

Society Meetings.

INFANTO CASTLE, No. 74, A. O. U. M. C. ... LEHIGH HOOK & LADDER CO., meets Monday evening, Sept. 21st, at 7:30 o'clock.

Advertising Rates.

We desire it to be distinctly understood that no advertisements will be inserted in the columns of THE CARBON ADVOCATE that may be received from unknown parties or firms, unless accompanied with the cash.

E. H. SIEWERS,

DISTRICT ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW. OFFICE, No. 2, Madison House, MAUCH CHUNK, PA.

The Carbon Advocate.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 14, 1878.

Local and Personal.

Parties receiving the ADVOCATE with a cross marked after their names will please remit the amount due for subscription, or the extra 50 cents will be added to pay the expenses of collection.

Leave your measure with Laury & Peters, if you would look nice.

The "fit" given at Laury & Peters, are unsurpassed by any other house in the county.

Mrs. S. E. Fatzinger is just receiving a splendid assortment of fall and winter millinery goods. Call and see them.

The fall suits being gotten up by Laury & Peters, are fashionable and neat, while the price is within the reach of all.

Extra copies of the CARBON ADVOCATE and all the Daily and Weekly papers can be obtained at Brady's Tobacco Store.

Watermelons, peaches and all the early fruits and vegetables received fresh from the city every day, at S. E. Fatzinger's, Bank Street, and selling very cheap for cash.

Boots and shoes, suitable for fall and winter wear, in great variety, and of the best manufacture, at the Bee Hive Store of Dan Graver. Call and examine goods before buying elsewhere.

When you go to Allentown, remember that you can buy dry goods cheaper at Kramers' corner than at any other house in the Lehigh Valley. Stick a pin right here!

J. K. Rickett has still a few of those eligible lots in Ricketts town to dispose of. If you feel like securing a good home call and see him. He is also supplying flour, feed, lumber and coal at the lowest rates.

A RARE CHANCE.—We offer for sale one of Edward Plotts' Star Parlor Organs, fresh from his factory at Washington, N. J. This instrument is surpassed by none in the market. Call at this office.

T. D. Claus has been appointed agent for this section for the celebrated Butterick & Co's Garment Patterns for ladies and children, and has now a stock of the latest styles on hand. Ladies should call for catalogs.

For Ice Cream, ice cold fountain Soda Water, and choice Confections, you should not fail to call at C. M. Roth's, opposite Semmel's hardware store. Also fresh bread and cakes every day.

Now is a good time to secure cheap, durable, and well made clothing. T. D. Claus, the merchant tailor, is selling very low to make room for fall goods, and is offering his stock of elegant cloths, cassimeres, and vestings, at figures to suit the present rates of wages. Style and fit guaranteed in every case.

T. D. Claus, the merchant tailor, has just received his fall and winter stock of all kinds of suiting, comprising all the latest and best styles, and superior to anything ever before brought into this market. He invites his customers and the community in general to call and inspect his goods and learn his prices.

SOMEWHERE NICE.—A fine assortment of Twilled Silk, Bro. Green, and Black 10 or 12 Rib, Paragon Frame, Partridge Wood Stick, Ivory Handle Umbrellas, with name engraved. Remember, this is the only place in Carbon county to get a genuine, first class Umbrella.

C. B. RHOADS, Dealer in Umbrellas, Hats, Caps, &c., Market Square, Mauch Chunk.

A tremendous sacrifice in women's mens' and boys' boots, shoes, and gaiters of all styles and qualities, at T. D. Claus'. In order to close out present stock, he is now giving some of the best bargains in this line of goods ever before offered in this section. Call early, if you would secure a real bargain.

Head Quarters for Boots, Shoes and Rubbers.—Messrs. Laury & Peters are now receiving and offering for sale one of the largest and best selected stocks of mens' kip and calf boots, womens' and children's gaiters, shoes and rubbers ever brought into Lehighton, at prices which defy competition. Remember, if you want to buy cheap for cash, now is the time, and Laury & Peters' the place!

A long and bland Indian summer is predicted.

Lehigh Hook & Ladder Co., meets Monday evening, Sept. 21st, at 7:30 o'clock. —Godfrey Peter, of Mahoning, will please accept our thanks for a dish of very fine "Concord" grapes, raised upon his place.

We have as yet failed to observe any improvement in the condition of our pavements. The order of Council to Wm. Miller to the contrary. Why is this thither? —Ladies' dress goods, dry goods, groceries and provisions can be found in endless variety and at very low prices at Dan Graver's Bee Hive Store.

