

Society Meetings.

MEMBER'S TRIBE, No. 10, O. E. F. M. meets in Heber's Hall, every Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Advertising Rates.

Advertisements in this column are inserted in the columns of THE CARBON ADVOCATE at the following rates:

E. R. SEWERS,

DISTRICT ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW. OFFICE, No. 2, Second Floor, Philadelphia, Pa.

The Carbon Advocate.

SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 21, 1876.

Local and Personal.

Parties receiving the ADVOCATE with a cross marked after their names will please remit the amount due for subscription, or the extra 50 cents will be added to pay the expenses of collection.

Now you may shut that door. O'Brien's circus to-day (Saturday).

Lehigh Hook & Ladder Co.'s ball, Nov. 10th.

Corsets at E. H. Snyder's at 35 cents each.

Almanacs for 1877 are putting in an appearance.

The Nazareth Fair too was a failure financially.

Another stock of New Goods at E. H. Snyder's.

Scarlet fever, in a mild form, is still prevalent in our borough.

The shares of the First National Bank of Easton sell for $81 each.

Potatoes are now selling at $1 per bushel on our streets—that's too much!

New telegraph poles are being put up along the line of the Lehigh Valley railroad.

We hear that Mr. Nathan Klotz will shortly resume possession of the 'Eagle' at Summit Hill.

Specie ain't worth quite as much as paper; but it is needed for change; therefore keep it moving.

During Saturday night last the first snow-storm of the season visited this locality—only a slight flurry.

The Philadelphia and Reading Railroad are reducing work at their shops at Reading and elsewhere.

The Thomas Iron Company have now in blast six furnaces, two at Lock Ridge and four at Hokenanqua.

The Allentown Rolling Mill company last week made a shipment of 500 tons of No. 1 and No. 2 iron.

The fall meeting of the Bittersville Driving Park Association will be held on the 25th, 26th, 27th and 28th inst.

Persons who had exhibits at our Fair can see the Premium List at the store of A. G. Jollennayer, on South street.

Hon. A. J. Durling has been in attendance at the meeting of Congressional Congresses during the past few days.

Newell, a little son of E. H. Rhodes, of this place, had a finger broken while pling firewood a day or so ago.

Ladies will find it E. H. Snyder's the finest and cheapest stock of Dress Goods and Trimmings ever offered in Lehigh.

The Shenandoah postmaster, who formerly received $2,000, has been reduced to $1,300. $2,000 has been reduced from $2,000 to $1,000.

Communion services will be held in the Reform Church, Weissport on Sunday morning, 22nd inst., and preaching in the evening, at 6:30, by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Freeman.

The merchants' association of Shenandoah are offering a special reward of five dollars to the policemen in the neighborhood for the arrest of peddlars.

The receipts for admissions to the Huntington county fair amounted to the magnificent sum of forty-eight dollars. This seems to be an "off year" for fairs.

J. K. Rickett has still a few of those eligible lots in Ricketts town to dispose of. If you feel like securing a good home call and see him. He is also supplying flour, feed, lumber and coal at the lowest rates.

The Large Sale still continues at the Original Cheap Cash Store, and J. T. Nustbaum and Son take the lead in giving the best bargains in dry goods, fancy dress goods, &c. Beautiful shawls at 85c., worth $1.25.

F. P. Semmel offers at private sale, on very reasonable terms, seventeen very pleasantly located building lots on the old fair grounds, in this borough. This offers a rare opportunity for persons desiring to build themselves a home. For further particulars apply to F. P. Semmel, at his hardware store, on Bank Street.

DR. FITZLER'S RHEUMATIC REMEDY cures rheumatism, neuralgia, nervous and kidney diseases. DR. FITZLER'S PROTRIAL SYRUP, infallible for coughs, colds and bronchitis. DR. FITZLER'S COMBIDAL CALIBRYA, LINIMENT AND VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS sold by C. W. Lentz, sole agent for Lehigh and Weissport.

Letter from Mauch Chunk.

Mauch Chunk, Oct. 16, 1876.

Monday last, being opening day of Court, drew together an unusually large crowd, besides which the leading political element of both parties was well represented.

—Oysters are new in season. Our jovial friend, Fin her, served us with his "Mountain Democrat" on the half shell this week. His subscription list is growing, no doubt.

—General Henry Pleasant, mining engineer of Pottsville, and the "hero of the Petersburg mine" during the war, who went to Europe in poor health, has returned quite well.

—The total receipts of the Carbon County Industrial Society at their recent fair were $1,506.85. Last year the receipts amounted to $1,500.95.

