National Republican Convention. The following is the Platform preented by Mr. Hawley to the Republican Convention, at Cincinnati on Thursday last, and after some debate, unanimensly adopted : When, in the economy of Providence. this land was to be purged of but an slavery, and when the strength of the government of the people, by the people, for the people, was to be demon-trated, the Republican party came into power. Its deeds have passed into history, and we look back to them with pride, incited by their memories and high aims for the good of our country and, mankind and, looking to the future with unfal-tering courage, hope and purpose, we, the representatives of the party in National Convention assembled, make the following declaration of principles : First. The United States of America is a unition, not a league. By the com-bined workings of the National and State Governments under their respective Constitutions the rights of every citizen are secured at home and protected abroad and the common welfare promoted. Second. The Republican party has preserved those governments to the hundredth anniversary of the nation's birth, and they are now embodiments of the great truths spoken at its cradic that all men are created equal: that they are endowed by their Creater with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of hap-pixess; that for the attainment of these ends governments have been instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the govern-ed; until these truths are cheerfully obeyed, or if need be vigorously en-forced, the work of the Republican party is unfinished.

Toird. The permanent pacification of the Southern section of the Union, the complete protection of all its citizens in the free enjoyment of all their rights, are duties to which the Republican party is sacredly pledged. The power to provide for the enforcement of the principles embodied in the recent constitutional amendments is vested by those amendments in the Congress of the United States, and we declare it to be the solemn obligation of the legislative and executive departments of the government to put into immediate and vigorous exercise all their constitutional powers for removing any just causes of discontent on the part of any class and securing to every American citizen complete liberty and exact equality in the exercise of all civil, political and public rights. To this end we imperatively demand a Congress and Chief Executive whose courage and fidelity to these doties shall not faiter until these results are placed beyond dispute or re-

Fourth. In the first act of Congress signed by President Grant, the National Government assumed to remove any doubts of purpose to discharge all jusobligations to public creditors, and solembly pledged its faith to make provision at the earliest practicable period for redemption of the United States notes in coin. Commercial prosperity, public merits and national credit demand that this promise be fulfilled by a confir nous and steady progress to specle payment. Fifth. Under the Constitution the President and heads of departments are to make pominations for office, the senate is to advise and consent to appointments, and the House of Reprefaithless officers. The best interests of the public service demand that this distinetien be respected, that Senators and Representatives who may be judges and accusers should not dictate appointments to office. The invariable rule for appointments should have reference honesty, fidelity and capacity of appointees, giving to the party in power hose places where barmony and vigor of administration require its policy to be presented, but permitting all others to be filled by persons selected with the sole reference to efficiency of public service and the right of citizens to share in the honor of rendering faithful service to the country. Sixth. We rejoice in the quickened conscience of the people concerning political affairs, and will hold all public officers to a rigid responsibility, and engage that the prosecution and punishment of all who betray official trust shall be speedy, thorough and unspar-

Seventh. 'he public school system of the several States is the bulwark of the American Republic, and with a view to its security and permanence we recomend an amenament to the Constitu-tion of the United States forbidling the application of any public funds or pro-perty for the benefit of any school or institution under sectarian control. Eighth. The revenue necessary for current expenditures and the obligations of the public debt must be largely de-rived from the duties upon importations which, so far as possible, should be adjusted to promote the interest of American labor and advance the prosperity of the whole country.

Ninth. We reaffirm our position to Ninth. We reaffirm our position to and army vote together, 3,008 majority further grants of the public lands to over Joseph Butler, the democratic corporations and monopolies, and decandidate. The Ohio delegation to the mand that the national domain be devoted to free homes of the people.

Tenth. It is the imperative duty of the government to modify existing treaties with European government, that the same protection shall be afforded to adopted American citizens that is given to native born, and all necessary laws Delano, Mr. John A. Bingham, Mr. be passed to protect emigrants in the James M. Ashiey and Mr. Samuel absence of power in the State for that

Eleventh. It is the immediate duty of Congress to fully investigate the ef-fect of the emigration and importation of Mongolians on the moral and material interests of the country.