A trotting match will come off to-day (Saturday) at 2 o'clock, on the Fair Ground track, for a purse of $50. If the weather is favorable some fine sport may be expected. —Read the premium list of the Carbon county Industrial Society, printed on our first page, and then prepare something for exhibition.

Why don't our young men start a Literary Society? There is instruction and amusement combined in these institutions. Some one make a start! —Prof. John DeHass will exhibit his tableaux of Paradise Lost, at Catsaqua, for the benefit of the Band, on Friday and Saturday evenings next.

Query? Has the editor of the Suntington News found that five legged calf yet? —On Tuesday morning, Mrs. Kratzer, who resides at Lehigh Gap, while walking on the track of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, near the station at that place was struck by a passing train causing the fracture of the collar bone and severely cutting and bruising her about the head. Dr. Wilson was sent for who administered the proper remedies for the unfortunate woman.

Our old friend, Dan Rex, will go to New Jersey on Tuesday and return toward the end of the week, with a lot of "Shots"—Jersey whites, which he will sell low for the money only. —Jake Alner, of Franklin, had his right hand caught in a threshing machine, on Monday last, and very badly mashed. The fore-finger was amputated at the second joint, Dr. J. G. Zern performed the operation.

If you want a nice dish of New York Hay Oysters go to Brady's Centennial news, cigar and tobacco emporium, Bank Street. —The many friends of Rev. G. W. Townsend will be pleased to learn that he returned to Packerton on Tuesday of this week from Delaware, and that he is now able to perform his ministerial duties. No doubt he will be pleased to meet his people after his long absence.

When one makes a narrow escape, it is usual to say that he saved himself "by the skin of his teeth." In the most splendid of all compositions (see Book of Job, chapter xix, verse 20,) it is written: "My bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth." —The people of Slegfried's Bridge are loud in their calls for a watchman on the L. & S. R. R. at that point, in order to make the crossing of the track by vehicles more secure. Several serious accidents have already occurred, and the people ask the company to place a watchman at the crossing.

Rev. E. A. Bauer, of Hazleton, was in town on Tuesday morning. The rev. gentleman was on his way to Catsaqua to attend the conference of the Lutheran Ministerium of the Second District of East Penna. —Josh Billings says he will take the stage this winter; also, the railroad cars, when they run his way. "Our people will do nothing of the sort, while they can get handsome teams at low prices at David Ebbert's popular livery."

New potatoes are selling at 40 cts., a bushel at various points in the State. The supply of potatoes and corn never was so good as this year. —Some Allegheny county township auditors have been fined for neglecting to publish the annual statement of the financial condition of their township. A word to the wise is said to be sufficient.

The Car wheel Works of McKee, Fuller & Co., at Fernside, have resumed operations, though only for a short spell, there being but a few orders on hand. —A tramp attempted to abduct two children from Bowers' station, on the Eastern Pennsylvania Railroad, on Monday week.—They were between 3 and 4 years of age, and the man succeeded in coaxing them a mile away from their homes, when, fortunately, the neighbors got wind of the affair and succeeded in recapturing the little ones.

At the sale of the real estate of the late Jacob Singmaster, at Stroudsburg, at several days since, the homestead of the said deceased, which is said to be one of the finest private residences in North-eastern Pennsylvania, and to have cost no less than $125,000, was sold to Samuel Singmaster, of Iowa, a brother of the deceased, for $25,000.

The final survey for the Lehigh and Eastern Railroad, which is to extend from Hazleton, Pa., to a connection with the Erie Railway one mile east of Port Jervis, has just been completed. The proposed road will cross the Pocono Mountain west of Stroudsburg, thence pass up the Delaware Valley on the Pennsylvania side to Carpenter's Point, near where the connection is to be made. The road will be ninety-eight and a half miles in length, and is intended chiefly for coal transportation. The work of grading will be begun at once.

On Sunday, Sept. 15th, 1878, Rev. L. B. Brown, pastor of Parryville M. E. Church, preached in the Maria Furnace Church, from Isaiah 53-1 and 2. His theme was "Sanctification or Christian Holiness." It was one of the most eloquent sermons we have heard for a long time. The rev. gentleman was listened to from the beginning to the closing of the sermon with the greatest attention. The meeting was one long to be remembered by those that were present. The subject is one which should be preached more frequently than it is at this day in the churches which profess to follow Christ.

