Local and Personal.

Parties receiving the ADVOCATE with a cross marked after their names will please remit the amount due for Subscription, or the extra 50 cents will be added to pay the expenses of collection.

Get ready for our county fair. It ought to make a grand success.

The rolling mill at Ferndale was re-started on Tuesday evening of last week.

Furnace No. 2 of Bethlehem Iron Company was last week blown out for repairs.

We observe that our friend, Frank Stocker, is named for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff.

The working force at the Packerton shops of the L. V. R. R. is being considerably reduced.

Thos. S. Beck, Esq., and his wife, on Wednesday last, completed the 25th year of their wedded life.

The Crane Iron Co. last week blew out another of their furnace stacks at Catawauqua. They now have but two out of six going.

If you want a nice glove go to T. D. Clauss' and select from his new and elegant stock of kid and Lisle thread gloves, just opened.

Ezekiel Fritz, night dispatcher of the Reading Railroad at Allentown, was run over by a train at that place, on Saturday last and killed.

The twenty-fourth annual fair of the Northampton Co. Agricultural Society will be held on its ground at Nazareth on Oct. 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th.

J. K. Rickett has still a few of those eligible lots in Rickettstown to dispose of. If you feel like securing a good home call and see him. He is also supplying flour, feed, lumber and coal at the lowest rates.

William Ritter, an employe in the American Slate Quarry at Slatington, had one of his legs broken the other day by being struck thereon by a falling stone of massive proportion. The same limb had been broken once before.

T. D. Clauss has just returned from the city with a beautiful stock of Centennial and other styles of neckties. Also, a full stock of gent's furnishing goods of the choicest quality. Call and see them.

Collecting taxes never was accompanied with more real hard work than the collectors now find it. Many people who would pay have not the means and know not to whom to apply for succor.

J. W. O'Neil, at the Lehighton Bakery, has newly and tastily fitted up his ice cream saloon and opened up his soda fountain, and is now prepared to supply our citizens with the finest flavors of ice cream and soda water day and evening.

F. P. Semmel offers at private sale, on very reasonable terms, seventeen very pleasantly located building lots on the old fair grounds, in this borough. This offers a rare opportunity for persons desiring to build themselves a home. For further particulars apply to F. P. Semmel, at his hardware store, on Bank Street.

DR. FITZGER'S RHEUMATIC REMEDY cures rheumatism, neuralgia, nervous and kidney diseases. DR. FITZGER'S FECTORAL SYRUP, infallible for coughs, colds and bronchitis. DR. FITZGER'S CORDIAL CALIFORNIA LINIMENT and VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS sold by C. W. Lentz, sole agent for Lehighton and Weissport.

T. D. Clauss has just returned from the city with a beautiful assortment of cloths, cassimeres and vestings, which he is now making up at prices far below any other house in the Valley, while the style of fit and workmanship is unsurpassed. Call and see his goods before you purchase elsewhere. There is no charge for showing goods. Also, a full line of ladies' and gentlemen's satchels.

Where do you get those elegantly flavored cigars you are smoking? I asked a friend of another on Bank Street, a day or so ago, and came the answer at "Koch Brothers, who are the manufacturers of this celebrated brand of cigars—the Royal Seal; where you can also obtain every description of chewing and smoking tobaccos and cigars, at wholesale and retail, fully as cheap as you can get the same article for in the city."

Hon. Charles Albright will please accept our thanks for a copy of the report of the case of the Commonwealth vs. John Kohon et al, in neat pamphlet form.

The cost to Northampton county of the trial of Allen C. Laros will not fall much short of $5,000. This includes counsel fees, post-mortem cost, Coroner's inquest, etc.

The Reformed congregation Sunday school picnic on Saturday last was well attended by scholars, teachers and friends of that church, and proved a very pleasant affair.

The Democratic delegate elections will be held Saturday, Sept. 30, and the Convention will be held, at Mauch Chunk, Monday, October 2d, at 11 o'clock a. m.

The Carbon County Industrial Society will sell the stands and privileges of the fair grounds on Saturday next, the 30th inst., to the highest and best bidders. See advertisement.

A very severe storm of wind and rain visited this locality on Sunday last. But slight damage resulted therefrom—a few trees and fences only being blown down and the roof of an old barn.

Excursion tickets, good for 15 days, to Philadelphia and return, will be sold at the L. & S. and L. V. depots, in this place, on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 27th and 28th, for $2.40.

A large number of our citizens have been visiting the Centennial during the past week, including a large delegation of Old Fellows, who participated in the parade on Wednesday last.

