Burglars Arrested.

For some time past we have heard of beries and burgiaries in this section, but up to hast Tuesday, sufficient evi-dence had not been obtained to warrant the arrest of the guilty parties, although the arrest of the guilty parties, although suspicion was strong in regard to them, and they were closely watched. On Tuesday last, however, at the instance of Constable Jos. S. Webb, of this borough, Mr., S. H. Rutler, assistant freight agent of the L. & S. R. R. at Nauch (hunds anneared before feat Mattch Chunk, appeared before Esp. T. S. Beck, of this place, and lodged information to the effect that said company had, at different times and place along this section of the road, lost packages of goods, tickets, keys, &c.; and subsequently Anron Friedman, ciothier, of this place, and J. K. Rickert, flour and feed dealer, of E. Weissport, also appears d with information that articles had been stolen from their premi es, wherenpon Esq. Beck issued search warrants upon the premises of Uroin Biyet, W.a. H. Boyer and Jonathan Ucibert, the former of Weissport, and the two latter of Franklin. Constable Webb, with a posse, proceeded to the premises to make search, with following results. In the house of Urbin Boyer; One shot gun on the top of bake oven rolled up in a pair of oid pants, blie flaures shirt, rolled up in an old quiit in a table drawer, gold pen and pen holder, in a coat pocket up stairs, one vest in table drawer, and one lap blanket in a stand drawer. At Wm. II. Boyer's, nailed up under the garret steps: one overcoat, one pair boots, 6 common keys, and 1 trepran. The following articles had been sold by Milton Diebert: a Lantern (white lamp and green globe), 1 lever clock,

I hair brush, and one ladles' bracelet. The property was identified by J. T. Weston, C. H. R. Co., L. V. R. R. Co., Nathan Snyder, A. Friedman and Hi-ram Rickett. The parties arrrested were Milton Diebert, Geo. Boyer, Ur-bin Boxer, W., Boxer and War H. bin Bover. Wm. Boyer and Wm. H. Sowers. The latter after a hearing before Esq. Beck was honorably discharged. Milton Deibert and Geo. Boyer, in de-fault of $1,300 ball each, were taken to J. W. Raudenbush's hotel at Mauch Chunk. Urbin Boyer estered bail in $300 for his appearance at court, W. Boyer was held in $300 for his appearance at our court, and in the sum of $400 for his appearance at the Northamption court at Easton.

Among the keys found are some of the L. V., Central of N. J., Del. Lack, & Western, P. & N. Y. Uen., North Penna, and Penna, E. R.

Our constable, Mr. Jos. S. Webb, is entitled to much credit for tact and judgment displayed by him in work-ing up and ferreting out this nest of young rascals. The boy Deibert has but lately reformed home from serving a term in the Penitentary for robbing the L. V. depot at this place.
