PHILA., Pa., Oct. 11, 1876. DEAR ADVOCATE :- "Gone over to the majority" was "The Times" heading to its obituary list of Tuesday last. Every exhibitor seems to have the best medal and the first award.

I hope the school teachers of Carbon county will have a good time on Tuesday next, as I understand they intend visiting the Centennial on that day.

The International exhibition of sheep and swine began on Tuesday last. The entries of sheep are 778 American, 60 English and 50 Canadian. Those of swine are 393 American, 50 English and 40 Canadian. All these animals are of superior breeds and are well worth seeing. This exhibit closes Oct.

The exhibition will positively close on November 10th. So says the the United States Centennial Commission in the following preamble and resolution:

Whereas, Several communications, verbal as well as written, have been presented to commissioners asking for information as to whether or not the time for closing the Exhibition should not be extended beyond the 10th day of November, therefore be it Resolved, That, in accordance with our previous action, we hereby deciare that the Centennial Exhibition shall be closed on the 10th day of November

The Centennial exhibit of poultry will commence on the 20th inst., and it is said the display will be attractive in every respect.

The Philadelphia and Reading Railroad will build its locomotives after this with brass trimmings or ornaments.

The agony in Ohio and Indiana being over, the people will breath more freely. Both parsies had the victory last night. So the clubs of both parties turned out and paraded the streets with bands of music and plenty of torches. As nothing really definite was known by either of the claus at the time it would have been well if a third party had marched the streets and displayed a transparency with the following device- Don't count your chickens un-til they are intened."

Another grand display of fireworks will be made at the Centennial on the evening of the 19th inst.

Yours, Briefly, NAGCUTIO.

P. S. I would say something about your candidates for Speriff but I hav'nt all the points I'd wish. I understand the name of one is Ran Den Tree and that the other is a Painter (or "Boss Painter" I've heard him called). Now post me on both. What are the "Boss Painter's principlal works. I judge be is a good artist anyway.

-A letter from Savannah states that up to last week there had been over 1. 300 interments in the city since August 21st, four-fifths of which were yellow fever cases. Very few people remain in the city who have not had the fever. The letter states that "not one of the full-blooded blacks has yet been attacked with any symptoms. Where there is the slightest taint or mixture of blood however, the ravages of the epidemic are apparent. Justly appreciating their happy immunity, the colored men and women have banded together in a little army of their own, and have performed a most efficient service from the very beginning of the disaster. They are to be found in every house where the disease is raging at its utmost, and their attention has something poetic in the sacrifices which surround it." The number of victims of the fever is now diminishing, and it is hoped that frost will soon put an end to it.

-The subscribers to the stock of the great Centennial Exhibition, it is now said, will receive a dividend on their shares of at least 50, and, perhaps, 75 per cent. This is largely more than was expected, as probably not one subscriber in a hundred ever supposed it would pay back a cent; indeed, in many instances the scrip has been framed and hung up as an heir-loom for future generations of the family now possessing it.

Indicate the election of Williams, Demoerat, for Governor, by a majority of from 6,000 to 8,000 and the election of the entire State ticket. In Ohio the Republicans have carried the State by an estimated majority of between 3,000 and 5,000. The vote for Governor in West Virginia is estimated at 10,000 majority for Matthews, Democrat. It is impossible to give anything like exact figures until the official figures are received.