The Large Sale still continues at the Original Cheap Cash Store, and J. T. Nusbaum & Son take the lead in giving the best bargains in dry goods, fancy dress goods, &c. Beautiful shawls at 85c., worth $1.25.

H. A. Beltz, Esq., collector of State and county taxes, desires us to state that those who have not yet paid their taxes should do so at once, or they will be turned into the office for collection.

When a young lady and gentleman have a controversy about kissing, they generally put their heads together. They do the same thing when they want a carriage ride, and resolve to use one of David Ebbert's handsome rigs. Terms low.

In the case of Broat vs. Broat, in vying the right of married women to hold property, the Court at Honesdale has decided in favor of Mrs. Broat. Her husband's brother had seized property belonging to her.

Eagle Hill Shaft Colliery, of the Reading Coal and Iron Co., near New Philadelphia, Schuylkill county, was destroyed by fire on Sunday last. The loss is estimated at $75,000. At last accounts the coal was still burning.

TEMPERANCE.—On Sunday evening at 7:15 the Weissport Sunday School of the Evangelical Association will hold a Temperance Service. The exercises will consist of music by the School, praying and speaking by different persons. Let all friends of temperance rally and make this effort enthusiastic and promotive for good.

New Jersey Central Railroad shares have touched 25 in the New York market. The crushing out of this stock has been wonderfully steady and rapid. On the 1st of July last it was quoted in New York market at about 75, and on the 1st of January at about 105, a decline of 80 per cent of the entire capital stock of $20,525,000 and a wipeout of nearly 16 1/2 millions of dollars.

Considerable excitement was manifested by our people on Tuesday evening last, on account of the appearance on our streets of some half dozen hard-looking, suspicious cusses. A temporary police force was organized, who patrolled the streets during the night. Nothing, however, transpired to demand their active services. The force consisted of Capt. Wm. Miller, Frank Stocker, J. S. Webb, O. Kemmerer, and Geo. Derhamer—a most effective force.

Wednesday afternoon Officer Chas. Watson, of the coal and iron police, arrested Thomas Fisher at Summit Hill, charged with being an accessory to the murder of Morgan Powell. He was taken to Pottsville on the twenty minutes past four train. Captain T. C. Williams also arrested Patrick McKenna, of Lansford. McKenna is also charged with being an accessory to the murder of Morgan Powell. McKenna was taken to Pottsville on the half past eight train Thursday morning.

C. W. Lentz, at the Central Drug Store, completed his second year of business life on Thursday last, and resolved from date he would sell for cash only. With that end in view he had been busily engaged for several days previous marking down all his goods to the lowest possible prices. His stock is large and comprises fancy and toilette articles, pocket-books, pens, packages, note and letter paper, and in fact almost every article usually found in a first class country drug store. If you want bargains now is the time to get them.

Sunday, September 24, the annual day of praise and covenanting for the heads of families was celebrated in the Moravian church at Bethlehem, Pa. The communion in the evening was one of the largest ever held on that day. In the forenoon, in the afternoon, Bishop de Schweinitz gave some reminiscences of 1776. On the first Sunday of Sept., in that year, a regiment of Berks Co. militia, numbering five hundred men, arrived at Bethlehem, under command of Col. McGier, on their way to the army. At the request of this officer a special service was held for them in what is now the chapel, where the Rev. John Ettwein preached on the words: "Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?" The presence of the Lord was manifestly felt, says the record. Many of the soldiers wept, and all who were present spoke of the unusually solemn character of this service.

The jury in the case of the Molly Duffy, charged with complicity in the murder of B. F. Yost, at Tamaqua, retired on Tuesday night, at 11 o'clock, and came into Court on Wednesday morning, and rendered a verdict of "guilty of murder in the first degree."

By an announcement under the head of marriages, it will be seen that our young friend, P. T. Bracy "has been and gone and done it"—it took place at Allentown, on Thursday last, from which place the happy pair proceeded to Philadelphia, and will return to Lehighton on Monday evening next.

Daniel Graver, at the Bee Hive Store, next to the 1st National Bank, has just returned from the city with an immense stock of fall and winter dress goods, dry goods, blankets, carpets, oil cloths, etc., etc., which he is now opening and marking down to very "bottom prices." Call and see his goods—and you will be sure to buy.

Miss Lizzie Kramer the popular milliner on Bankway, desires us to state that she has just returned from the city with a new and beautiful stock of fall and winter styles of hats, bonnets, millinery goods, notions, &c., all of which she is prepared to sell at prices below anything ever before offered to the ladies of Lehighton. An inspection of goods solicited.

