—The forthcoming report of Treasurer New will show that the net revenues of the Government for the last fiscal year were $288,000,051, and the net expenditures for the same period $274,623,392.

—The official returns of the election in Ohio shows that Hayes received 321,813 votes, and Allen 292,264; majority for Hayes, 5549. For Lieutenant Governor, Young, Republican, received 297,931 votes, and Carry, Democrat, 287,908; majority for Young, 9,934. The majorities for the other candidates on the Republican State ticket ranged from 3930 to 4833. The Prohibition candidate for Governor received 2591 votes, and for Lieutenant Governor 3630.

—Advices from Washington state that there is the best authority for the statement that the reports relative to a change of policy on the part of our Government on the Cuban question are in the main correct. The subject is now engaging the earnest attention of both the Government of the United States and that of Spain, and, it is stated, that in his forthcoming annual message to Congress, the President will recommend that the independence of the Cubans be recognized.

Our late employer and most esteemed friend, J. S. Sanders, Esq., editor and proprietor of the Hazleton Sentinel, speaking of the Gazette's uncalled for attack upon us last week, puts the matter thusly:

"The Coal Gazette asks whether Harry Morthimer, of the Carbon Advocate, can be called a representative of the working classes? We say yes, emphatically. A newspaper man who writes his own editorials, sets his own type, prints his own paper, and attends to his business generally as Harry does, and as most country newspaper publishers are compelled to do, is above all others a fair representative of the working classes. What else would you call him?

—The Journal of Commerce from official figures which it has obtained from Washington, finds that the net income of the United States Government for the fiscal year ending June 29, 1875, was about two hundred and seventy-three millions, and the net expenses (each being reckoned outside of the principal of the public debt) about two hundred and seventy-four and a half millions, thus showing a very slight deficiency for the year. This takes no account of the thirty-millions which ought to have been provided for the sinking fund.

—It is understood that among the prominent features of the forthcoming report of the Treasurer of the United States the following recommendations, affecting the redemption of national bank notes, will be made:

First—That the National Bank Redemption Agency be made a separate bureau in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury, under the charge of a superintendent, who shall give bond for the faithful discharge of the duties.

Second—That the five per cent. redemption fund shall be kept in the Treasury, but subject to the checks of the Superintendent, and that they be payable in currency or drafts on New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, and other sub Treasuries.

Third—That banks or others sending national bank notes for redemption, be required to pay the express charges to Washington, and that for all other expenses of this agency national banks shall be allowed to deduct from their next semi-annual return of tax upon circulation, the amount of an assessment that may be made, as also in their next return the amount of assessment heretofore made.

—Senator Wm. W. Eaton, by invitation of the citizens of all political parties, delivered an address on "Finance" in Allyn Hall, Hartford, Conn., on Monday night, to a large meeting. John L. Bunce, Esq., President of the Phœnix Bank, presided, and the list of officers comprised the most prominent business men of all parties in the city. Senator Eaton took a strong "hard-money" ground, arguing that inflation would be unwise, because

First—It would impair the financial credit of the Government and of the people.

Second—It would injure domestic industries, derange values and destroy confidence; and

Third—Because the volume of currency is already larger than the demand of legitimate business.

Mr. Eaton denounced Mr. Kelley's 3.65 scheme, and recommended that in order to resume specie payments, the Government must treasure up gold until it has sufficient to redeem.

—The committee appointed by the Pennsylvania House of Representatives to investigate the affairs of the State Treasury gave agreed upon a report, in which they say: That from 1864 to 1874 there appears to be a yearly overcharge on the interest account of the public debt, the different Treasurers taking credit for paying more interest than the State debt bore. The sum thus unlawfully taken from the State Treasury in the eleven years amounts to the sum of $1,123,301,05. The committee also find that from 1870 to 1874 there appears to have been an excess of premium charged in the purchase of gold to pay interest on gold-bearing bonds amounting in all to $121,427.95.

—Hon. H. M. Atkinson, Commissioner of Pensions, in his annual report says that the number of pensioners added to the rolls during the last fiscal year was 11,557, and the number dropped, by reason of death, reenlistment, remarriage, expiration of minors' pensions, or the discovery of fraud was 12,977, making a net decrease of 1,420. The number of pensions increased was 15,56'. The total number of pensioners borne on the rolls on June 30, 1875, was 234,821.

Thirteen widows of Revolutionary soldiers who were married prior to the year 1800, and 365 married subsequent to that date, are still borne on the rolls. In 1871 the average rate of pension paid to the army invalied pensioners annually was $89,18; in 1872, $90,26; in 1873, $96,46; in 1874, $98,14; and in 1875, $103,91, or $8,65 per month. The rates vary from $1 to $50 per month.

