A Springfield girl has been fooled by a Bavarian nobleman. He brought her to New York, as the Union says, married her, and then ran away with her baggage.

What Idaho men don't know about whiskey generally is ut worth worry-ing over; but they are puzzled about "crooked whiskey," and want to sample a little of "that new kind."

A man in New Hampshire had the misfortune recently to lose his wife, Over the grave he caused a stone to be placed, on which, if the depth of his grief, he had ordered to be inscribed : Tears cannot restore her-therefore I weep."

Hon. W. A. Riebardson die ! Quincy, Ill., Monday morning, aged 64, He served five terms as a Representa-tive in Congress from Illinois, and was choser U. S. Senator, in 1860, for the unexpired term of Stephen A. Doug-

Mary Fister, aged seventy-four years, died suddenly at Pottsville on Mouday. Her death, it is believed, resulted from eating an apple or orange, a purtlen of which is supposed to have lodged in her throat.

A business bouse in Columbia has conspicuously displayed in its thow window a man's skuil, and printed in large letters across the forehead are these words of warning to the daily swarm of traveling salesmen : " This man was a bummer,"

The Louisville Courier Journal says that a poetical New Yorker, learning that the late M. F. Willis named his residence "Gien Mary," after his wife, concluded that that was just about the thing to do, and so he calls his bouse "Gien Matilda Jane."

The Rev. Mr. Mitchell preached a forcible sermon, in the Mathodist Church at Aneram, N. Y., about hypo-crites. Brother Porter believed that he was alluded to, and replied from the pew that the pastor was a liar. The service ended in disorder.

Bret Harte went to visit a relative in a suburb of Troy, N. Y., while the family was absent. He was muddy, and a servant adstaking him for a tramp, reluctantly admitted him to the kitchen, and left a coachman to watch him until her mistress came,

A Chinaman at Truckoo, California, being detected the other day in an at-tempt to steal a piece of rubber hose, was kicked around the entire block ' by the irate owner, and after he had thoroughly exhausted himself and worn out the seat of the Celestial's pantaloons, John calmiy propounded the following question : "You no likes lendum ?"

Revivalist Hammoud illustrates an argument with a horse-shoe magnet and neils of various sizes, from a tack to a railroad spike. He likens the magnet to Jesus The tack typifies little children, and he shows how readily they cling to the magnet. A simple touch, too, attaches the shingle nail, which he likens to a youth. The larger nails are less and less affected, until the big spike- a tough old sinner of the most intractable kind-will not stir under the influences.

A book agent called on a farmer the other day, and was told that the tarmer was too busy to talk with him. "But," said the agent, "your farm work is all done. You have nothing to occupy your time?" "Yes 1 have, too," retorted the former; "I've got to plant my foot and ratie a book agent." And he did, He raised him about tour fret.

The officera who searched the baggage of the wife of Joyce, the whiskey frauds convict, expecting to discover Government bonds, found a small the box in a trunk ; "Ah ! here they are," said one ; and Mrs. Joyce's request that they would not open it confirmed the impression. It was eagerly opened,

An economical Japanese family can live on six cents a day at nome ; but to obtain the six cents is what causes the suffering.

In Japan a sun-shower is called "the Foxes' Wedding." In New England the natives my-teriously remark, "The devil is whipping his wife with a cod fish tail

Some men are always lucky. A hunter of Brainerd, Minn., while out in the woods recently, discharged his gun to clear out the barrel, and unknown to him a fine buck happened to be in range and was shot through the heart.

Many British manufacturers and other employers, have lately changed pay day from Saturday to Monday for the sake of the workmen, many of whom have been in the habit of squandering their wages in dissipation on Sunday. A similar change is talked of in New England

New Orleans is mystified by the sudden appearance of a young stranger who casually dropped into a billiard satoon the other day, said he'd try a game or two with the proprietor, "though he did'nt play much," and since that time has used up every good player that town can produce. H says he is "Mr. Drew. from Texas," He but that sounds apocryphal.

We had always supposed that behind the screens one sees strong across the back end of a dressmaking establishment, was where they keep the wood box and coal scuttle, and innocently enough we started to go behind one the other day, to spit. No, it was'nt a ghost, for ghosts don't yell so, or jump over a cord of boxes, and try to hide behind a spool of thread, but there was enough of some-thing behind them to keep us in the front part of the shop after this.

The Concord. (N. H.) Monitor says: "C. W. Moore received an application for a policy on the life of a man in Lan-caster, a few days ago, which furnished the following remarkable record of longlivity on both sides of his ancestors; Grandparents-On father's side:Grandfather, 110 years; grandmother, 95 years. On mother's side; Grandfather, 100; grandmother, 98 years. His mother is living, aged 105 years, and the father died at 103 years. He has eight brothers and sisters living, of the following ages: 70, 68, 66, 64, 62, 60, 58, and 45 years respectively. Five shildren died in infancy."