Letter from Mauch Chunk.

Mauch Chunk, Sept. 21, 1876.

Mr. Editor.—The world moves; and so do the inhabitants thereof, and with us the majority of the more prominent ones appear to be moving in the direction of office. Such at least appear to be their goal (and by "their" I refer to the more prominent ones), but how few will reach it! Every ray brings something new; and the last few days have been productive of the names of several new aspirants to office.

Among others, Francis Stocker and J. W. Raudenbush of Lehighton, are prominently mentioned in connection with the Sheriffalty, and Jerry Keiser, of this place, is said to be held in reserve by some. Anything to beat "Pap" Painter; hence the importance attached by Democrats to the pending nomination, knowing as they do that none but the strongest possible nominee can prevail against him. That none but such will be nominated, you may depend upon, as no more is heard of the parties previously mentioned in connection with that office which, as to the fact, Paul Kresge's name for example, is now scarcely ever heard, while all are clamoring for a "strong ticket." This they'll get, no doubt—and elect it too, to believe the more sanguine bloods in the Democratic ranks.

As there's lately been so much said concerning Brother Lynn, it may not be amiss to speak a few words in his behalf. You know him, and so do I; and so does nearly every Democrat in the country. And if I were Brother Lynn, and had been as faithfully doing the bidding of the party as he has, during the last 12 or 13 years, I should consider them (to use the mildest possible term) very ungrateful were they to exclude me out of a nomination. He deserves it, if any of his competitors do. And so far as intelligence is concerned, I should think—but I had best say nothing, lest I might offend some of you know what I mean? Joe is well read, writes straight and fast, and spells correctly, which some of his competitors—dang it, I came nigh making another blunder! You understand what I meant to say, however, don't you? Well, "murder will out," but it shan't leak out until after the 24 day of October, if I can prevent it, and not then, unless the Convention by their action shall be deserving a little ridicule. Should this be the case, some parties might be tempted to expose a chirographic and orthographic call—dang it here it is again, almost another slip! Well, all they (and by "they" I mean his competitors) have thus far "hatched against Mr. Lynn is a vague hint of his being a non-resident. Gracious! A non-resident after having lived with them 12 years, during all of which time he's been engaged in washing some of their dirty linen! Or do these dunces claim that, unless a man sticks to his domicile as a hatching hen to her nest, he necessarily must be a non-resident. Pshaw! And such men aspire to judicial honors! True, during the summer months Mr. Lynn's family (and part of the time he himself) sojourn at Freemansburg, but what of that? Have they not as good a right to do this as others, whom business pursuits or pleasure frequently cause to absent themselves from home for months at a time? Sure they would not accuse Mr. Harry Packard of being a non-resident, and yet that gentleman's official position requires his attendance daily presence at Perth Amboy. But, they say, Mr. Packard pays his tax here. And so, I say, does Mr. Lynn, and both of them probably do the same thing elsewhere. And with this I close my argument with these very ass-tute thinkers, as unfit aspirants to judicial honors. But Mr. Lynn may console himself, he is not the only party foully dealt with, as the worthy Major Robert Klotz appears to be similarly situated. Pike county—so at least it is stated—showing a disposition to "go back on him" which if true, is very naughty in Pike. But so it is and it may be. Politicians are very slippery creatures; they are worse than cats, and therefore more difficult to handle. But the "Major" understands his metier, and knowing that "through tribulation deep the way to glory is," etc., he will most certainly persevere unto the end convinced that "Faint heart never yet won fair lady."

Our friend Kemmerer, I notice, has been absent from the Prothonotary's office several days during the present week. How cruel it was on the part of the Republican party-leaders to impose upon their nominees a two month's campaign!

En passant, "a little nonsense, now and then" is said to be "relished by the best of men," and whoever agrees in sentiment with the above quotation, let him secure a copy of today's Democrat. It contains one of the rarest bits of composition, orthography, and argument that ever emanated from a demented person not actually confined in a lunatic asylum. It is the great "oracle" of the labor-reform society (party would be applicable) who therein spakes (don't correct this, for he has it thus) or delivers himself to whom it may concern. I am sure it don't concern me much, nor any other man, except he be a fanatic; but as a hearty laugh is undoubtedly worth five cents, I'd advise all to buy a copy. Poor McDonough, that it should have come to this! And what is to become of the great party of mine now that its head has lost its equilibrium? No wonder Johnny looks disconsolate and is no longer to be seen DIVULX about the street-corners. He is sensible that the game's up? Well, to be ignored in Schuylkill, and ridiculed out of existence in Luzerne, only to receive the death-blow in Carbon—'tis hard, monstrous hard indeed! Truly "a little knowledge is a dangerous thing, and a slip of the pen frequently more calamitous than a slip of the tongue. Poor, poor hermit of the Glen! How people will pity you! Yet there is hope of eventual success. You may go to Harrisburg, where, at no great distance from the State Capitol, there is another stately building, reared for the accommodation of the likes of you—thither repair and be happy!

