SATURDAY MORNING, JAN. 20, 1877.

Counting the Electorial Vote.

The Committee appointed from the Senate and House of Representatives on counting the Electoral vote, on Wednesday last agreed upon a bill, which was reported to both Houses and Congress on Thursday, but two of the members of the Committee dissenting, one from the Sepate and one from the House, but who did not make a minority report. The bill is substantially the same as that presented by Senator Morton, in the last Congress, only that provisaton is here made for a tribunal to determine which return shall be counted in cases where more than one return is presented from the same State. The following is a synopsis of the bill agreed upon :

the bill agreed upon;

The first section provides that the two Houses is all assembles in the natiof the House of Representatives at lockock on the second Women of a first provided the first section of the Section of sparation shall be submitted to both purious esparation for decision, and no Electorial vote to which objection shall be made shall be counted except by the affirmative vote of both Houses.

The second section provides that in all cases where more than one certificate of the Electorial vote has been received from the same state, they shall be referred to a commission, consisting of five Senators, five Heprice to the Supreme Court of the United States, who preside over the First. A Suggestion.

To the Editor of THE CARBON ADVOCATE. The citizens of the Borough of Lehighton, and possibly of some other boroughs, have heretofore elected only five councilmen to constitute a Town Council, An Act of Assemply approved June 2nd, 1871, fixes the proper number at six members—the burgess not being a councilman under the law. As the spring elections are approaching I would suggest to my fellow citizens, through your valuable medium THE ADVOCATE, the propriety of filling the vacancy which has heretofore existed, as will be seen by the aforesaid Act, viz : "The number of members of any Town Council of a Borough where the number is now fixed at five, shall be hereafter six, and in Boroughs hereafter incorporated under general laws, the number of such councilmen shall be six; courts of the Commonwealth, having jurisdiction to incorporate boroughs, may, in granting an incorporation, or upon application made to them for the apon application made to them for the purpose, fix or change the charter of any Borough so as to authorize the burgess, or chief executive officer thereof to serve as a member of the Town to preside at the meetings thereof."

Very respectfully yours, Jan. 16th, 1877 W. M. RAPSHER

-A letter from Fort Laramie, dated January 1st, says that General Crook returned to Fort Fetterman on December 29th, and his command on the following day. The Powder River expedition has been given up, the Indians becoming so alert as to make further winter campaigning impracticable. A court-martial was to be held at Cheyenne, on the 5th inst., for the trial of General J. J. Reynolds, of the Colored Third Cavalry, and Captain Moore, on charges of cowardice and disobedience of orders during the late expedition. Sergeant Bessy and an escort of the Sixth Cavalry had a fight with fifteen Indians on the Eikhorn, thirty miles north of Fort Laramie, on the night of the 3d inst. Bessy and one of his companions were slightly wounded, another named Featheralt being severely hurt. They also had three horses killed, but compelled them to retire. A company of calvary left Fort Laramie next day to intercept the indians

-What a set of God-fearing, neighbor-loving, low-abiding citizens these Internationalists must be, who can in public meeting adopt resolutions approving the course and conduct of a set of gut-throats like the Molly Maguires.