—Harry Moon, aged 14, was killed at Carbonade on Thursday on the gravity railroad. He was meddling with the machinery and was crushed to death on the drum around which the wire rope is coiled.

—King Dick offered his kingdom for a horse, but you can get one for a very small amount in greenbacks at David Ebert's popular livery in this borough. You can easily satisfy yourself by calling upon him.

—Some miserable sneak broke into the house of Mr. C. Nethersin, on Thursday last, while the family were in attendance at the fair grounds, and stole a silver watch, a pocket book containing in the neighborhood of $70, and a few minor articles. No clue.

—Why suffer with a bad cold if one bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will cure a cough of the worst kind. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is sold for 25 cents per bottle, or five bottles for $1.00, in every respectable drug store in the United States.

—The thief who robbed the banking house of L. Myers, at Wilkesbarre, has sent him a letter from Easton enclosing sent notes, papers of value, and bonds as well as available for his purposes. Such liberality is as rare as it is commendable.

—The school book fiend is wide awake this year, and from all quarters the cry of protest comes from vitiated parents in regard to school book changes, school books and the constantly increasing number of text books the pupil is required to purchase.

—Hello! Here you are, ladies, Daniel Graver, of the Bee Hive store, has just returned from the city with another lot of these new and elegant designs in ladies dress goods, which he is selling at astonishingly low prices. Also a full line of dry goods, groceries and provisions, at lowest prices. Call early.

—Mr. Seabolt, agent at the Lehigh Valley depot, informs us that large numbers of small boys are in the daily habit of playing along the railroad track, to the imminent danger of life or limb. We think it advisable for parents to see to this matter, and keep their children off the track, or the consequences may be very serious.

—The Democratic rally at Mauch Chunk on Thursday evening, was attended by a large number of persons—the Court House being literally packed. Speeches were made by ex-Gov. Bigler, E. J. Fox, Esq., of Easton, and Dan Kalbhusen, Esq., of Mauch Chunk. The speakers were eloquent and the audience enthusiastic, for Tilden, Hendricks and Reform.

—It's never out of season to advertise, but now is the very best time to advertise fall and winter goods, because the weather jogs the reader's memory and won't let him forget what he saw in the paper about those winter fixings he's got to have; and besides, people are looking for invitations to buy.

—Our young friend, Lewis Gaggus, of this borough, employed as a brakeman on the Lehigh Valley R. R. freight, fell from the top of a box car, at Mauch Chunk, on Tuesday last, injuring his left side and arm severely, though not dangerously. He is able to be around.

—On Wednesday afternoon of last week, at one o'clock, the barn belonging to Mr. Elias Kleppinger, near Kridersville, Northampton county, was totally destroyed by fire. Two horses, four head of cattle, grain, hay, farming implements, &c., were lost. The loss is estimated at six thousand dollars, but whether it is covered by insurance or not we were unable to learn.

SHERIFF.—J. W. Raudenbush, Esq., of Lehigh, is the Democratic candidate for Sheriff of Carbon county, and his well known ability and thorough Democratic views, coupled with his gentlemanly demeanor, will surely tell at the election and we feel confident Carbon county has no more capable a citizen for Sheriff than Mr. Raudenbush.—Valley Record.

—The third annual ball of Lehigh Hook and Ladder Co., of this borough, will take place on Friday evening, November 10th, in the large and elegant hall of the new school building. Great preparations are being made for the occasion, and it is expected that it will eclipse all former efforts. The celebrated Eureka Orchestra, of Allentown, has been engaged to furnish the music, which announcement alone is sufficient to draw a crowd. Tickets $1.00.

—The Geneva Ithaca and Sayre Railroad Company, the same that was sold under foreclosure of mortgage a month ago and purchased by the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, was reorganized at Waverly Tuesday by the election of Robert A. Paeker as president, Charles Hartshorne as treasurer, Robert H. Fanshawe as secretary, and William Stevenson as superintendent. The back coupons of the Ithaca and Athens Railroad Company bonds, it is announced, will be paid November 1, at the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company's office in Philadelphia.

—About noon Wednesday, Mrs. Robert Purcell and a young daughter, aged thirteen years, of Terrance Doyle were picking coal at Shoemaker's colliery, near Mafoony City, when a train of cars from the mine came one way and a train of railroad cars came from the opposite direction. The woman and child, through some cause or other, were caught by the train of mine cars, and were terribly injured. Mrs. Purcell had her hand torn to such an extent that it was necessary to amputate it, and the girl had her foot torn so bad that amputation was also necessary.
