The Carbon Advocate. H. V. MORTHIMER. EDITOR LEHIGHTON, PA.: SATURDAY MORNING, DEC 20, 1876.

-We wish our patrons, one and all, & VERY HAPPY NEW YEAR !

-The steamship Britannie, from New York, arrived at Quenstown Sunday, having made the passage in 7 days, 13 hours. This is the fastest time on record yet.

-According to the annual report of the Commissioner of Education, only one State, Delaware, and three Terri tories, the Indian, New Mexico, and Wyoming, make no report of their school population. In the other 36 States and Territories there are 14,007,-522 children entitled by their several laws to instruction. The total number of pupils enrolled in the public schools in the States and Territories is 8,750,-659.

-"The New York Saturday Journal is now the Leading Literary Paper of New York," a verdict we can cheerfully endorse. It adds to its attractions by bestowing on all subscribers for four months (one dollar) au exquisite oleograph chromo, "Look at Me, Mamma" a companion plece to "Fast Asleep" and "Wide Awake," only more beautiful and valuable than they. This oleograph we have received, and regard it as one of the pest chromos ever presented as a premium by any weekly papera very charming picture indeed-an ornament to any room. We will receive and forward all subscriptions for the Saturday Journal, or will club it with our own paper. furnishing the Journal and the chromo, with our own paper, for one year, for the sum of $3.25. The publishers' price for the Saturday Journal alone is $3,00 a year, $1.00 for four months.

-Says the Philadelphia Times Within the last few days, positive Republican expressions are to be met with on every hand denouncing any attempt to force Hayes into the Presidency in accordance with the Administration plan. The most significant declaration is that of Chief Justice Walte, whose opinions are not concealed on the issue. sithough he has expressed them with the prudence that becomes his position. He is the personal and political friend aud neighbor of Gov. Hayes, and all his sympathies are naturally with the Republican candidate ; but he has declared that the result must depend upon the facts in the disputed States, and that the present aspect of the controversy points very strongly to the election and proper inauguration of Tilden. It is now well understood in political circles here that the Supreme Court cannot be trusted to declare Hayes elected, strongly Republican as it is, and this development has done much to demoralize the aiready weak Morton-Sherman leadership.

-The U. S. Senate has been regard-the Fort by the close of this week. In all their marches and manœuvres they found no Indian force that would stand to fight, though the Indians, in small squads, kept flying about them, in front, and on the rear and flanks, watching all their movements and communicating with the main bodies of the Indians, who were thus enabled to successfully carry out their policy of avoidance. The military operations against the Sloux this year have not been as successful as the operations of the Peace Commission. Sitting Bull, Crazy Horse, and their partles, are as free now as they were a year ago, though the campaign has been quite destructive of human life, and its crowning event, the Custer massacre, will long be remembered.

Celebrating the Eighth of January. Says the N. Y. Sun : The Eighth of January appears to have been fixed upon by spontaneous agreement throughout the country as the day for holding public meetings to protest against changing the result of the Presidential election by force and fraud and making a man President against whom the majority of the people and of the States have voted. This is a perfectly proper movement, and the day chosen is exceedingly suitable for such a purpose. The Eighth of January is memorable in our history as the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans. That battle was the turning point of the last struggle between the United States and England. Its result did much, very much, to establish the American people as a nation in the world; and its glory is inseparably connected with the name of Andrew Jackson, a great man and one of our great Presidents, destined to a long renown not only as a military here and an original and courageous statesman, but as a champion of the people and their successful defender against the encroachments of a great moneyed power.

The liberties of the people are now threatened by a most formidable conspiracy. A combination of officeholders, supported by the most powerful political party known in our history, are engaged in faisifying the votes cast at a national election, and taking, through fraud and violence, from a man whom the people have elected, the office of President, and giving it to another man whom the people have rejected. This constitutes a more dangerous atlack upon our country and its democratic institutions than the attack of Great Britain that was folled at New Orleans sigty two ago. Let us hope that the popular protest which will be uttered on the Eighth of January next will be as efficacious in driving back the public enemy as were the deadly rifles of our sharpshooters and the martial genius of Jackson at New Orleans.

Washington Letter.

From our Special Correspondent. Wasaington, D. C., Dec. 26th, 1876. MR. EDITOR :--Christmas is, indeed, a right merry time in Washington. Something unusually jolly has been ap-parent on most of the faces one would meet on the street for several days past, ard Saturday the sidewalks were thronged with people loaded down with packages and bundles of every descrip-

Republicans and three Democratsthat from the House, three Republicans and four Democrats-thus making an even thing of it. If this committe au-ceeds in originating anything likel a feasible plan for the settlement of this much vexed question, it will be deserv-ing of a prominent place in coming history, and the desc-mannes of the indi-viduals composing it may be justly proud of the wisdom and clear sighted-ness of their progenitors.