The total disbursements of the Pension Bureau during the last fiscal year were $29,683,113.63, leaving a balance from the appropriations of $871,883.31, which has been covered into the Treasury. The appropriations for the current fiscal year were: For army pensions, $29,500,000, and for navy pensions, $500,000. The Commissioner is of opinion that unless there is some further liberalizing legislation by Congress, an appropriation of $29,000,000 will be sufficient for payment of pensions for the next fiscal year.

—The annual report of Treasurer New shows that the following unavailable items should be deducted from the statement of cash balance of the Treasury: Due from First National Bank of Washington, D. C. (failed), $100,000 Union and Central Pacific bonds as security; amount stolen from the Treasury June 3, 1875, no part of which had been recovered at the close of the fiscal year, $47,097.65. Deficit in United States depositories as follows: Pittsburgh, in 1867, $2,126.11; Santa Fee, N. M., in 1866 and 1867, $7,448.27; Baltimore, in 1870, $1,196.87. Deficit in Sub-Treasuries as follows: New York, in 1867, $87,206.70; New Orleans, in 1867, $5,566.31; Philadelphia, in 1875, $872.50; with $765,966 39, special item of deficit in the bullion fund of the branch mint at San Francisco, Cal., which occurred in various ways and at various times between the years of 1857 and 1869, and prior to the appointment of the present Superintendent, amounting to $419,243.84, which is included in the amount of the balance as shown by the books of the United States Treasurer. It seems, therefore, that there should be deducted from the cash balance as reported in the monthly debt statement of July 1, 1875, the total sum of $765,966.39. The Treasurer says three years will probably elapse before a final settlement of Gen Spinner's accounts can be made, as many of them are outstanding, and as the Auditors and Comptrollers cannot pass upon them before that time.

The amount of United States currency outstanding at the close of July 1, 1875, was $418,456,756. The total amount of United States bonds retired to July 1, 1875, both coupon and registered, is as follows: Purchased $324,350,300; converted $77,954,600; redeemed $392,572,500. Total $794,877,400. The bonds purchased cost in currency $364,276,614. The interest paid in the fiscal year on coin coupons was $36,696,936. The total force in the Treasurer's office consists of 396 persons, their salaries aggregating $414,282.

Current Events.

—While a party of women and children, gathering autumn leaves, were riding in an open wagon near Reading, Monday, the horse ran away, and ten of them were injured, several seriously.

—The Conewaga paper mills a few miles from Gettysburg, were destroyed by an incendiary fire on Saturday night. Loss, $30,000.

—A telegram from Milfort reports that a disease resembling the epizooty is killing off the cattle in several counties on the Pennsylvania side of the Upper Delaware.

—The total of failures in this country and in Canada for the three quarters of the year 1875 foot up 6913, covering a total of liabilities to the amount of $121,184,067.

—The revival services of Messrs. Moody and Sankey were begun in the Rink, in Brooklyn, Sunday. Ten thousand persons were present at the morning services, among those present on the platform being Rev. Drs. Cuyler, Dwyee and Prime. In the afternoon the Rink was again filled, and it is estimated that at least five thousand persons were unable to gain admittance.

An incendiary fire at Mahanoy Plane in Schuylkill county, at two o'clock Sunday morning, destroyed eight stores, including Kirlin's drug store, which contained the telegraph and post office. The loss is about $30,01. The mail matter and telegraph instruments were saved. A number of other articles were stolen during the fire, and one of the thieves was arrested. There is no clue to the incendiaries.

—A terrible conflagration at Virginia City, Nevada, Tuesday, laid in ashes nearly the whole business portion of the town. Hotels, churches, newspaper and telegraph offices and county buildings, main dwellings and stores were destroyed, and it is estimated that ten thousand people were made homeless. The total loss is estimated at about $7,000,000.

—Michael Ryan accidentally shot himself dead near Washington, on Monday, while running for rabbits.

—The Nesmith Iron Works in Montreal suspended Tuesday. The liabilities are large. The Morris Run Coal Company of Pennsylvania have filed a claim against the Company for over $350,000.

—Near Logansport Ind., a boy named George Harris, while gathering beech nuts, fell from a tree, and, his head striking a snag, he was impaled upon it. A leg and an arm was broken by the fall. He died in a few hours.

—The Valley cotton mill, in Stafford, Conn., was burned on Monday night. Loss $25,000; partially insured.

—The New Jersey Central Railroad has reduced its employees, salaries ten per cent.
