J. Durling's popular drug store, Bank Street, Lehigh.

Probably few of our readers are aware of the fact, that the burning of brush after dark is a penal offense in this State, and that a fine of $50 can be imposed upon persons doing it.

Samuel Marshall, son of Wm. Marshall, of Stratford, is at present nursing a broken arm, the result of a precipitation into the Washington Slate Quarry at that place by the giving way of the hoist rope, upon which, after having fastened the end to a stake, he had seated himself.

Rumor has it that the furnace at the East Penn Junction is to be put in blast at an early day. Iron has advanced somewhat in price, and as a result quite a number of the furnaces that have been lying idle are preparing to start up.

Decoration Day in this place passed off very quietly—no parade. The Jr. O. U. A. M. decorated their flag very handsomely and threw it to the breeze at an early hour in the morning.

E. R. Siewers, Esq., of Mauch Chunk, was on Monday last, at Harrisburg, admitted to practice in the Supreme Court.

The horses in David Ebert's livery are now in excellent condition, and his carriages of the handomest make. If you want a ride call now. His terms are very low, to suit the times.

Mr. J. T. McDaniel, of Mahoning Valley, is now engaged refitting his hotel, by adding thereto some six or eight additional rooms. We are pleased to note this evidence of prosperity, and especially amid the general complaint of dull times it is gratifying.

The corner stone of the new Reformed church, now in process of erection on the corner of 2d and Iron Sts., in this place, will be laid with appropriate ceremonies to-morrow (Sunday), June 4th. Our citizens are cordially invited to be present.

The youthful "dotter" for the Morning Herald, was airing himself on Sunday last in a new and handsome suit. He looked A No. 1.

A large fall of fine dust and rock in the Bear Ridge Colliery, at Mahanoy Plane, on Saturday, buried a miner named James Holvey. Jerry Mahoney, a fellow workman, went to the rescue of his friend, and was also buried in the falling debris. Several hours afterwards both were dug out dead.

Lost, on the 31st ult., a POCKET CASE OF SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS, between Lehigh and the Pleasant Corner Hotel, on the upper valley road. The finder will please return it to my office, opposite the Zion Reformed Church, Lehigh, and receive reward.

Dr. W. A. DERHAMER.

Thirteen men were injured by an explosion of sulphur in the Phoenix Park Colliery, at Pottsville, on Saturday morning, three of whom, named Cavanagh, Dorman, and Williams, are not expected to recover. It is said the disaster was caused by the use of an exposed lamp.

Aaron Dreisch died at White Haven on the 8th inst., at the age of 51. He was born in Lehigh Co., near Laury's Station. He was in business in Mauch Chunk until about 17 years ago, when he removed to White Haven, where he became a member of the firm of Wallace & Dreisch, in the foundry and machine business. He left quite a valuable estate.

The concerts given by the Fairbairn Family, in the School house, on Friday and Saturday evenings last, were of quite an interesting and agreeable character, but were not attended as well as they should have been. The selections consisted principally of old-time Scottish songs—heroic and pastoral—illustrative of Scotch character.

F. P. Semmel offers at private sale, on very reasonable terms, seventeen very pleasantly located building lots on the old fair grounds, in this borough. This offers a rare opportunity for persons desiring to build themselves a home. For further particulars apply to F. P. Semmel, at his hardware store, on Bank Street.

Whit Sunday—to-morrow.

If you are dry, drink of the ice cold fountain water, at J. W. O'Neill's.

A new Burgess was elected in the borough of Weissport, Monday night, and our jovial friend E. C. is happy!

We are informed that some persons when visiting the cemetery, are in the habit of stealing flower plants from the graves of our departed ones. This is a dastardly crime, and we hope those in charge of the ground will see to it, and vigorously prosecute the robbers of the dead, whoever they may be.

Mr. A. P. Horn desires us to state that he will begin to call on his music pupils on Wednesday next, so as to be able to visit them all during the week. Parties desirous of taking lessons should leave orders with C. T. Horn, Bank street, to insure prompt attention.

Another member of the Mollie Maguire band, John Donohoe, alias "Yellow Jack," had a preliminary hearing Wednesday morning at Pottsville. The principal witnesses against him are from the Philadelphia Detective Agency of Mr. Pinkerton, and they propose to show his connection with the murder of General James at Shenandoah last year, and of William Thomas and Jesse and William Major near Mahanoy City. He was held as an accessory after the fact, and in default of $7,000 bail was committed to prison to await trial.

The Bethlehem Times says that Hon. Asa Packer, the founder of Lehigh University, has extended an invitation to Emperor Don Pedro of Brazil to be present at the commencement exercises of that institution. The Emperor has accepted the invitation and will in all probability be with us on University day, June 22, as he expects to return to Philadelphia on or about June 10th. T. hereat at present eight young Brazilians pursuing their studies at Lehigh University, three of whom will graduate this session.