Mrs. Fath announces to the ladies of Lehighton and vicinity that she is now opening an immense stock of fall and winter millinery goods, and invites an inspection thereof. Store two doors below the M. E. Church.

Terrible Conflagration!

Jos. Obert's Smoking and Packing Establishment in Ashes!

About 2 o'clock on Wednesday morning, the people of Lehighton were aroused from their slumbers by the shrill and fearful cry of "Fire!" Donning our clothing we hastened to the scene and found it to be the extensive meat curing and packing establishment of Mr. Jos. Obert, situated between Bank and Second Streets, in this borough. It originated in the smoke house, but from what cause is unknown, and was first discovered by Mr. John Obert. The alarm was given, and Lehigh Hook & Ladder Co., with their apparatus, was promptly on the scene, and threatened the destruction of the residence of W. M. Rapsler, Esq., for a time was in imminent danger; so much so that he removed all of his household goods, there by sustaining some loss, but by the earnest co-operation of firemen and citizens, the building was saved. Dr. N. B. Reber doing good service with his garden hose in saving this property. The barn on the rear end of this lot, owned by Hon. A. J. Durling, was torn out and leveled to the ground in order to save the properties lying between the alley and South Street. The barn of C. E. Greenwald, on the rear alley was saved with much difficulty, while the members of Lehigh Hook & Ladder Co., assisted by a large number of citizens with their "Little Giant" Extinguisher, succeeded in confining the flames to the offices, beating them back time and again in their progress for the residence of Mr. Obert on Bank Street. Finally subduing the flames at about 8 o'clock.

Mr. Obert's loss is estimated at about $20,000 to $25,000; there is an insurance of $30,500 on the entire Bank Street property, including buildings, machinery, stock furniture, &c., distributed among the following companies: Northampton Mutual, Pottsville Mutual, Niagara German Pennsylvania, N. Schuykill, Saucun, Royal Liverpool, Lehigh Valley Mutual, Allen Mutual, Lycoming Mutual. Mr. Durling's loss, in the destruction of his barn, is estimated at $350. No insurance. The loss of the residents of the neighborhood by broken fences, and the destruction of their gardens is quite considerable.

The thanks of the people of Lehighton are due the fire department of Mauch Chunk for the promptness with which they got their apparatus in readiness to come to our assistance on the occasion; while the indefatigable exertions of the members of Lehigh Hook & Ladder Co. elicited the highest meed of praise from our citizens. This was the largest fire that ever visited our borough, and has fully demonstrated the necessity of a well organized fire department and the introduction of water into the town.

Inclined to Cannibalism. A man named Levi Strohl, residing on Second and Coal Streets, was arrested on warrant issued by Esq. T. S. Beck, at the instance of his wife, charged with abuse and general misconduct. The warrant was placed in the hands of Jos. S. Webb, constable, who on Tuesday morning last proceeded to make the arrest, when the cannibal in Strohl's composition exhibited itself. Being informed by the constable what he had come for, the brute immediately made an attempt to attack his sister-in-law, when Webb sprang for him, and caught him around the arms and body dragging him from the house to the street, where the prisoner released himself from the grasp of the constable, and gathering up a large stone, dared him to come on again. Joe's dander was up, and he "went for him," again getting hold of him, when the prisoner struck him on the arm near the shoulder. The constable then called upon the bystanders for assistance, and Fred. Meyers, August Fresh, and David Ackerman responded. Meyers and Fresh both getting a bite from the fangs of the cannibal. Finally they succeeded in leading him into the Esq.'s office, when he was committed in default of $400 on the warrant of his wife and $600 for the assault on the constable. On taking him to the depot to proceed to Mauch Chunk, the brute again exhibited his stubborn canine qualities by renewing his attack upon the officers, but received considerable punishment at their hands and was finally placed in the caboose of the freight and conducted to Hotel de Breneiser, where he will sojourn and meditate until October Sessions, then and there to be dealt with as his conduct deserves.

MAUCH CHUNK WHISPERS. —Plenty of tramps in town. —Plenty of work for the lawyers just now. —The topics about town now are the murder and the Military Company. —Evening parties are in vogue, in and about our town. —The politicians are busily engaged just now. —The mornings and evenings are extremely cold in and about town. —For good shoes and boots, and also cheap, call at Mr. Alfred Van Horn's. —Col. J. D. Bertolett's brother, from Reading, has been in town. —Rev. P. J. McEnroe, of Tamaqua, was in town on Monday last and looked well. —Mayor Stokley and the City Council of Phila., were in town last week. —Some 700 men are employed at present at the Packerton shops. —An extra police force has been put on to guard our town during the night. —Mr. Jacob Miller was presented on Monday evening last, with a "new patent shaver."

