-The latest returns from New Hampshire indicate a Republican majority of about 3000 on the vote for Governor. The First Congressional District is so close that the official count is necessary to determine its choice; the other two districts are carrried by the Republicans. It is believed the Constitutional amendments, including the religious test, have been ratified.

-The Republican caucus of the State Legislature to nominate a candidate for United States Senate, "to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Cameron's resignation, met Tuesday. J. Donald Cameron, son of the retiring Senator, was nominated as this successor, by a vote of 132 to 1 for Morton McMichael. The nomination was made unanimous, and a resolution approving the policy of President Bayes was adopted. The Legislature will proceed to the election of U. S. Senator on Tuesday next. Must it be a Cameron ?

-The coroner's jury in the Ashtabula railroad disaster agreed on Friday of last week on a verdict declaring that the fall of the bridge was the result of errors in its design and construction, and that for the neglect of careful inspection of the structure during the eleven years in which it was used."The responsibility of this fearful disaster, and its consequent loss of life, rests upon the railroad company, which, by its chief executive officer, planned and erected this bridge." The verdict also declares that the mode of heating the cars, which caused them to take fire on being thrown from the track and overturned, was in violation of the law.

-All the Cabinet nominations were favorably reported and confirmed in the executive session of the U. S. Senate on Saturday of last week. When a motion to take up the nomination of Mr. Key, as Po-tmaster General, was made. no objection was interposed, and it was ratified by a vote of 54 to 2, the negatives being Democrats. The vote on Schurz's nomination was 44 to 2; that on Mr. Evarts' about the same. Senator Cameron voted for all three, under what, he said, he regarded as the instructions of his committee, which had ordered a favorable report. A number of Senators on both sides abstained from voting, the negatives in each instance being Democrats. The nomination of McCreary as Secretary of War, Thompson as Secretary of the Navy, and Devens as Attorney General, were confirmed without a division.

"Mollie" Relief Bill.

The following is the debate on final passage of the bill appropriating $20,000 for the " relief of those counties who bave suffered onerous expenses in prosecuting the "Mollie's," and successfully carried through the House of Representatives by our talented fellow townsman, Hon. W. M. Rapsher:

man, 110n. W. M. Rapsher:

The Speaker—When we adjourned the Rouse had under consideration bill. No. 2-8, entitled An act to appropriate for the reinst of certain conties of this Comminwealth who have subtained unusual and enormous expenses in suppressing and britains to justice certain memoris of a secret originalation shown as The Ancelnt triefer of Hiotermans or Molis Maguires.

Ar. Bursess—I nove that the House go into committee of the whole for the purpose of special amenoment.

The Speaker—The gunileman will indicate his amendment.

Wr. Hapsher—I had the floor when we ad-gentlemen from Caroon [Mr tappher] had the floor, that will out of the mendment of the gentlemen.

Mr. hapsher—Mr. Speaker, yesterday, when the House influenced I was discussing the constitutional substitution of the gentlemen from Finishedman, 14r. Crawfored I, and since that adjournment I are taken the opportunity to examine the point which he has raised, and so far as my opinion is coincirned. I have no heatman in asying that the point is more well taken. In fact I have not met a lawyer or any taken. In fact I have not met a lawyer or any taken. In fact I have not met a lawyer or any taken. In fact I have not met a lawyer or any taken. In fact I have not met a lawyer or any taken. It has been in sent by so emmont as the constitutional point has been in sent by so emmont as the distinguishment a lawyer and tires, and student of philosopoly and holicoil economy as the gentleman from Finishmen point for my finishment of the first and the lawyer and of the original sent of the lawyer and of the constitutions. It has to me my attaches, and we misse it makes some officially of the I for the law or my more regard san consideration to constitutions questions when they are from great constitutions questions. Mr. Speaker, who make the men that show nothing about 1. The more. Mr. Speaker, I would like the settlement there is the I do not got to gent of the first of the got how give self to be interrupted—does this bill not apply to unriscular e-unine of the "o unnonwealth!"

Art. Panehet—I believe if does.
Mr. Wise—The second line, second section, siys: "Each and every county." That makes it a purely local bill, and I ruses the point of order that the oil resuccit come before the House.

Mr. R'esher—Mr. Sepacare, I did not prive way for that purpose. I thought the scutteman was going to as to ea question, and I found it to be as 1 read, I raise the point of o der now.

Mr. R'usher—Mr. Speaker, I did not give way for this purpose. I thought the sentleman was going to as the a question.

Mr. Wiss—I did ark a question, and I found it to be as I read. I raise the point of o der low.

The Speaker—Does the gentleman from Greate [Mr. Wiss] raise the point of order that this is incai full!

Mr. Wiss—I see sit, I do,

Br. Jackson, (Marcer)—Mr. Speaker, there was point of order pending, was there not!

Mr. Ripsher] and of order.

Mr. Wiss—I find the continue, second section to show the incidence line, second section to show the incidence line and section will taken in this case.

The speaker—The ordinest of order is not well taken in this case.

Mr. Wiss—I file Chair has any doubt I will leave it to the House.

The Speaker—We will leave it to the fitness when they vote in the bit!

Mr. Ripsher—The point of order raised by the gen lemma from Greene [Mr. Wiss] has been in this Log alaure a number of vears and he know very well the no appropriation for the show there will be a second second in the same class as that of the gentleman from Greene [Mr. Wiss] has been in this Log alaure a number of vears and he know very well the no appropriation for the done will be seen the control of the stone of the second read of t