Twelfth. The Republican party recognizes with approval the substantial advance recently made towards the establishment of equal rights for women by the many important amendments, effected by Republican Legislatures, in the laws which concern the personal and property relations of wives, mothers and widows, and by the appointment and election of women to the superintendence of education, charities and other public trusts; the honest demands of this class of citizens for additional rights and privileges and immunities should be treated with respectful consideration. Thirteenth. The Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the Territories of the United States for their government, and in the exercise of this power it is the right and duty of Congress to prohibit and extirpate in the Territories that relic of barbarism, polygamy; and we demand such legislation as shall secure this end and the supremacy of American institutions in all the Territories.

Fourteenth. The pledges which the nation has given to our soldiers and sailors must be fulfilled; a grateful people will always hold those who periled their lives for the country's preservation in the kindest remembrance.
Fifteenth. We sincerely deprecate all sectional feeling and tendencies. We, therefore, note with deep solicitude that the Democratic party counts, as its chief hope of success upon the electoral vote of a united South, secured through the efforts of those who were recently arrayed against the nation, and we inlry to the grave truth that a success thus achieved would reopen sectional strife and imperil national honor and human rights. Sixteenth, We charge the Demo-eratic party as being the same in char-acter and spirit as when it sympathized with treason, and with making its con-trol of the House of Representatives the triumph and opportunity of the nation's recent fors; with reasserting and ap-plauding in the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepented rebellion; with sending Union soldier to the rear; with deliberately proposing to repudiate the pligated faith of the government; with being equally false and imbecial upon the over-hadowing financial ques-tion; with thwarting the ends of justice by its partisan mismanagements and obstruction of investigation; with proving itself, through the period of its ascendancy in the lower house of Congress, utterly incompetent to adminis-ter the government. We warn the coun-try against trusting a party thus alike unworthy, recreant and incapable.

Seventeenth. The national administration merits commendation for its honorable work in the management of domestic and foreign affairs, and President Grant deserves the continued and hearty gratitude of the American people for his patriotism and his Immense service in war and in peace,

The Republican Candidates. RUTHERPORD B. HAYES. Three times elected governor and twice a congressman, Mr. Hayes has never yet carried either state or district by a heavy majority. A native of Obio, Mr. Hayes has gained his academical education within the limits of that state, commanded an Ohio regiment during he war and has passed his entire professional life at the bar of the state. He is now fifty four years old, having been born at Delaware, Ohio, October 4, 1832. He graduated at Kenyon col-lege, Gambier, Ohio, and obtained his professional education at the Cambridge Law school. The practice of his profession began in Cincinnati in his thirty fourth year, when he received his first official position as city solicitor, which he held till the war broke out in 1861. Very near its opening he enlisted in the Twenty-third Ohio volunteers, and served with the regiment till he receiv. ed the command of a brigade in 1864. His first appointment was as major, his first promotion came within less than a year, and in September of 1862 he held a commission as lieutenant colonel and was in command of his regiment, which he led into the battle of South Mountain. The Twenty-third regiment formed at the time a part of General Reno's division—its command devolving upon Gen. Cox, who afterwards preceded Gen. Hayes as governor, after the death of General Reno in action-operating as the right wing of the army of the Potomac. During the action Colonel Haves received a severe wound in the arm, but remained with his regiment to the last, and was the first officer whose command established a position at South Mountain. Two years later he had become Brigadier General Hayes, when he received the republican non-institut in the Second Ohio district, a part of Hamilton county, and received, home Thirty-ninth congress, in which Gen. Hayes took his sent December 1865, was remarkable for its ability, and included an unusual number of men who have since gained marked and unusual distinction in the republican party. Mr.

Robert C. Schenek, Mr. Columbus Delano, Mr. John A. Bingham, Mr.