Our fire department were all on the move for Lehighton, when the dispatch was received that the fire was about out. —The dispossession of Mr. Farren, at Packerton, is commented upon very much in our town. —The parents of the prisoners, Doyle and Kelley were here to see them on Wednesday last. —On Tuesday last, John Brelsford's horse took fright and ran away, completely demolishing the wagon. No-body hurt. —Esquire Yeager, has been the loser of some $600, worth of "horse flesh" within the last year and a half. We heartily sympathize with the "Squire."

John Whelan, well known in this place, died at Jersey City last week of consumption, aged some 33 years. —Whispers, visited the jail last week, and the prisoners all say, that they are well cared for by Sheriff Breneiser. —Within the last week or so we came nearly having several fires, probably the work of some incendiaries, or caused through carelessness. —The "boys and girls" have a "shindig" at the weight lock, every evening, so it is said. —Coal picked from the dirt bank at the old tunnel, can be had from Superintendant William Glace, for the sum of 75 cents a load. —The circus, with its train of negroes passed through here on Monday morning last, and presented a very delapidated appearance. The performance was pretty fair. —Rev. O'Neill, preached a very able sermon on Sunday last, to the Presbyterian congregation. Mr. O'Neill was a resident of this place some 20 years ago and worked at shoema king.

On Monday evening last, several of our citizens could be seen on the street with revolvers in hand, in search of some burglars who put in their appearance during the day. —A Military Company is being organized in this borough. There are at present some 45 names signed to the petition. The first meeting was held last Tuesday evening at which temporary officers were installed. Some $200 were collected for the company so far. —Several boatmen were arrested on last Tuesday and brought before Esq. Laurish, on the charge of an aggravated assault and battery, and in default of bail, were "sent up" to await their trial. —One of the patented fire plugs, manufactured by Albright & Stroh, was put in place of an old one, and tested by our fire department on Monday evening last. It works well. —On Saturday evening last, in the neighborhood of 11 o'clock, smoke was seen to arise from the basement of C. B. Rhoad's Hall, a diligent search was at once made for the fire and was found to arise from the coal bin used by Mr. John Yeakle, some kindling wood was stowed away in the bin for use and it appears that the match was applied by some unknown party. The fire was detected just in time to save the building.

Governor Hartranft stopped here on Tuesday night last, on his way to Wilkesbarre to view the State Militia at that place. His staff accompanied him. Quite a number of our citizens in company with the Phoenix Band, had gathered about the depot to receive him, and after a "hearty shake of the hand," he took the No. 2 train (4 p. m.) bound for Wilkesbarre, amid the cheering of the people. —The young men at St. Joseph's (R. C.) Church, of East Mauch Chunk, have formed themselves into a Dramatic Association, and intend to give a public exhibition of the play of "William Tell," on Thursday, the last day of this month. The characters of this excellent play are to be assumed by intelligent young men of that church, and will no doubt, be finely executed. We hope they will have a large audience to witness their talent and exposition of the play. —On Friday morning last, Terrance Conlan, a laborer, on the Sandy Run branch, at or near White Haven, attempted to end his days by cutting his throat, he was brought to Dr. DeYoung's office at this place, and had the lacerated flesh and skin sewen up, and then sent to the Hospital, at the Poor House. It appeared that Terrance had the delirium tremens, and whilst in that state, imagined that he was going to be murdered by some other men, and to save them the trouble he deemed it advisable to take his own life. The wound was some three inches in length, and almost severed the throat. —Quite a sensation was caused on Monday night last. It appears that the Sheriff had levied on two horses, supposed to be the property of Daniel Marx, and was to offer them for sale on the 16th, (Thursday), when in fact they were the property of W. Marx, son of Daniel, who came here from Pittston and took the horses from the stable at the Broadway House, where the horses were kept until the sale would take place, and started for Schuylkill Co. The hostler, seeing the horses were gone, soon made the fact known, and in half an hour the Sheriff with a posse were in pursuit of him. They captured Marx and the horses at Bull Run, Schuylkill Co., and brought them back to Mauch Chunk to await a decision in the matter.

