-We had a fall of snow here on Saturday morning last which measured five inches. The weather, however shortly turned to rain, and so continued all day, rising the water in the various creeks considerably. -The schools at this place will shortly close, after a term of five months.

-A number of the residents of this place are now working at the Packerton Shops -It is earnestly hoped that this may be the last of winter, as our farmer are very anxious to commence work on their lands.

—On Wednesday evening of last week, Lewellan Markley and — Larose, of this place, made a bet with John Deppe and R. Serfass, of the same place, that they could go to Beltzville and return on foot, a distance of seven miles, in one hour and five miutes. If they made it Deppe and Serfass were to pay them $1 each and the price of the whiskey; if they failed, then Markley and Larose paid for the whiskey. Mr. Markley succeeded in making the distance in 1 hour and 4 1 2 minutes, but Larose played out when near Ed. Sensinger's. Markley feels very proud of his success. MODOC. March 27.

For Cash after April 1st.

By reference to the advertisement of T. D. Clauss, the merchant tailor, of this town, it will be seen that he is now receiving his usual stock of spring and summer styles of cloths, cassimeres and vestings, and that he has resolved after April 1st to do business on a strictly eash principle, and for that reason has made a reduction in his prices, so that he will be able to offer to his customers clothing, hats, caps, boots, shoes, and gent's furnishing goods at prices fully as low as the same quality of goods can be porchased in the cities. He trusts that the adoption of the cash system will meet with the approbation of his customers, as he feels confident that under this system he can furnish them with any article in his line far more satisfactorily than he could furnish under the "played out" credit system. He respectfully Invites an inspection of his stock and a comparison of prices.

Hofford in his usual distinct and impartial manner. The prizes were five dollars and two and a half dollars. Mrs. Kessler, of Lehighton, received the first prize and Mr. S. R. Gilham the second. As the proceeds of the entertainment were intended to further the interests of the cducational department of the Centennial, the reiplents of the prizes donated them to the same cause. After the spelling the Superintendent delivered a short address; after complimenting the spel-lers for their advancement in the art of combining letters he spoke of the importance and advantage of education. The exercises were closed by music, well rendered by the happy voices of the spellers. All present returned to their homes highly gratified with the entertainment.

Among the contestants for the prizes we noticed the following:

Mrs. C. Kessler, S. R. Gilham, J. N. Derr, Jennie Weiss, Miss Musbaum, Empla Mertz, Epima O'Brian, Miss Smith, John Zern C S. Weiss, Clara Leopold, Milton Walk.
