Piremen's Parade and County Pair

The great events of the past week have been the grand parade of Lenigh Hook and Lander Company and the holding of the first annual exhibition of the Carbon County Industrial Society. The latter commenced on Taesday morning and continued until Friday evening. Taken as a whole this has been the best exhi bition over held in the county. The entries in the various departments numbered about 700, and the standard of the erticles entered was The only complaint we heard was of the vast number of gamblers allowed in and about the grounds. This, we trost, will be prevented by the management next year. Financially,

The firmen's parade on Thursday, was the largest and finest demonstration of the kind that ever occurred to this country, so pronounced by the thousands who witnessed it. At an early hour in the morning the members of Le-high Hook and Ladder Company were on the streets, decked in their picture-ague uniforms, completing their arrangements for the reception of the various companies invited to participate on the occasion. At about 7 o'clock 4 M., the company left their truck house and proceeded to the L. and S. depot, where they received the Pennsylvania Cornet Band and Perseverance Steam Fire Co., of Tamaqua, the Marion Steam Fire Co., Phoenix Band and Hose Co., and Rescue Hook and Ladder Co., with their apparatus, of Mauch Chunk, and the Fort Allen Cornet Band of Weissport, and conducted them to the corner of Northampton and Iron streets, where the line was formed in the following order

Marshal and Aids. Marshai and Alds.
Ploneers.
Prosidents of the Companies.

The Republican County Convention assembled in the Court House, Mauch Chunk, on Monday morning last, at 11:15 o'clock, and was called to order by Sheriff O. Breneiser, Chairman of the County Committee. The convention then organized by the appointment of Mr. Wm. Lilly as temporary chairman, who, upon taking his seat, made a brief speech, in which he emphatically denied the rumor that a ticket had already been formed by the "ring," and trusted that only such men would be placed in nomination for the various offices as could claim the confidence and support of the people. He glaimed Ohio for the Republicans by from 20,-000 to 50,600 majority, and bad no doubt but that Pennsylvania would do better for Gov. Here Fred, Bertolette read a letter from Mr. Edgar Twining, wherein he proposed to withdraw his name from before the convention, if any candidate having greater claims should be presented. Mr. H. C. Levanway followed with quite a lengthy speech, highly eulogistic of Mr. Twining as a gentleman highly fitted for the position. Capt. Minpleh, of Summit Hill, followed, opposing the nomination of Mr. Twining, on the ground that the Summit Hillers were opposed to him, and stated that if he (Mr. T.) was nominated that town would not give him 25 votes. Whereupon Mr. Levanway stated that he had been instructed to peremptorily withdraw the name of Mr. Twining from before the convention. Some little commotion was apparent among the delegates at this point, when a motion was made that a committee be appointed to go to Mr. Twining and confer with him upon the matter. The committee having waited upon Mr. Twining, returned to the convention and announced that that gentleman had consented to accept if nominated. The balloting was then proceeded with, Mr. E.