The Tailor Boy's Dream. BY MARCUITO. In slumbers of mid-day the tailor boy lay. For the shop was warm and the boss away. He had no more to do but to rest, and in sweet dreams far away he soared. Thus he slept and slept and dreamed away— The remembrance hours of the fast fading day. He needed not the flies upon his nose, Nor even the mouse nibbling at his toes. He dreamed, during his peaceful slumber— He was a King with subjects without number. He was to be sent and loudly hailed, and all Hundreds of servants at beck and call. But dreams must end, for soon the crack— Of the boss' whip was felt upon his back. "This is the way you work," the tailor said, And then the tailor boy wished he was dead.

Fell from a Truck. A man named John Wallace, residing in the neighborhood of Parryville, was returning home on one of the trucks from Packerton, on Friday evening of last week, and by some unfortunate accident, fell from the front; the truck passing over his body, cutting him on the head, back and legs severely. He was taken to the Valley House, and on the following day removed to his home. At last account he was in a fair way of recovery.

The Coal Trade. The anthracite coal production continues steadily to increase and is now very heavy. The tonnage for the week ending on the 4th instant was some thirty thousand tons in excess of that of the week ending on the 25th ultimo, and about one hundred and thirty eight thousand tons in excess of the tonnage in corresponding week last year. The advance in the price of coal for September is some fifteen cents per ton higher than in August. What it may be in October is not now known, but the public is assured that it will be some advance.—Phila. Ledger, Sept. 12th.

The following table shows the quantity of coal shipped over the Lehigh Valley Railroad for the week ending Sept. 11th, 1878, and for the year a comparison with the same time last year.

Table with 3 columns: Regions, Week, Year. Rows include Wyoming, Hazleton, Upper Lehigh, Beaver Meadow, Mahanoy, Blue Bank, North from Easton, Total, Last year, Increase, Decrease.

Don't Scare Worth a Cent. Our old friend, Wm. Simmers, at present "Ye Local" of the Summit Hill Intelligencer, gracefully acknowledges the receipt of the following missive: "Let your mouth rest, and let us hear no more talk from you if you want to be a long liver, or your trunk and go to sea and your Yous. A FRENCHMAN."

It is evident to us that William don't intend to follow "A Frenchman's" advice "to go west," but that he will remain where he is and do just as he has done heretofore—give true and correct accounts of all that comes within his knowledge. Read what he says: Now so far as getting west is concerned, we would willingly comply with Frenchman's request, were it not that, at present we find ourselves rather too scantily supplied with steam to warrant the undertaking. Besides we are of opinion that our continuance here is demanded by the exigencies of the time. Scarcely as we feel, that we cannot accommodate a Frenchman by following his suggestion at once, we promise him to quit these charges as soon as we shall be convinced, by a withdrawal of their patronage, that our presence is no longer desired by them. Until then we consider ourselves in duty bound to "stick," though, by doing so, we should run the risk of our carcass. Don't give your Frenchman any more of your "long live" and "your Yous," and go to sea and your Yous. The thing hinted at is, at the worst, but a game of two can play at a game which, once fairly begun, no one could foresee the end of. Intimidation will not take with us; we shall continue to gather and publish the truth, regardless of doing so at our own accounts and our disreputation.

While we consider ourselves at all times responsible for all we say here to say, we must deny unto others the right to censure, muzzle us, or to dictate to us what to say, and how to say it. A man, or party of men, moved by honorable principles, never have cause to dread criticism. It is only the scum of society, men of evil designs, that dread the light of day and eye of scrutiny, or fear the word of criticism. And of those who ever you be—you are one. Not only do we take you to be a dishonestly coward of the meanest type, devoid of all manhood—a sneaking, crawling, miserable wretch, and scoundrel, but we know that there is a time for everything. "A time to keep silent and a time to speak," but what we consider ourselves responsible for we may publish, we state, and of right, claim the use of discretionary power. In short, we fear you not!

Serious Accident. Rev. W. B. Wood, Presiding Elder of the Lehigh District of the M. E. Church, met with an accident on Monday. He was engaged in one of his regular Quarterly Meeting trips, including New Hope, Labaska and Doylestown charge, Bucks county. Having finished by preaching at Doylestown on Sabbath evening, he left that place on Monday morning for New Hope, in a private conveyance, driven by Mr. Lovett, of Doylestown, one of the official members of the church. The account published by the Eastern Free Press says that when about six miles from Doylestown, near Labaska, the horse got the line under his tail and became entirely unmanageable, jumping, kicking and plunging at a fearful rate. The carriage was run upon a steep bank at the side of the road, upset, and dragged some distance, torn apart and crushed in a complete wreck. Mr. Lovett was dashed headforemost into a pile of stones, and received several severe cuts on the face, and had his arm hurt badly. Rev. Mr. Wood, who had nearly escaped from the carriage by the hind curtain, received a number of cuts, bruises, and sprains, as the carriage upset with and dragged him on the road before he succeeded in extricating himself. His left hand and side, right leg, shoulder and back were much bruised, sprained and lacerated, the severest injury being in the back and left side. Dr. Martin, who examined them, thinks, however, that there is no serious injury, and Mr. Wood may be expected to be about again in a few days. It was certainly a narrow escape. His coat, vest, pantaloon and underclothing were torn into shreds in many places, and it is wonderful how he escaped death or broken limbs.