Gavener Hartranft has appointed Chester S. Farr, Jr., of Reading, his private secretary, to succeed Major A. Wilson Norris, who was recently appointed State reporter. Mr. Farr, by virtue of his new office, becomes Recorder of the Board of Pardons, and all communications relative to pardons should hereafter be addressed to him.

The Bethlehem Times says: A man by the name of Moses, employed by the Bethlehem Iron company on Saturday morning met with a singular accident in the iron rail mill. While wheeling scrap iron to the puddlers, a rail just "finishing" from the rolls struck him and threw him a straddle of the red hot bar, carrying him to the circular saws, where he was rolled directly under the saws. The catcher, with great presence of mind, rescued Moses from his perilous position. The man's clothing was badly torn and burned, and the burns on his body are very severe.

Mauch Chunk Items.

Excursionists, tourists and pleasure-seekers are arriving in limited numbers. Monday and Tuesday "mice hosts" of the Mansion House must have reaped a golden harvest, judging by the number of Sir Knights he entertained on those two days.

The Santa Corner Band, of Towanda, said to be second to none in the State, arrived here on Monday night, remaining over until Tuesday evening. During their stay they made things lively about the Mansion House, and on Monday night serenaded some of our most prominent citizens. Enjoying the patronage of Mr. Robert (or "Bob") Packer, they are of course exquisitely uniformed, and their instruments are of the most superior kind. A pity it is that "Bob" or some other body able to do so, doesn't patronize the bands of this place!

Not that he is tired of house-keeping, but because Mr. Skeer desired to repossess the premises occupied by Major Klotz, the latter gentleman and his family are now luxuriating at the American House.

Rev. Father Mattingly, of Nanticoke, who, on Monday applied for permission to visit one of the prisoners suspected of being implicated in the Audenried murder, had to leave without accomplishing his purpose, as none but their counsel are admitted.

Mr. Anthony Snyder, of Summit Hill, one of Carbon county's most enterprising merchants, is reported very seriously ill.

A party of 25 Muscovite Centennial visitors are looked for to arrive at the Mansion House to-day (Saturday).

Decoration day was duly observed here. Large numbers attended the ceremonies at the cemetery, while stores and most other places of business were closed.

Dr. S. E. Gross, the eminent Philadelphia physician, registered at the Mansion House on Tuesday. Having been summoned to attend Mr. Anthony Snyder, at Summit Hill, he was then on his way thither.

The for some time suspected Conductor Selp, is again running his owl train on the Nesquehoning Branch. Good for Selp!

The completion of the third-rail arrangement over the Erie road is already perceptible by an increased freight traffic over the Lehigh Valley road, whereas resident stockholders feel jubilant, and well they may be, as this year's coal traffic would hardly realize their customary divies.

Rev. G. A. Strunz having severed his connection with St. John's Lutheran congregation, contemplates soon to set out on a prospecting tour through the Southwestern States. Among other places the rev. gentleman designs visiting Blount county, Ala., whence the most cheering accounts have been received from those who have emigrated thither from this vicinity.

James Kerrigan is again happy in the occupancy of his old quarters in Carbon county jail.

Up to date only 7 criminal cases appear on the Con. docket for June term of Court.

Our young friend Walter Williams, again graces the Switch Back ticket office at Upper Mauch Chunk. Should he stay during the present season, he will have been in the company's employ, in that capacity, three years.

Owing to the exciting times of Monday and Tuesday evenings, Fairbairn's projected entertainment at Rhoads' Hall, for want of an audience proved a complete failure. We feel sorry on Mr. Fairbairn's account as his meritorious entertainments are worthy of all possible encouragement.

East Mauch Chunk.

Owing to neglect to attend to their insurance policies, Fidler & Co.'s loss, over and above insurance, is now stated at from 5 to 40,000.

The church, the building of which has been decided upon by the members of the German Reformed and Lutheran congregations of this place, will be of brick, 30x40 feet.

Rev. Joe Rath's Sunday evening's sermon at the public school-house is highly spoken of by those that listened to the rev. gentleman's eloquence.

Rev. Father Heinen of Joseph's R. C. Church, of this place, on Sunday last confirmed a class of 15 young persons in presence of an extraordinarily large congregation. The ceremonies on this occasion are said to have been of a very solemn and imposing character.

Summit Hill.

Notwithstanding the hard times improvements at Summit Hill are pushed more energetically than ever.

