LERIGHTON, PA.: BATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 81, 1877.

-The 44th call for the redemption of five twenty bonds was issued Tuesday. It is for ten millions, of which five thousand are registered.

-The dam of the Staffordville reservoir, at Stafford, Conn., gave way Tuesday, doing great damage. About thirty buildings, including a bank and a church, were swept away. The loss is estimated at about $750,000. Two lives are reported lost.

-General Grant left Washington on Saturday night for the West. On returning east he will spend a few days at Harrisburg, to enjoy trout fishing. and then go to Philadelphia. He will sail from that city for Europe with his family on the 10th of May.

-A Washington dispatch, to the N. Y. Sun, dated the 27th inst., says : "Comptroller Knox expressed the opinion to-day that the banking interests of the country were in a more straitened and perilous condition than at any time for years past. They were in many instances, he explained, loaded down with paper discounted under the atter stagpation prevailing last winter, which paper has since become worthless."

- It is stated that the new army bill, to be submitted to the House at the extra session of Congress in June, will provide for a force of only 17,000 men, and an appropriation of a little less $37,000,000. It will provide that no money shall be paid to any railroad for the transportation of property or troops of the United States where such railroad received a land grant on condition that it should be a public highway for the use of the Government.

-The Louisiana Commission to investigate and report on the Gubenatorial dispute, was appointed on Wednesday last as follows: Judge C. B. Lawrence, of III.; ex-Gov. J. C. Brown, of Tenn.; Gen. J. R. Hawley, of Con-necticut; General John M. Harlan, of Kentucky, and Wayne McVeagh, of Pennsylvania. Of the five gentlemen named, only one, ex-Governor Brown, is a Democrat. The Commission will probably leave for New Orleans on Monday. They will not receive any formal instructions, but be left to their

The great subject of inquiry during the last week, has been the sudden disappearance of Oakey Hall, Mayor of N. Y, city during the Tweed dynasty. He left his office about 7 o'clock on Friday evening, the 16th inst., and no one could be found who had seen him after that evening. His disappearance was not announced until the middle of the following week, when investigation was made. Various theories, including murder and suicide, were suggested, or that he had left the city to escape trial for his complicity with the Tweed ring. It is now the general opinion that Mr. Hall had sailed for Europe on some steamer.

-The late Congress made an appropriation of $18,000 and authorized the appointment of a Commission to investigate the character and babits of the grasshoppers and other destructive insects which have made for several years so much ravage in the agricultural districts of the West. The Secretary of the Interior has appointed the following which will be known as the "United States Entomological Commission": Entomologist of hunch and Dr. A. S. Ing the mechanism of the lock

Rackard editor of the American Naturalist, Salem, Mass. These appointments are said to give universal satisfaction to scientific men and to Western men. Professor Riley is designated as chief of the Commission, which will have its headquarters at Prof. Hayden's office, in Washington, and their Western office will be at St. Louis

-The latest exhibition, says the N. Y. Sun, of devotion to the cause of civil service reform that the Fraudulent President has favored the country with, is his appointment of S. B. McLin to be Associate Justice of Supreme Court of New Mexico. McLin is a Florida citizen of African descent. He was Chairman of the Returning Board which stole the electors of that State for Hayes. Indeed, it was his easting vote in that political machine which made the larceny effective, and gave Hayes possession of an office to which he was never elected. Of course McLin must be rewarded for such important services, and Hayes shows that he has some appreciation of the fitness of things by appointing this fellow to a place on the bench of the Supreme Court in New Mexico.

An old Republican Speaks.

The following is an extract from the speech of Wendell Puilips, delivered in Philadelphia, on Monday evening:

What the South needs to-day is the element which Charlemagne, William the Conqueror, and Cromwell contributed to their times—the heavy hand and fearless grasp which holds disorderly and struggling forces quiet, until peace tempts and wins to action the elements which mould our modern civilization, which mould our modern civilization, capital, labor, commerce, education, hope, and equality before the law. Half of what Grant gained for us at Appomattox Hayes surrendered in Washington on the 5th of March.