Shellaborger were all members of this Shellabarger were all members of this delegation, and the extent and variety of the talent by which Mr. Hayes was surrounded doubtless had much to do with the observity in which his term was passed. He served on the committee on private land claims and on the library committee, and passed. the library committee, and passed through the important reconstruction legislation of the session with no greater distinction than a vote given unformly and on all occasions for his party, and upon the most liberal of the party, and upon the most liberal of the measures which was presented in this congress by Mr. Stevens—the resolution congress by Mr. Stevens—the resolution relating to attorney test onths—Mr. Hayes' vote was recorded in the negative. In the fall of 1866 Mr. Hayes was a second time nominated to conwas a second time nominated to congress, and running against Theodore Cook, was elected by a somewhat smaller majority than two years before. The Fortieth congress had, however, held but one session when Mr. Hayes was nominated as governor by the republican party, and, accepting the candidature, was elected over Allen G. Thorman by a majority of 2,983 in a total vote of 483,000, a close and narrow escape from defeat, which Mr. Hayes successfully repeated last fall. Mr. Hayes was a candidate for reelection at the close of his term of office, but another nomince was preferred, and it was not till 1869 that he was a second time placed at the head of the republican ticket in Ohio. Meanwhile he busied himself in molitics second time placed at the head of the republican ticket in Ohio. Meanwhile he busied himself in politics and made frieffits by various means—one at least is hinted in a published letter from Murat Halshad and Richard Smith, two gentlemen who have tot of late years conducted their correspondence in postparship, addressed in Columbia. years conducted their correspondence in partnership, addressed to Columbia Delano, then, March 20, 1869, commis-sioner of internal revenue, in which these two representatives of a republi-can press say, "The suggestion comes to us through General Hayes that we name certain persons to occupy and administer the internal revenue offi es in this city," and the twin editors accordingly nominate four men, "neither of us having any personal feeling in the matter." It wasn't strange that Mr. Hayes, with lifeas of this character in regard to the manipulation of Fedin regard to the manipulation of Federal offices, and a serviceable friend like Mr. Delano in office, should have gained the nomination he had previously lest. He entered the campaign with strong odds in his favor. General Rosenerans was nominated by the democratic convention which met in July of that year, and at which Mr. Pendleton's that year, and at which Mr. Pendleton's name was peremptorily withdrawn; the expected candidate refused the nonamation, however, and at a late date Mr. Pendleton was induced to take the Mr. Pendleton was induced to take the democratic nomination. Success was scarcely possible under the circumstances, and General Hayes carried the state by a majority of 7,518, or about one-third that of the year before on the state ticket. The next appearance of Mr. Hayes as a candidate was last fall, when he was pominated on the public school he was nominated on the public school platform, after a sharp contest with Judge Taft, whose candidacy in oppo-sition to Mr. Hayes was no fault of his own, but was due entirely to a letter which Mr. Hayes wrote the night before the convention, of which the following is an extract ;

I cannot allow my name to be used against Inder rat. He became a candidate after I de-cemed. He is a pure man, and a sound repub-lican. I will not except a nomination obtained with context against from.

The pith and point of the voluntary indersement which Mr. Hayes gives to Judge Taft lies in the fact that the contest of the convention turned on an en-ergetic effort to plocate the liberal republican party by his nomination. The attempt failed, and Mr. Hayes became a condidate, accepting the nomination by teleg am the same day. In the bitlowed, Mr. Hayes was successful, receiving a majority of 5,544 over Mr.
Allen. The duties of the third term to which Mr. Hayes was thus raised on an anti third-term platform, like the two terms that preceded it, have been so far successfully executed by Governor Hayes without affording the slightest ground for comment, for observation or for reflection, and Mr. Hayes enters the Presidential contest the best figure head which the party could furnish.

WILLIAM A. WHEELER, who has received the Republican nomination for Vice President, is a native of Malone, Franklin county, N. Y., and was borne June 3, 1819. After a short course in the University of Vermont, Mr. Wheel-er studied law and took up practice in his native county. He was elected District Attorney as a Democrat, an Assemblyman as a Whig, and a State Senator as a Republican, presiding over the Senate in 1858 and 1859. In 1860 he took a seat in Congress. During that session he voted for the Pacific Railroad land grant. In 1867 Mr. Wheeler served as Chairman of the New York Constitutional Convention. He was re elected to Congress in 1868, taking his seat in Mr. Blaine's first session as Speaker.