Anti-Monopoly Party Platform.

MAUCH CHUNK, Sept. 11, 1878. In response to a call of the Secretary of the Carbon County Reform Committee, to meet at the Broadway House, in Mauch Chunk, on Saturday, Sept. 11, 1878, the following boroughs and townships were represented—Banka, East Mauch Chunk, Mauch Chunk, Lehighton, Mahoning, Nesquehoning, Summit Hill and Weatherly. The first business in order was the election of a Chairman. On motion, E. T. McDonough was elected permanent Chairman.

On motion of Hugh McFarvey, the Chair appointed a committee of three to draw up a series of resolutions putting forth to the independent voters of Carbon County the fundamental principles of the Labor Reform or rather Anti-Monopoly party of said county. The committee reported the following: Whereas, The committee of the Anti-Monopoly Movement and Labor Reform Party of Carbon County, believe the intentions of monopoly and limited corporation laws to be unchristian and oppressive, we, the said committee, do offer the following resolutions to the working people and voters of Carbon:

Resolved, We appeal to you as workmen and voters, it matters not what has been your political faith heretofore, that you will now, in this hour of trial, by aside all party bias and prejudice that has separated you and us in the past, and now for the future work and vote for the social and political welfare of the working people as a whole, without respect to previous political parties, creed or nationality. We do not ask you to abandon your party, but the respect or ties that bind you to your old parties, which in the past have failed us, as far as the welfare of the working people of this county is concerned—we ask of you, in the name of the only true and fearless party in this county, the Anti-Monopoly Party, to further the principles and welfare of yourselves and fellow workmen of Carbon.

Resolved, We call upon you workmen of Carbon County Democrats to be true to the principles of your parties in each election district and see that no delegates to your respective conventions are elected who are in favor of reform and opposed to rigid nominations, for should the rings of Mauch Chunk control your respective conventions they will nominate as candidates by the working people of Carbon County.

Resolved, That we call upon you to nominate such men as the Anti-Monopoly convention called by this committee—may take up as their candidates. Furthermore, we tell you in plain talk, that we will endorse none but the friends of reform that we find in your ranks, be they Democrat or Republican. Should we find none of the candidates of the other parties to be satisfactory to the Anti-Monopoly Movement, we will hold one of our own Monopoly convention—which will be held one week after the last convention of the other two parties—we will nominate such men as our candidates, whose principles are in harmony with those of the Anti-Monopoly platform.

THOMAS MUMFORD, Chairman. THOMAS SEICHAUER, Secretary. The foregoing resolutions were endorsed by the Standing Committee of the Labor Reform Party of Carbon County. W. T. McDONOUGH, Chairman. JOHN DEVLIN, Secretary.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia is the most perplexing of all human ailments. Its symptoms are almost infinite in variety, and the form and disposition of the disease often favor themselves the prey, in turn, of every known malady. This is due, in part, to the close proximity of the stomach to the brain, and in part also to the fact that any disturbance of the digestive function necessarily affects the entire system, and the nervous system, and effects, to some extent, the quality of the blood. E. K. Ankler's Little White Pills, most efficacious cure. This is not a new preparation, to be tried and found wanting; it has been prescribed daily for many years in the practice of eminent physicians with unvarying success. It is not intended or intended to cure all the diseases to which the human family is subject, but is warranted to cure Dyspepsia in all its most obstinate form. Ankler's Little White Pills never fails to cure. Symptoms of Dyspepsia are loss of appetite, wind and rumbling of the bowels, nervousness, heartburn, distension of the stomach and bowels, constipation, headache, dizziness, sleeplessness and low spirits. Try them freely and be convinced of its merits. Get the genuine. Take only Ankler's, which is put up only in 1/2 oz. bottles. Depot, 22 North Third St., Philadelphia, Pa.