We need only the inaugural and Cabinet of Hayes from which to forecast his future. The Cabinet of Liucoin was one made of Trimmer's. Except Stanton and Cameron, every member believed in whittling down justice to suit customers. Grant's Cabinet was one of Mediocrities. He seems to have shrunk from counselling with first-rate shrunk from counselling with first-rate men. Hayes' Cabinet reminds one of a story of Turner, the English painter. He had hung up at the exhibition a painting subdued in color. As he studied it on the wall the canvas seemed to fade out of sight in the presence of its fade out of sight in the presence of its bright rivals. After gazing awhile Turner flung a drop of bright red on the centre of his piece, and the picture glowed into startling effect. So I can see Hayes gathering his Cobinet. There is Sherman, who will leave a name linked to no measure or idea—his only linked to no measure or idea-his only record that he entered Congress poor and leaves it rich. Evarts reminds one of the Protestant riots in London, when men chalked on their closed shutters "No Popery" to conciliate the mob. One timid citizen, anxious to stand well with both sides, chalked up "No Religion." Amid this death grapple between Caste and the Declaration of Independence, Evarts writes on his flag,
"No Principles." Key brings in Tilden and secession. Then comes Schurz, the Swiss soldier, always to let. Suddenly Hayes temembers Slave-hound Devens—the low monotony of whose

The Slave-hound Cabinet represents very element of our politics except the element which Blaine, Morton and But-ler stand for. This only—the Hamlet of the piece—is omitted. If the Presi-dential canvass had contained only the forces represented in the Cabinet, Hayes would dwell quietly to-day in Ohio. Blaine and the bloody shirt elected our President.

Wade Hampton and Nicholls promise that, if recognized, they will keep the peace and protect the negro. Promise! While the whole soil of the South is hidden by successive layers of broken promises made the last forty years. She promises made the last torry years. She never yet has kept a promise. The epoch is not ended. Whoever says so is either a knave or dupe. The battle is only adjourned from Waterloo to the coup d'etat of 1851 and the stuffed baliot boxes of November, 1852. Then France tried to create a republic, we are trying to save one.

After a day's weary march Mohammed was camping with his followers. One said, "I will loose my camei and commit it to God." Mohammed said, 'Friend, tie thy camel, and commit it to God.

Tie the State to good common sense to the lessons of history, to the great forces of civilization, law, order, justice, and peace. Use all possible means to secure the aid and protection of these, and then-only then-trust the great future to God.

The Isc National Bank.

On Monday morning last, the gentlemanly cashier of this bank, W. W. Bowman, Esq., showed to us the new Yale Time Lock, which was being placed upon the safe of that institution. This lock is designed to be used in connection with other lucks, as an additional sccurity, and has the following advantages:

It has four separate and independent devices for unlocking, either of which will unlock it. It never can run down in the locked position; for, if through any carelessuess in setting the Lock, or through omission to wind it properly, the dials should be permitted to stop when in the locked position, the running down of either movement will open the Lock. It is thus protected against gentlemen to constitute the Commission, any possible carles ness or inattention on the part of the user. It can be set to remain locked from Saturday night Prof. C. V. Riley. State Entomologist to Monday morning, or to open during the daytime of Sunday, as may be de-of Missouri; Prof. Cyrus Thomas, State sized. It can be wound without exposmeans of the eyelets or peris in the glass face, through which the winding key is inserted. All danger of injury to the time movements, from dust and dirt, is thus removed. It cannot be tampered with by unauthorized parties; for, its door is fastened by a fine key lock, and need never be opened unless it is desired to change the hours unless it is desired to change the hours of locking or unlocking. The winding, therefore, may be entrusted to a subordinate, and the charge of the lock be placed in the hands of one person, rendering impossible all accidental, inten-tional or fraudulent tampering with the Lock, or with its devices for adjusting the hours of locking or unlocking.

Office Seekers at the White House-Billy Crump's Reception-Alarmed by a Crazy Orati Mary Walker—Big Folks and Little Folks—This, That and the Other. From our Special Correspondent.

Wasnington, D. C., March 27, 1877.
"Hope springs eternal in the human breast."
The truth of this was never more fully show: than yesterday by the crowd of office-seekers who thronged the Waite House in spite of the rain and wind and altorether uncomfortable weather. Their perseverance was not entirely without reward, for, either because his other business was not pressing or by their much knocking they had wearied his Excellency, those persistent persons were admitted, one by one, and given an opportunity to sell their grievances, civilius, and aspirations. It is the first time they have gathed such antisues since the manguration of President Hayes, and al-though he listened attentively to all they had to say, he gave thom no na-nrances save that their claims should receive due consideration.
