government should cease to discredit its own money and should make its legal tenders receivable for all public dues, except where specific for the obligation of contracts requires payment in coin.

Tenth. Demands that the extinction of the present national banks, and the establishment in their stead of a system of free banks of discount and deposit, under such regulations as the states respectively may prescribe, and no paper money, except such as may be issued directly and upon the faith of the general government, affording practically a currency based on the gold and silver and other properties of the whole people of the country.

Eleventh. Resolved, That with this declaration of principles and policy we arraign the leaders of the Republican party for their extravagant expenditure and profligate waste of the public money; for their corruption; for their prosecution for their contempt of constitutional obligations; for their extortionate increase of the salaries of our public officers; for their oppressive, unjust and discordive system of taxation, finance and currency; for their continuance of incompetent and corrupt men in office and for their general mismanagement of both the states and Federal Governments and we cordially invite the Liberal Republicans and other men, without regard to past party association, to co-operate with us in expelling them from power and establishing such an administration of our public affairs as characterized the purer and better days of the republic.

Eighteen candidates for Governor were placed in nomination, and balloting began. On the seventh ballot eight candidates were voted for, the leading names being Bigler, 53; Barr, 48; Ross, 45; Noyes 45, and Pershing 30. Balloting continued when our report closed

Current Events.

—A disease resembling the epizootic has broken out among the cattle near Avon, N. Y., and forty of them have died within two weeks. Twelve died on Sunday.

—The King Philip Mill, at Fall River, Mass., resumed operations Tuesday, and hundreds of strikers made application for work.

—Eighty-three persons have been convicted, at Atlantic, Georgia, during the past three days, of violating the Internal Revenue laws, chiefly by illicit distilling.

—Rev. W. W. Randall a revival preacher at Waterville, Maine, was Wednesday arrested, on suspicion of counterfeiting, by the United States detectives. He was charged with uttering and passing $1 bills changed to $5s.

—An explosion took place Wednesday afternoon in a celluloid factory in Newark, about thirty men being in the building at the time. Three have been taken out by the firemen, one being dead and the other two fatally injured. Twelve or more are supposed to still be in the ruins without hope of rescue. The building was destroyed by the explosion and the wreck caught fire. Several adjoining buildings were also burnt, and the loss is estimated at $175,000.

—The election in New Jersey on the twenty-eight proposed amendments to the State Constitution took place Tuesday. On account of the school and other questions involved, the Catholics generally voted against the amendments. There was also considerable opposition to them in the eastern part of the State, on account of what is known as the Five County acts, taxing mortgages. There seems very little doubt, however, that the Amendments are adopted by a large majority, the vote being overwhelmingly in their favor in most parts of the state.

—The Indians in eastern Nevada and western Utah are all or nearly all on the war path. Many settlers and miners have been killed, and the women and children are being removed to places of safety. Troops and volunteers are going to the disturbed country, and infantry and cavalry have been ordered there from San Francisco and Benicia. The trouble is attributed to Mormon influences.

—A good definition of "consecrated ground" was recently given to Dean Stanley as he was visiting the grave of Wesley, behind the oldest Methodist chapel in London. He asked the old sexton, who stood by with uncovered head, whether this was consecrated ground. The sexton replied: "Yes." The Dean, who was seeking in the technical sense, further asked, "By whom?" meaning by what bishop. The sexton said: "It is consecrated by the dust of the servant of God, John Wesley."

—A telegram from Pottsville states that while two young men, names Young and Kirby, were driving near Lahighton's estate on Friday of last week, they were accosted by two special policemen. One of the young men, supposing they had fallen into the clutches of outlaws, fired at and wounded one policeman. The other policeman returned the fire and killed Young, whereupon Kirby fled to the woods and disappeared.

—The vote for Governor in California, as far as returned, stands: Irwin, Democrat, 43,003; Phelps, Republican, 28,030; Bidwell, Independent, 1858; Bryant, the Democratic Candidate for Mayor of San Francisco, is elected by a small majority. Although the Legislative returns are still incomplete, it is said the Democratic majority in the Legislature will be "overwhelming."

—At Huntington, W. V., Monday, at noon, three men entered the Bank while Ouey, the cashier, was alone, and compelled him to open the safe. A colored man who entered at this moment was kept quiet by the pointing of a revolver, while the robbers took $15,000 from the safe. A confederate had horses in waiting, and all escaped with their plunder.

—An excursion and basket picnic, in aid of the Ladies' Aid Society, of St. Luke's Hospital, South Bethlehem, will take place on Thursday, Sept. 16th, from all points on the Lehigh Valley R. R. Fare, round trip, from Lehighton, Weissport and Parryville, $2.40.
