

LEHIGHTON, PA. SATURDAY MORNING APRIL 15, 1876.

Both Houses of the State Legislature Wednesday adopted a joint resolution to adjourn finally on the 5th of May.

An abstract of the returns of the militia force of the United States, as received at the Adjutant General's office, in Washington, shows an aggregate of 99,865 men.

Death of Alexander T. Stewart. Mr. Alexander T. Stewart, died at his residence in New York on Monday, April 10, in the 74th year of his age.

Alexander T. Stewart was born in Belfast, Ireland, October 27, 1802. He was the son of James T. Stewart, a Scotchman, who came to America in 1788, and settled in New York.

Stewart was a man of great energy and business capacity. He was a member of the New York State Assembly, and later became a member of the United States House of Representatives.

Stewart's career was marked by several notable events, including his involvement in the Erie Canal project and his later years spent in Europe.

The New York Telegram says the best judges estimate the value of A. T. Stewart's estate at nearly $100,000,000.

1776. GRAND 1876. SPRING OPENING. The undersigned would respectfully announce to the Citizens of Lehighton and the surrounding country, that they have just returned from the City of New York and Philadelphia with a large, new and fresh stock of DRY GOODS, Groceries, Queensware, CARPETS Oil-Cloths, Wooden and Willow Ware, &c., And have opened their large store in SEMMEL'S NEW BUILDING, and hereby adopted a vastly new and more commodious plan, and have already attracted numerous crowds. See, we say, Headlines, and through a well-earned name have already attracted numerous crowds. See, we say, Cash Through. With One Price to All, We hope to serve the trading public with Goods at Prices to defy competition. THE ADVANTAGES ARE: 1. Saving of Time, Labor, Perfect Security, &c. 2. By enforcing "CASH PAYMENTS" the bad debts are avoided. 3. By putting plenty of ready money in hand, it enables us to buy goods at figure that credit men know nothing about. 4. By increase of sales, a smaller profit is sufficient. All of these "BY-WAYS" lead direct to "CHEAPNESS." On this new plan we begin Business on Saturday, April 1st, 1876. A general invitation is extended to all to inspect our Goods and Prices before purchasing elsewhere. COUNTRY PRODUCE received in exchange. J. T. NUSBAUM & SON. April 1, 1876-71.
