"Oh, Harry, how cruel you are! You know I love you better than all the world, only-1 dare not marry again ! Don't be angry-please don't be angry with me !" And Mr. Levison looked down at her lovely face, and assured her he never could be angry with her, and then went away, heaping silent maledictions on the head of the defunct husband who had been tyrant enough to burden his lovely young wife with such a promise. The last sunset rays were flinging their golden and scarlet pennons on the pale, blue-gray sky sitting-room when Mr. Levison opened the door of his cozy sitting-room, at home, to be met by the laughing face and gay welcome of a young gentleman, who had evidently been making himself at home while he waited.

waited. "Heigho, Levison | Surprised to see me ? How are you, oid fellow-how are you ?"

Mr. Levison stared a second, then greeted him warmly. "Fred Willard 1 Where, in the name

To which Nellie, all pale, alarmed and crimson with confusion, penciled an answer, assuring him she had chang-ed her mind, and begging him to coue over to lunch, to see her and meet her prother-in-law, who had only just arrived from abroad.

Of course Mr. Levison came, and it didu't take two minutes to settle it, nor did he laugh at her when she solemnly related her experience of the previous night. "For it was his ghost, Harry, just as true as I am ally and speaking to you." "A jolly old—I mean, a thoughtful, painstaking spirit, Nellie ! Bless his ghostship, we'll hold him in eternal re membranes. mbra

While $34,000 is due from the State, only $1000 has been paid since last spring.

-A Mrs. Hays, of West Bloomfield, N. J., accompanied by her infant child, went to visit some friends near Paterson, the other evening, and on getting out of the sleigh she found that her child had coased to breathe. It is sap-posed that in wrapping the little one in the buffalo robe all air was excluded and the little one was sufficiated.

-Among the abundant vegetable productions of California the olive is beginning ta claim attention as a pro-fitable crop. The manufacture of the oil costs about $1 per gallon, and its net value is $3 per gallon, being $500 to the acre. The San Francisco Alta encourages emigration to California, by remarking that there is now a good opening in that State for one million white men with very scanty capital, in the cultivation of the clive, almond and fruits for drying.
