MONDAY. A. W. Leisenring, (letter in hand): Received this letter, by mai, from Thomas P. Fraher. It was received during Alex. Campbell's trist. Saw Mr. Albright after receiving it, and subsequently Mr. Fisher . . . Counsel for defense again object, this time to a subsequent conversation had between winess and the prisoner. More argument, which consumes about three quarters of an hour. During all this time the prisoners watch proceedings closely. Their eyes are upon their counsel, they are oblivious to all else transpiring around them. The following letter is then each by Mr. Hughes, it being the identical letter claimed to have been received by Mr. Essenring from Thos. P. Fisher: SUMKIT Hill. June 24, 1876.

ing the identical letter calined to have been recoived by Mr. Leisenring from Thos. P. Flaher.

SUMKIT HILL, June 24, 1876.

A. W. LEISENRING—DEAR SIR—As a friend I wish you could find out of Mr. Albright if the commonwealth intends to put me to any trouble. I am not straid that I have done anything strainwhil, but I know Mr. Wm. Zahner is no friend of mine, and he would hise to put me to some trouble if he could influence Mr. Albright sile particulars. I would have spoke to Mr. Siewers, the District Altorney, but as I asked him for a invor after his election and he seemed to laze no steps, so that is the reason that I would not ask him saything. But the time may come when he may come to me and sak favors or me as he has done before when he was looking for office. I have no acquaintance with Mr. Alprigit or I would see him on the matter. As you heard, Mc. aran mention my name several times on the stand, but I am not in anywise alamned at any thing he said, but a man like him could be influenced to put a man to trouble.
Mr. Leisenring I you would tend to this I would not forget you in anything I can do for you. And if Mr. Albright does what is right I could be his friend in a pointeas way as I am at inberty to do as I pease. As you see I was an applicant for the duplicate and they gave it to quite a young man wao never has done anything for the party. So I intend this fail to play some political tricks to show them want they have done. Mr. Leisenring I am giving you great fromble but I hope I will be able to may you or your friends some recompense sometime.

Yours truly.

Filomas P. Fisher.

James Kerrigan: Heard a conversation between Fisher and Mokonna on Severalsy night.

James Kerrigan; Heard a conversation between Fisher and McKenna on Schurlag night in the Jail, Heard Fisher to I McKenna toat during the Campbell trial he had written a letter to 8 man named Leisenring, at M. Chunk, asking him to find out if the commonwealth was going to make any trouble for him. He said that Leisenring had shown the letter to Gen. Adorght and the Datrict Attorney. McKenna said that some but a blockhead would have done him, as it booked like being sunity but Fisher sind that Leisenring was a good friend of his, and that he lies had been suited that Leisenring was a good friend of his, and that he liesenring was a good friend of his, and that he thought he would do what was right Q Didn't you begranything clock A. Mrs. Haldeman: Corroborates last witness in most particulars, but did not see the fish of the pistol.

David Morgan: Was at summit Hill at the time Mogan Powell was stok. Was at Thomas Philippe house when I heard a shot firee and somebody calling out." I am shot." Directly after saw Fisher and Mokenna coming towards me from the direction of the railroad. They were walking. Went down to Williamson's to see who had been shot. Have no doubt about it that Fisher said McKenna were the men I met. Cross examined: Started out of the house as soon as I heard the shot.

Morgan Price: Was cating supper at the time I heard Morgan Powell was also. My residence was on White street. Left the house and went down towards Williamson's George Livans and myself met, and when near the outside when five met McKenna. We saked him what was up, he said. "Oh, nothing but a big lightning bug." It might have been about seven o'clock when I heard of the shooting.

Gross-examined: Can't tell who the man in McKenna's company was.

Lived then between the Catholic church and Williamson's.

Cross-examination: Never heard any conversations between Powell and McKenna any that he and powell were on good trams, and th which is, of course, objected to by counsel for the prosecution. Authorities are cited by both partles, and some discussion ensues, during which Court adjourns.

A. W. Leisenring: Referring to an interview had with risher subsequently to recent of letter says "that the laster, at the time expressed his fears lest Mr. Patrian might interpret what was said at a certain counstite meeting as a threat." At the time of that meeting both parties were sangry; there were some differences on terms; hever heart anything detrimental to Pisher's character.

Cross-stamination: Hank's keard of the Andenried difficulty in consequence of which Pisher had been sent to the Peolitentiary; heard it asserted that he was a Molly Maguire.

Fashionable Winter Clothing

T D. Clauss, the merchant tailor, is almost daily receiving additions to his large and elegant stock of winter goods, comprising cloths, eassimeres and vestings of the latest designs and the best manufacture, which he is pre-pared to make up in the most fashion-able and durable manner, at prices ful ly as low as the same material and workmanship can be obtained for in any other town in the State. Also, a full line of gent's furnishing goods, hats, caps, boots, shoes and galters suitable for the wear of this section, and manufactured expressley to his order. The entire stock has been purchased on an entirely cash basis, and as he is selling for cash only he is able to sell at such prices as will astonish purchasers. Call and examine goods and prices before purchasing elsewhere.

Extensive arrangements are making by the teachers and friends of the M. E. Sunday school, of this place, for holding of a Christmas entertainment, in the large hall of the Public Schoolin the large hall of the Public School-House, on Saturday evening next, Dec. 28. The programme will comprise: Duets, Solos, Christmas Inscriptions, Recitations, What is a Christmas, and Responsive Readings. A large Christmas tree, well filled with goodies will be erected in the hall, the articles from which will be distributed among the children of the school. Prof. H. A. children of the school. Prof. H. A. Kline, will preside at the organ and lead the exercises. Admission, adults, 20 cents, children, 10 cents.

Remember that a table-poinful of black pep-per will prevent gray or bull lines from spot-ting if strived it to the first water in which they are wastled. It will also prevent the colors running, when washing black or colored can-bries or musius, and the water is not nighted by it, but just as soft as before the pepper was put in.