Dr. Davis' new building (designed for a drug store) on Front street will soon be ready for occupancy. His next door neighbor, Casper Isler, is building in addition to his residence, while a short distance further up the street Mr. Sam Kleckert is preparing for the raising of a large edifice. In short this mining village is beginning to wear a different aspect from what it did a year ago. Front street has been nicely graded, and since the cumbersome dirt-heaps have been removed, looks trim and neat. Strangers revisiting the place will be surprised at the changes wrought.

That "Big Simon" has brushed up, and is as ready as ever to dispense the "bosht" Milwaukee lager, is hardly necessary to mention.

Freight trains now make regular trips to the town, and encourages the villagers to hope for passenger trains also. To which fact, perhaps more than to anything else, we may ascribe the present rage for improvements.

Big Creek Items.

We had another refreshing rain on Sunday afternoon, which revived everything wonderfully.

Our roads were deeply washed by the recent heavy rains, and our Super-visors are busily engaged in repairing them.

Potatoes, in quite large quantities, passed through this place last week on their way to market.

Mr. B. A. Kolins, of East Weissport, has opened a tin and sheet iron ware manufactory and is now prepared to fill orders at reasonable prices to suit the times. Persons will do well to give him a call before purchasing elsewhere. To insure success I would advise him to advertise in the ADVOCATE.

At W. Kemmerer's is to be found the choicest 5 cent cigar in this place.

A good deal of the corn had to be replanted in this neighborhood.

Mr. Josiah Harpel is rapidly pushing his new residence towards completion, which, when finished, will be two-story high, and no doubt present a very fine appearance.

I am pleased to hear that our friend Robert Miller, of Delano, Schuylkill Co., formerly of this place, has improved his condition so much that he is now again able to be out and about as usual.

On Friday of last week, Oscar Weaver, a resident of Franklin Twp., while engaged coupling cars at Packer's, had his hand caught between the bumpers, and so badly injured that amputation was necessary.

An infant of Mr. S. Fritzingler died this week and was interred at Weissport, on Thursday.

Sabbath School at Solt's on Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. All are cordially invited.

Card of Thanks.

At a regular stated meeting, held May 31st, 1876, of Blue Ridge Council, No. 139, Jr. O. U. A. M., a unanimous vote of thanks was tendered to the young ladies helping to decorate their flag on 30th May, 1876.

W. P. Loxo, Sect'y.

Struck by Lightning.

During the storm on Sunday afternoon last, the lightning-struck the residence of Abraham Henry, in Franklin township, setting the house on fire and striking several members of the family—sons a little child, sitting on a sheep skin on the floor, received a severe shock, a piece being torn from the skin by the lightning. The fire was fortunately extinguished before doing any material damage.

Corner Stone Laying.

On to-morrow (Sunday) the corner stone of the new Reformed church, on the corner of Second and Iron streets, will be laid with appropriate ceremonies. Services in the morning, at 10 o'clock; in the afternoon at 2, and in the evening at 7 o'clock. A number of prominent preachers will be present on the occasion. A cordial invitation is extended to the citizens of Lehigh and the surrounding country to be present. The services will be in English and German.

Easton, Pa. June 1.—Nine members of the family of Martin Larson, residing at Sault's, died of cholera recently. Five miles above Easton, was poisoned last evening at coffee which contained some mineral substance. Mrs. Larson is dead, and several of the others are considered in a critical condition. The position of poison in the coffee is not ascertained. Later it is now reported that Martin Larson, and another one of the poisoned, have died.

It is officially announced that there will be no meeting of the Board of Pardons until the 1st of August.

Obituary.

Died, in this borough, on Monday evening last, at 9 o'clock, Hon. Daniel Heberling, of kidney disease, aged 75 years 3 months and 19 days.

Daniel Heberling was born in Moore township, Northampton county, on the 10th of February, 1801, from which place he removed to Lockport, on the opening of the canal, where he was appointed the first tender, which position he filled for several years, finally removing from that place to Weissport, where he assumed the proprietorship of the old Weissport Hotel, which he presided over for a number of years gaining many friends by his gentlemanly and affable bearing toward his patrons. Retiring from the hotel business he opened a store and commenced boat building, accumulating considerable property. During his residence in Weissport he filled the office of Postmaster and Justice of the Peace with much satisfaction and was elected Associate Judge of the county, which position he filled with much credit. He removed to this borough some eight years ago, since which time he has lived a retired life, very highly respected by our citizens. His wife survives him with seven children all of whom are married.

The funeral took place on Friday morning from the Lutheran church, of which he was a member, and was largely attended by the relative and friends.

State Sunday School Convention.

The session of the Twelfth Annual Sunday School Convention will commence with a Devotional Meeting, at the Academy of Music, Penn Street, reading 7th on Tuesday Evening, June 4th, at 7 1/2 o'clock.