On Saturday, B.F. Butler, who has been several days in town, was report-ed to have said that the only possible adjustment of the present political dis-turbances must be brought about by a wholly new election. To-day he denies the truth of the report and says "Of course the person who overheard what I said, and resported it, reported only as much of what I dld say as he could overhear and understand. I was speaking of a proposed compromise between Tilden and Mr. Hayes, and I said Mr that there was but one compromise posable : everything else was an abandonment of Mr. Hayes by the Republican party or the abandonment of Mr. Tilden by the Democratic party. And that compromise was that both their claims might be submitted to a new election, under the law of 1792, if all parties agreed in not counting the votes on account of their doubts of the fairness the election. I did not and have not of given any opinion of my own as to the feasibility or propriety of taking that course. I simply pointed out a road which might be taken if anybody chose to take it; no more, no less." M.M.W.

Our Philadelphia Letter.

DEAR ADVOCATE :- I shall not write you again this year.

It will soon be time for us to examine our letters and see how many will write 1876 instead of 1877.

The favorite song of the police is : "Give us arrest."

They seem to want Hayes in at Washington, but they won't have bag-ing at Annapolis. Thousands of our citizens derive great pleasure and profit in getting be-hind "The Times," and they do it "every morning, except Sundays,"then they go to church "Returning Board ?" catch me doing It," said an irate landlady, "we poor folks eatch it enough on hash, let alone returning board."

Here's an advertisement from a London paper : Note MACHINE A CONTRIVANCE WHICH, applied to the nove for an borr daily, so directs the soft cartifage of which the momber consists, that an ill formed now is quickly staged to perfection, for ed. sent by post for stamps, ALEX, Ross, 248 High Holloon.

Fair lady, if your beau bas a crooked nose, what better Christmas present could you give him than a "Nose Machine." Fond lover, has thy sweet-heart an uneven nose? Make her happy and let her make herself a graceful nose by using your present of a "Nose Machine." What a spiendid thing a "Nose Machine" would be for children whose noses are out of joint on account of a "fresh arrival" or because of disappointment in Christmas presents ed as the more permanent legislative body of the government and as little liable to the changes that occur through popular excitement, but this has not been the case recently, according to a statement made on the floor of the Senate last week. In the course of an impressive eulogy on Senator Caperton of West Virginia, who died last summer, Senator Edmunds, on Thursday, stated that the Senate has now only three members who held their seats during the administration of President Lincoln. and only eleven who participated in the impeachment trial of Andrew Johnson in 1868. The three Senators whose terms of service date back to the time of President Lincoln are Mr. Anthony, who took his seat in 1859; Mr. Sherman, whose first term began 1861; and hir. Howe, whose membership also dates back to 1861. Mr. Cameron was tu the Senate as long ago as 1845, but he resigned in 1861 to take the office of Secretary of War, and did not return to his seat until 1867. Mr. Hamlin, although not a Senator during Mr. Lindoln's administration, presided over the body in' virtue of his office as Vice-President of the United States.

-According to the intelligence received from the far West, the offensive winter campaign against the Sionx has probably been abandoned. This campaigh was planned by Generals Sheriden and Grook last autumn, and was personally conducted by the latter officer. A strong expedition was fitted out at Fort Fetterman, so strong, in fact, that Sitting Bull, and Grazy Horse, and the other hostifes, could not hope in defeat it, so they adopted their usual tactles in such emergencies, of getting out of the way. The expedition seems to have marched about the Black Hills country until ad its supplies were exhausted, and then concluded to return to Fort Fetterman. This determination, which is abandonment of the expedition, was arrived at last week, and determining upon some method for counting the electoral vote. The com-

tion, baby-carriages and little wheel-barrows predominating. Towering evergreens go whisking by and yesterday, though it was Sunday, many were seen hurrying along the streets with arms full of packages and even Christmas trees were in several houses in process of preparation. The weather is, and has been for a week or more, colder than has been known here for years, and, although there is really not snow enough for sleighing, still, as the ground is partially covered, quite a number of sleights are out-odd looking affairs enough, to Northerners, and any accustomed to three or four months in the year of deep snow-some are of willow and remind one forcibly of huge baskets or enlarged willow rock-a-byes on runners, while others are scarcely more than a wide board with a rude seat tilled atop. Congress, contrary to custom and all precedent has decided to take no extended holiday recess but only to adjourn for two days at Christmas and two at New Years'. This is not on ac-count of any particular press of business or for the accomplishment of any special work (for it is tacitly understood that they shall meet from day to day only to adjourn during the holidays) but in order to be in readiness for any emergency that might possibly occur. In reality, Congress is only nominally in session. Every day about half a quorum toll up Capitol Hill and then saunter leisurely down again and there is at no time a quorum present during these days, alost of the members, whose homes are in this vicinity, have gone there to spend Christmas but it been agreed that a quorum shall be present on Monday for the purpose of transacting some business relative to the trouble concerning the telegraph dispatches that were sent over the Western Union Telegraph during the election and which, Mr. Orton, Presi-dent of that Company, refuses to give up. The affair has excited a good deal up. The affair has excited a good hear of interest and has been much discussed at the Capitol. The arrest of Mr. Barnes, manager of the Western Union Telegraph has been ordered, and there the matter now stands.