And now, having properly consoled the so-called labor-reformers, let me congratulate the remnant of the community on their happy deliverance from a nuisance of several years' standing. Adieu, worthy trio! Farewell, ye domineering ninos. Go in peace, and sin no more.

Yours, etc., * ITEMS.

Sunday's storm caused considerable damage here and in East Mauch Chunk. Wednesday evening's Rescue Hook & Ladder Company's picnic, or rather "hop" is claimed to have been a success.

Gen. J. D. Bertolette contemplates to attend the Centennial Exposition, on Pennsylvania Day (25th inst.) as one of the suite of Gov. Hartranft.

H. E. Schwartz, one of the leading and most active Democrats of Kildler township, visited Mauch Chunk on Tuesday of this week.

Passenger traffic over the L. V. R. R. continues heavy. Mauch Chunk is receiving its share of visitors, and landlords are happy.

In the Democratic family-circle things are anything but very harmonious. Bickering and jealousies predominate, but after the convention this state of affairs will subside, and again give way to better feeling.

Passenger train bands on the L. & S. Division of the Central R. R. have lately been curtailed. Where formerly were three crews, there being now but two.

I was going to put a handle to his name, but being better known as plain "Dan" Kalfbas, I would say concerning him that he left on Thursday morning's early train for the Hooper Station, which he's been engaged to stump for Tilden, Hendricks, Reform, and Prosperity. And "Dan" knows how to do it.

A young man, known as Capt. Jack, employed as a brakeman on the Central R. R., on Monday night shot himself with a revolver, accidentally, at Tancy's a wounded wrist is the result.

A young man, son of Levi Hartz, in the employ, as brakeman, of the L. V. R. R. Co., was squeezed to death, while in the act of coupling cars at Centraula, on Wednesday last.

The torch-light procession of the various Vaux and Wheeler clubs of this vicinity, on Friday night of last week, though not very numerous, attended by the rank and file of the voting population was a decided success, but the speaking, at Upper Mauch Chunk, was too much of the harum scarum kind to be called effective.

Hon. Andrew Jackson Durling was in town on Monday last, and the likewise expectant H. J. G. Newmiller on Wednesday, looking after their chances for legislative honors.

Recorder Phillips, after having given his testimony in the Duffy case, returned to his desk on Saturday last, after an absence, at Pottsville, of several days duration.

Jno. Brighton has lately added a show-window to "Our House," and Mrs. Abr. Shortz has lately erected a new awning for Jonas Sondheim, who occupies her large store on Susquehanna street.

LANDISVILLE.—This is the name of the new town the enterprising founder of Vineland has laid out. Of course, during these hard times, it is not expected that the sale of lots will be as rapid as when the latter city was projected, but, still, sufficient has been realized and enough work undertaken to greatly encourage Mr. Landis. The same wise regulations that governed Vineland will be adopted in Landisville, and the same spirit of enterprise that pushed forward Vineland will hasten the fortunes of Landisville. Read the advertisement in another column, and if you have any spare funds for speculation, or desire to secure a cheap, comfortable and pleasant home, with the prospect of work all the year round at decent rates, buy a lot at Landisville and put up a house there. For further particulars apply to Mr. Chas. K. Landis, Vineland, N. J.

INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION. Next week, September 25th to 30th is Pennsylvania week. Pennsylvanians are expected to assemble at the Centennial Grounds, during the week, and especially Thursday, Sept. 28th to join in the commemoration of the One Hundredth Anniversary of the signing of the first State Constitution, when Gov. Hartranft and staff, with other distinguished persons will be present and an oration will be delivered by the Hon. Benjamin Harris Brewster, in Judges' Hall, at 11 o'clock a. m. After the oration, a reception by the Governor, will be held in the Pennsylvania State Building.

