Our Philadelphia Letter.

PHILA., Pa., Sept. 12, 1876.

DEAR ADVOCATE.—Shantytown will soon be a thing of the past; for what the fire of Saturday last did not destroy, I understand, will have to be torn down and removed. These shanties have long menaced the Centennial buildings and had the wind been in most any other direction than what it was at the time of the fire, our noble Exhibition would have been leveled to the earth, and the loss would have been beyond all estimate.

While strolling through the Egyptian Department in the Main building the other day, I noted that two of the attendants (young Egyptians) were learning "ways which are dark and tricks that are vain," for they were matching pennies. Thus the oldest nation of the east learns something from the youngest.

—The Turks at the exhibition dress as Turks should dress; that is, in the costume of their native land. I cannot say as much for the other nations represented at the Centennial, for with the exception of a few Chinamen, the rest have gone in for our costume from head to foot, stove-pipe hats, box-toed boots and all.

—Pennsylvania's Day, the 28th of September, will be a gala day at the Centennial and it is expected that the sons and daughters of the old Keystone

State will rally in force and show what
