

Society Meetings.
—The children of this locality are now affected with the "mumps."
—Our public schools celebrated the 10th by a general holiday.
—On the Fourth of July coming Uncle Sam will surround himself with a blaze of glory.
—The advent of the seventeen year locusts is predicted this summer. They were here last in 1868.
—The Crane Iron Co. are now furnishing their No. 4 furnace repaired with a view of putting it in blast early in July.
—A large lot of Centennial baby carriages just received and for sale very cheap for cash at F. P. Semmler's Hardware Store, Lehighton, Pa.
—The CARBON ADVOCATE will be found in space No. 6523, of Rowell's Centennial Newspaper Exhibition.
—Mr. J. A. Montz, of Lloyd & Montz, of Wilkes-Barre, was in town Tuesday. He has entered into the looking glass and picture frame business.
—Heim & German have a fine stock of ladies and gents Centennial shoes, which they are selling at low prices.
—Centennial Guides and Jules Verne's "Mysterious Island," 1st and 2nd Nos., for sale at P. T. Brady's.
—Sunday, the 21st, is the day set for the dedication of the new Evangelical church.
—If you want a nice glove go to T. D. Claus's and select from his new and elegant stock of kid and Lisle thread gloves, just opened.
—The show of hunting in this borough on Wednesday last was unsurpassed by any town of its size in the country.
—Metuchen Tribe, No. 332, Imp. O. R. M., will meet in Reber's Hall, at 7:30 o'clock this (Saturday) evening.
—800 pieces of wall paper reduced from 12 1/2 cents to 11 cents per piece, which must be sold off at once in order to make room for new goods, also, make border at 15 cents per piece, at Lentz's drug store, Leuckel's building.
—Mr. Ezra Newhard is now selling family rights for the manufacture of his celebrated liniment. Parties wishing to secure it should apply to Mr. Newhard without delay.
—T. W. Flounders, next door to Claus's tailoring establishment, Bank Street, is a good place to get an elegant flavored cigar or the choicest brands of smoking and chewing tobaccos.
—On Tuesday last Mr. A. Bowman and Mr. Charles Kemmerer were elected school directors of the Packerton school district.
—Rex & Hom will receive another lot of those celebrated Jersey white shirts, about the middle of next week. Take your pocket books and make your own selection of pigs.
—A. J. Durling, druggist and apothecary, has just received a new and elegant assortment of perfumery, toilet articles and fresh and pure drugs and medicines, to which he invites the attention of our citizens.
—Frank Inkman, of the Centennial Saloon, Susquehanna street, March Chunk, requests us to state that he will have "Centennial Book Beer" on tap at 12 o'clock (noon) to-day (Saturday.) Spot it.
—T. D. Claus has just returned from the city with a beautiful stock of Centennial and other styles of neckties. Also, a full stock of gent's furnishing goods of the choicest quality. Call and see them.
—The Lehigh Valley Railroad Co. have taken off three of their through coal trains, owing to the market at Amboy being over-stocked. This action throws a number of men out of employment.
—Centennial and other beautiful designs in wall paper now on hand and constantly arriving at the old established drug store of A. J. Durling. Prices are as low as elsewhere. Call and see those beautiful patterns.
—The people of some of the neighboring towns are already making preparations for a grand celebration on July Fourth. What are our own people doing? Have the fires of patriotism in the hearts of our citizens been smothered? It looks that way. It would seem that the Centennial year, fraught with memories of the past and brilliant hopes for the future, should elicit some enthusiasm.
—Do you want an elegant suit of clothes? If so call at the merchant tailoring establishment of T. D. Claus, and examine his beautiful assortment of clothes, cassimeres and vestings, which he is now making up at prices far below any other house in the Valley, while the style of fit and workmanship is unsurpassed. Call and see his goods before you purchase elsewhere. There is no charge for showing goods. Also, a full line of ladies' and gentlemen's satchels.
—A smart Illinois girl who had been cruelly jilted, rose up in her wrath and recovered $5000 for breach of promise, and she had no sooner got this suit out of the way than she took some of the proceeds and went right to work on another—a handsome black silk made after the "Domestic Fashions."
—John Hughes, a son of Mr. J. Hughes, of Slatington, white at play the other day with several of his companions in a lot in the rear of Pfaff's wheelwright shop, in said place, accidentally fell from a cart and sustained an ugly fracture of his left arm, between the wrist and elbow.
—Another incendiary fire occurred in Catawago, on Tuesday night. About half-past twelve o'clock the lumber shed stored with lumber in Mr. Samuel Koehler's lumber yard was discovered to be in flames. Phoenix and South-wark fire companies promptly responded to the alarm, and soon had the fire under control, preventing its further spread. Loss, $3,000; no insurance.
—The iron horse has but one ear—the engineer; but all of David Elbert's horses have two ears and are noted for their kind qualities. If you want a ride call at his livery. Terous low.