Obituary. Milton W. Raudenbush, son of Adam and Anna Maria Raudenbush, departed this life at his home at Packerton, on Sunday last, the 17th inst., of consumption, leaving a bright evidence "that if his earthly tabernacle shall be dissolved, that he has a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." The subject of this memoir was born in Milford township, Bucks county, Pa., on the 27th of June, 1827, entered the state of matrimony in 1849, with Sophia Rader, with whom he lived 27 years, and was blessed with 3 children, of whom an infant son predeceased the father to the land of immortality. He was a consistent and worthy member of the M. E. church, at Packerton. By his death the church has lost a useful and active member, his family a devoted husband and father, the aged mother an affectionate son, his neighbors a kind and true friend, but he has gained an immortal crown of glory. Truly their loss is his eternal gain. He attained the age of 49 years, 8 months and 10 days. The funeral services, on Wednesday, were held at the Evangelical church, in Lehighton, the occasion being improved by Rev. J. C. Blum, who preached a very appropriate and eloquent sermon to a large and deeply interested congregation, he was assisted by Rev. G. W. Townsend, of Claymont, Del., formerly pastor of the Packerton M. E. church. Deceased was interred in the Lehighton Cemetery by the brotherhood of "Free Masons," in a solemn and impressive manner. He leaves a wife and two children—a son and daughter, an aged mother, brothers, sisters and many friends to mourn their loss, but not such that have no hope. May the good Lord comfort them. A FRIEND.

As previously notified in the ADVOCATE, debt warrants were issued by Gen. Hartranft, on Sept. 7th, for the hanging, on Oct. 31st, of Thos. Munley, James Carroll, James Boyle, Hugh McGeehan, and James Roarty, the Molly Maguires who were found guilty of murder in the first degree, and on Sept. 12, a similar warrant was issued for the hanging of Alexander Campbell, convicted of the murder of John P. Jones, in Carbon county. Each of these men, except Thos. Munley, writes of error were, on Thursday of last week, taken out in the Supreme Court, in Philadelphia, and were made returnable next January. The escape of the five Mollys is the result of the special legislation resorted to, over six years ago, for the purpose of saving the neck of the notorious Dr. Schaepppe. The bill, passed Feb. 4th, 1870, is as follows:

That in all cases of murder voluntarily committed by a man or woman, or by a child of the age of 14 years or over, or by a child of the age of 12 years or over, or by a child of the age of 10 years or over, or by a child of the age of 8 years or over, or by a child of the age of 6 years or over, or by a child of the age of 4 years or over, or by a child of the age of 2 years or over, or by a child of the age of 1 year or over, or by a child of the age of 6 months or over, or by a child of the age of 3 months or over, or by a child of the age of 1 month or over, or by a child of the age of 6 days or over, or by a child of the age of 3 days or over, or by a child of the age of 1 day or over, or by a child of the age of 6 hours or over, or by a child of the age of 3 hours or over, or by a child of the age of 1 hour or over, or by a child of the age of 6 minutes or over, or by a child of the age of 3 minutes or over, or by a child of the age of 1 minute or over, or by a child of the age of 6 seconds or over, or by a child of the age of 3 seconds or over, or by a child of the age of 1 second or over, or by a child of the age of 6 tenths or over, or by a child of the age of 3 tenths or over, or by a child of the age of 1 tenth or over, or by a child of the age of 6 hundredths or over, or by a child of the age of 3 hundredths or over, or by a child of the age of 1 hundredth or over, or by a child of the age of 6 thousandths or over, or by a child of the age of 3 thousandths or over, or by a child of the age of 1 thousandth or over, or by a child of the age of 6 ten thousandths or over, or by a child of the age of 3 ten thousandths or over, or by a child of the age of 1 ten thousandth or over, or by a child of the age of 6 hundred thousandths or over, or by a child of the age of 3 hundred thousandths or over, or by a child of the age of 1 hundred thousandth or over, or by a child of the age of 6 millionths or over, or by a child of the age of 3 millionths or over, or by a child of the age of 1 millionth or over, or by a child of the age of 6 billionths or over, or by a child of the age of 3 billionths or over, or by a child of the age of 1 billionth or over, or by a child of the age of 6 trillionths or over, or by a child of the age of 3 trillionths or over, or by a child of the age of 1 trillionth or over, or by a child of the age of 6 quadrillionths or over, or by a child of the age of 3 quadrillionths or over, or by a child of the age of 1 quadrillionth or over, or by a child of the age of 6 quintillionths or over, or by a child of the age of 3 quintillionths or over, or by a child of the age of 1 quintillionth or over, or by a child of the age of 6 sextillionths or over, or by a child of the age of 3 sextillionths or over, or by a child of the age of 1 sextillionth or over, or by a child of the age of 6 septillionths or over, or by a child of the age of 3 septillionths or over, or by a child of the age of 1 septillionth or over, or by a
